FOREWORD

The 1964 Manual is both a historic document and a handbook for ready reference in all matters pertaining to the church's life and service. It contains a brief history of our church, a summary of doctrine, standards of practical ethics, the outlines of our basic church polity, and detailed procedures of church government.

For those called Nazarenes, the Bible is the Word of God and the supreme authority and source for all spiritual truth. The doctrines of our church are based upon the Bible, and have been brought to us out of the experience of the historic Christian Church. We believe in all the cardinal doctrines of the evangelical Church, but we also carry a sense of mission to present and conserve the doctrine of heart holiness as an experience to be received and as a life to be lived. The church is committed to an evangelistic outreach that will make her witness vital in every generation and to all nations.

The ethical standards of our church are well expressed in the General and Special Rules. They should be followed carefully and conscientiously as guides and helps to holy living. Those who violate the conscience of the church do so at their own peril and to the hurt of the witness and fellowship of the church.

Historically, our church government reveals synthesis and balance between local congregations and connectionalism. We believe in responsible leadership by duly elected superintendents, on the district and general levels. In practice, our government is representative. There is a balance of ministers and laymen in the General Assembly and in the membership of the General Board. No major change has been made in the principles of church government by the new legislation enacted at the 1964 General Assembly.

Actually, the General Assembly, which meets every four years, is the one lawmaking body of the church. This Manual contains the amendments and additions authorized by the 1964 session of this body. A suitable index of these revisions is prepared for the reader's convenience and is located on page 353.

A careful study of this book and adherence to its regulations will make for cooperative and effective service throughout our church. We commend it to our people everywhere. It represents the best in our church's experience and will prove beneficial to all who would be workers together with God through the Church of the Nazarene.

HISTORICAL STATEMENT

HISTORICAL STATEMENT

I. Near the close of the nineteenth century, a movement for the spread and conservation of scriptural holiness in organized church form developed almost simultaneously in various parts of the United States. This movement was similar to the Wesleyan revival of the previous century. The manifestation everywhere of a spontaneous drawing in the unity of the Spirit towards closer affiliation of those of like precious faith culminated finally in the organization of the Pentecostal Church of the Nazarene.

The great impulse of this movement has been the emphasis placed by the Scriptures upon the fact that, in the atonement, Jesus Christ has made provision, not only to save men from their sins, but also to perfect them in love.

II. On May 12, 1886, a number of the brethren in Providence, Rhode Island, interested in promoting the Wesleyan doctrine and experience of entire sanctification, organized and held weekly religious services, first in private homes, but after a few months in a rented store on Oxford Street. On January 16, 1887, a Sunday school was organized with ninety-five members. On July 21, 1887, the People's Evangelical Church was organized with fifty-one members, Rev. F. A. Hillery acting as pastor. On November 25, 1888, the Mission Church, Lynn, Massachusetts, was organized with Rev. C. Howard Davis as pastor. On March 13 and 14, 1890, representatives from these churches and other evangelical holiness organizations in southern New England assembled at Rock, Massachusetts, and organized the Central Evangelical Holiness Association. Rev. W. C. Ryder, pastor of the Independent Congregational Church of that place, was elected president. Within the following year the Mission Church, Malden, Massachusetts, the Emmanuel Mission Church, North Attleboro, Massachusetts, and the Bethany Mission Church, Keene, New Hampshire, were organized.

In January, 1894, William Howard Hoople, a businessman in New York City, founded a mission in Brooklyn, which, in the following May, was organized as an independent church with a membership of thirty-two, and was called the Utica Avenue Pentecostal Tabernacle. After a church edifice was erected, Mr. Hoople was called to the pastorate. The following February, in an abandoned church building, the Bedford Avenue Pentecostal Church was organized, and a little later, the Emmanuel Pentecostal Tabernacle. In December, 1895, delegates from these three churches adopted a constitution, summary of doctrines, and bylaws, and formed the Association of Pentecostal Churches of America. This association was duly incorporated. Associated with Rev. William Howard Hoople in this work were Rev. H. B. Hosley, Rev. John Norberry, Rev. Charles BeVier, and Rev. H. F. Reynolds.

On November 12, 1896, a joint committee from these two associations met in the city of Brooklyn, New York, to formulate some plan of union. For the benefit of their counsel and cooperation, several brethren prominent in the work were invited to act with the joint committee. Among this number were Rev. C. Howard Davis, Rev. G. W. Wilson, Rev. John Norberry, Rev. H. F. Reynolds, Rev. H. B. Hosley, and Rev. Charles H. BeVier. This meeting resulted in the union of the two bodies. It was agreed that the work should be continued under the name of the Association of Pentecostal Churches of America.

III. In October, 1895, a number of persons, under the leadership of Rev. Phineas F. Bresee, D.D., and Rev. J. P. Widney, LL.D., formed the First Church of the Nazarene at Los Angeles, California, with 135 charter members. They adopted statements of belief, and agreed to such general rules as seemed proper and needful for their immediate guidance, leaving to the future the making of such provisions as the work and its conditions might necessitate. As a result of this organization, a number of churches sprang into existence, reaching as far east as Chicago.

IV. As the group from the East and the group from the West came to know each other better, the feeling grew that they should unite. After delegates from both areas had conferred, the following basis of union was prepared and adopted unanimously by both bodies:

BASIS OF UNION

It is agreed that the two churches are one in the doctrines considered essential to salvation, especially the doctrines of justification by faith and entire sanctification subsequent to justification, also by faith, and, as a result, the precious experience of entire sanctification as a normal condition of the churches. Both churches recognize that the right of church membership rests upon experience; and that persons who have been born of the Spirit are entitled to its privileges.

We are agreed on the necessity of a superintendency, which shall foster and care for churches already established and whose duty it shall be to organize and encourage the organizing of churches everywhere.

We are agreed that authority given to superintendents shall not interfere with the independent action of a fully organized church, each church enjoying the right of selecting its own pastor, subject to such approval as the General Assembly shall find wise to institute; the election of delegates to the various assemblies; the management of their own finances; and of all other things pertaining to their local life and work.

It is agreed that any church of the Association of Pentecostal Churches of America going into this organization which may feel it imperative with them to continue to hold their property in like manner as at present, shall be at liberty to do so.

The first union assembly was held in Chicago in October, 1907. It was agreed that the name of the united body should be The Pentecostal Church of the Nazarene.

V. In 1894 at Milan, Tennessee, the New Testament Church of Christ was organized with fourteen members by Rev. R. L. Harris to conserve and promote scriptural holiness. The influence of this church soon spread throughout western Texas and Arkansas. Prominent among the leaders was Mrs. Mary Lee Cagle, formerly the wife of Rev. R. L. Harris, who continued the work after her husband's death.

In 1888 the first holiness churches in Texas were organized by Rev. Thomas Rogers and Rev. Dennis Rogers, who came from California.

In 1901 the first Independent Holiness Church was organized at Van Alstyne, Texas, by Rev. C. B. Jernigan. This denomination grew and prospered until, in 1903, there were twenty church organizations.

The legal representatives of the Independent Holiness Church and the New Testament Church of Christ met at Rising Star, Texas, in November, 1904, where a joint committee framed a Manual and statement of doctrine and basis of union. The union was fully consummated at Pilot Point, Texas, in November, 1905, and the united body adopted the name Holiness Church of Christ.

VI. In 1907 several representatives from the Holiness Church of Christ accepted the invitation of the Pentecostal Church of the Nazarene to attend its General Assembly in Chicago, but were not authorized to take any action with reference to organic union. After the Assembly invited them into counsel, provisional arrangements were made to incorporate the two churches into one body, when proper action could be taken. Upon the invitation of the Holiness Church of Christ, the Second General Assembly convened at Pilot Point, Texas, at two o'clock, Thursday afternoon, October 8, 1908. On the following Tuesday morning, R. B. Mitchum moved: "That the union of the two churches be now consummated," and the motion was seconded by Revs. C. W. Ruth, John N. Short, J. B. Creighton, C. B. Jernigan, H. B. Hosley, P. F. Bresee, and others spoke favorably regarding the motion. On Tuesday, October 13, 1908, at 10:40 a.m., amid great enthusiasm, the motion to unite was adopted by a unanimous rising vote.

VII. In 1898 Rev. J. O. McClurkan and a few others called a meeting of the holiness people of Tennessee and adjacent states to be held in Nashville. At this convention an association known as the Pentecostal Alliance was formed, but its name was later changed to the Pentecostal Mission. From the beginning these people were evangelistic in spirit and had a burning desire to disseminate the doctrine and experience of sanctification. Thus in different sections of the South there came together groups of holiness people, known as bands of the Pentecostal Mission. They were decidedly missionary in spirit, and soon were sending their representatives to "the regions beyond." Throughout their career they have been characterized by this missionary zeal.

At different times the question of the union of the Pentecostal Mission with the Pentecostal Church of the Nazarene had been discussed. Finally on February 13, 1915, this union was effected at Nashville, Tennessee, thus uniting both the home and the foreign work of the Pentecostal Mission and the Pentecostal Church of the Nazarene.

VIII. In November, 1901, the first stage in the present holiness church movement in the British Isles began, when Rev. George Sharpe, who had been for thirteen and one-half years a preacher in the Methodist Episcopal Church, accepted a call to the Congregational Church at Ardrossan, Scotland. In September, 1905, he became minister of Parkhead Congregational Church, Glasgow; but, after a strenuous, successful, and glorious ministry of thirteen months, he was evicted for preaching Bible holiness.

On September 30, 1906, the first services of the first distinctively holiness church were held in the Great Eastern Roads Hall, Glasgow. The charter members numbered eighty. Other churches were organized and became the Pentecostal Church of Scotland. Visits of Dr. E. F. Walker and Dr. H. F. Reynolds to Scotland, and a visit of Rev. George Sharpe and Mrs. Sharpe to the Fourth General Assembly, at Kansas City, Missouri, led the way to union with the Church of the Nazarene, which was consummated in November, 1915.

IX. The General Assembly of 1919, in response to memorials from thirty-five district assemblies, changed the name of the organization to "Church of the Nazarene."

X. For many years a holiness movement had been developing in Minnesota, the Dakotas, and Montana. It was originated by a group of Methodist laymen, and was formally organized in 1917 at Jamestown, North Dakota, as the Laymen's Holiness Association. Rev. J. G. Morrison was immediately elected field evangelist and, in 1919, president of the organization. With him were associated Rev. Ira E. Hammer, Rev. S. C. Taylor, Rev. W. G. Bennett, and over twenty other evangelists and workers engaged in a widespread program of holiness evangelism and camp meeting promotion. In 1922, under the leadership of these ministers, more than one thousand people identified with the Laymen's Holiness Association united with the Church of the Nazarene.

XI. During the quadrennium 1952-56, two holiness groups in Britain merged with the Church of the Nazarene.

The International Holiness Mission, founded in London, England, in 1907 by Mr. David Thomas, businessman and lay preacher, consummated union with the Church of the Nazarene in Leeds, England, October 29, 1952, with General Superintendent Hardy C. Powers officiating. At the time of union, Mr. John Place was president of the International Holiness Mission, and Rev. J. B. Maclagan, who for twenty-two years had been a minister in the Church of the Nazarene in the British Isles, was superintendent-minister. The union brought twenty-eight churches, over a thousand constituents, and thirty-six missionaries in South Africa into the Church of the Nazarene.

For about twenty-five years the Calvary Holiness Church of Britain carried on its ministry of holiness evangelism under the leadership of Rev. Maynard James and Rev. Jack Ford. Union of the Calvary Holiness Church with the Church of the Nazarene was consummated June 11, 1955, at Manchester, England, with General Superintendent Samuel Young officiating. About twenty-two churches and over six hundred members came into the church as a result of this union.

XII. The Gospel Workers Church of Canada united with the Church of the Nazarene on September 7, 1958. Under the leadership of Rev. Albert Mills, president, and Rev. C. J. McNichol, secretary, the union took place with Mr. Samuel Goff, son of the founder, Rev. Frank D. Goff, of the Gospel Workers Church, acting as attorney in the negotiations. The union was completed under the supervision of General Superintendent Samuel Young and added five churches and two hundred members to the Canada Central District.

CONSTITUTION
CHURCH OF THE NAZARENE

Preamble

In order that we may preserve our God-given heritage, the faith once delivered to the saints, especially the doctrine and experience of sanctification as a second work of grace, and also that we may cooperate effectually with other branches of the Church of Jesus Christ in advancing God's kingdom among men, we, the ministers and lay members of the Church of the Nazarene, in accordance with the principles of constitutional legislation established among us, do hereby ordain, adopt, and set forth as the fundamental law or constitution of the Church of the Nazarene the Articles of Faith, the General Rules, and the Articles of Organization and Government here following, to wit:

ARTICLES OF FAITH

I. The Triune God

1. We believe in one eternally existent, infinite God, Sovereign of the universe; that He only is God, creative and administrative, holy in nature, attributes, and purpose; that

He, as God, is Triune in essential being, revealed as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

II. Jesus Christ

2. We believe in Jesus Christ, the Second Person of the Triune Godhead; that He was eternally one with the Father; that He became incarnate by the Holy Spirit and was born of the Virgin Mary, so that two whole and perfect natures, that is to say the Godhead and manhood, are thus united in one person very God and very man, the God-man.

We believe that Jesus Christ died for our sins, and that He truly arose from the dead and took again His body, together with all things appertaining to the perfection of man's nature, wherewith He ascended into heaven and is there engaged in intercession for us.

III. The Holy Spirit

3. We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Third Person of the Triune Godhead, that He is ever present and efficiently active in and with the Church of Christ, convincing the world of sin, regenerating those who repent and believe, sanctifying believers, and guiding into all truth as it is in Jesus.

IV. The Holy Scriptures

4. We believe in the plenary inspiration of the Holy Scriptures, by which we understand the sixty-six books of the Old and New Testaments given by divine inspiration, inerrantly revealing the will of God concerning us in all things necessary to our salvation, so that whatever is not contained therein is not to be enjoined as an article of faith.

V. Original Sin, or Depravity

5. We believe that original sin, or depravity, is that corruption of the nature of all the offspring of Adam by reason of which every one is very far gone from original righteousness or the pure state of our first parents at the time of their creation, is averse to God, is without spiritual life, and inclined to evil, and that continually. We further believe that original sin continues to exist with the new life of the regenerate, until eradicated by the baptism with the Holy Spirit.

VI. Atonement

6. We believe that Jesus Christ, by His sufferings, by the shedding of His own blood, and by His meritorious death on the Cross, made a full atonement for all human sin, and that this atonement is the only ground of salvation, and that it is sufficient for every individual of Adam's race. The atonement is graciously efficacious for the salvation of the irresponsible and for the children in innocency, but is efficacious for the salvation of those who reach the age of responsibility only when they repent and believe.

VII. Free Agency

7. We believe that man's creation in God-likeness included ability to choose between right and wrong, and that thus he was made morally responsible; that through the fall of Adam he became depraved so that he cannot now turn and prepare himself by his own natural strength and works to faith and calling upon God. But we also believe that the grace of God through Jesus Christ is freely bestowed upon all men, enabling all who will to turn from sin to righteousness, believe on Jesus Christ for pardon and cleansing from sin, and follow good works pleasing and acceptable in His sight.

We believe that man, though in the possession of the experience of regeneration and entire sanctification, may fall from grace and apostatize and, unless he repent of his sin, be hopelessly and eternally lost.

VIII. Repentance

8. We believe that repentance, which is a sincere and thorough change of the mind in regard to sin, involving a sense of personal guilt and a voluntary turning away from sin, is demanded of all who have by act or purpose become sinners against God. The Spirit of God gives to all who will repent the gracious help of penitence of heart and hope of mercy, that they may believe unto pardon and spiritual life.

IX. Justification, Regeneration, and Adoption

9. We believe that justification is that gracious and judicial act of God, by which He grants full pardon of all guilt and complete release from the penalty of sins committed, and acceptance as righteous, to all who believe on Jesus Christ and receive Him as Lord and Saviour.

10. We believe that regeneration, or the new birth, is that gracious work of God whereby the moral nature of the repentant believer is spiritually quickened and given a distinctively spiritual life, capable of faith, love, and obedience.

11. We believe that adoption is that gracious act of God by which the justified and regenerated believer is constituted a son of God.

12. We believe that justification, regeneration, and adoption are simultaneous in the experience of seekers after God and are obtained upon the condition of faith, preceded by repentance; and that to this work and state of grace the Holy Spirit bears witness.

X. Entire Sanctification

13. We believe that entire sanctification is that act of God, subsequent to regeneration, by which believers are made free from original sin, or depravity, and brought into a state of entire devotement to God, and the holy obedience of love made perfect.

It is wrought by the baptism with the Holy Spirit, and comprehends in one experience the cleansing of the heart from sin and the abiding indwelling presence of the Holy Spirit, empowering the believer for life and service.

Entire sanctification is provided by the blood of Jesus, is wrought instantaneously by faith, preceded by entire consecration; and to this work and state of grace the Holy Spirit bears witness.

This experience is also known by various terms representing its different phases, such as "Christian Perfection," "Perfect Love," "Heart Purity," "The Baptism with the Holy Spirit," "The Fullness of the Blessing," and "Christian Holiness." [40]

XI. Second Coming of Christ

14. We believe that the Lord Jesus Christ will come again; that we who are alive at His coming shall not precede them that are asleep in Christ Jesus; but that, if we are abiding in Him, we shall be caught up with the risen saints to meet the Lord in the air, so that we shall ever be with the Lord.

XII. Resurrection, Judgment, and Destiny

15. We believe in the resurrection of the dead, that the bodies both of the just and of the unjust shall be raised to life and united with their spirits—"they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of damnation.”

16. We believe in future judgment in which every man shall appear before God to be judged according to his deeds in this life.

17. We believe that glorious and everlasting life is assured to all who savingly believe in, and obediently follow, Jesus Christ our Lord; and that the finally impenitent shall suffer eternally in hell.

XIII. Baptism

18. We believe that Christian baptism is a sacrament signifying acceptance of the benefits of the atonement of Jesus Christ, to be administered to believers as declarative of their faith in Jesus Christ as their Saviour, and full purpose of obedience in holiness and righteousness.

Baptism being the symbol of the New Testament, young children may be baptized, upon request of parents or guardians who shall give assurance for them of necessary Christian training.

Baptism may be administered by sprinkling, pouring, or immersion, according to the choice of the applicant.

XIV. The Lord's Supper

19. We believe that the Memorial and Communion Supper instituted by our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ is essentially a New Testament sacrament, declarative of His sacrificial death, through the merits of which believers have life and salvation and promise of all spiritual blessings in Christ. It is distinctively for those who are prepared for reverent appreciation of its significance and by it they show forth the Lord's death till He come again. It being the Communion feast, only those who have faith in Christ and love for the saints should be called to participate therein.

XV. Divine Healing

20. We believe in the Bible doctrine of divine healing and urge our people to seek to offer the prayer of faith for the healing of the sick. Providential means and agencies when deemed necessary should not be refused.

THE CHURCH

I. The General Church

21. The Church of God is composed of all spiritually regenerate persons, whose names are written in heaven.

II. The Churches Severally

22. The churches severally are to be composed of such regenerate persons as by providential permission, and by the leadings of the Holy Spirit, become associated together for holy fellowship and ministries.

III. The Church of the Nazarene

23. The Church of the Nazarene is composed of those persons who have voluntarily associated themselves together according to the doctrines and polity of said church, and who seek holy Christian fellowship, the conversion of sinners, the entire sanctification of believers, their upbuilding in holiness, and the simplicity and spiritual power manifest in the primitive New Testament Church, together with the preaching of the gospel to every creature.

IV. Agreed Statement of Belief

24. Recognizing that the right and privilege of persons to church membership rest upon the fact of their being regenerate, we would require only such avowals of belief as are essential to Christian experience. We, therefore, deem belief in the following brief statements to be sufficient. We believe:

§ 1. In one God—the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

§ 2. That the Old and New Testament Scriptures, given by plenary inspiration, contain all truth necessary to faith and Christian living.

§ 3. That man is born with a fallen nature, and is, therefore, inclined to evil, and that continually.

§ 4. That the finally impenitent are hopelessly and eternally lost.

§ 5. That the atonement through Jesus Christ is for the whole human race; and that whosoever repents and believes on the Lord Jesus Christ is justified and regenerated and saved from the dominion of sin.

§ 6. That believers are to be sanctified wholly, subsequent to regeneration, through faith in the Lord Jesus Christ.

§ 7. That the Holy Spirit bears witness to the new birth, and also to the entire sanctification of believers.

§ 8. That our Lord will return, the dead will be raised, and the final judgment will take place.

V. The General Rules

25. To be identified with the visible Church is the blessed privilege and sacred duty of all who are saved from their sins, and are seeking completeness in Christ Jesus. It is required of all who desire to unite with the Church of the Nazarene, and thus to walk in fellowship with us, that they shall show evidence of salvation from their sins by a godly walk and vital piety; that they shall be, or earnestly desire to be, cleansed from all indwelling sin; and that they shall evidence this—

§ 1. FIRST. By avoiding evil of every kind, including:

- (1) Taking the name of God in vain.

(2) Profaning of the Lord's day, either by unnecessary labor, or business, or by the patronizing or reading of secular papers, or by holiday diversions.

(3) Using of intoxicating liquors as a beverage, or trafficking therein; giving influence to, or voting for, the licensing of places for the sale of the same; using of tobacco in any of its forms, or trafficking therein.

(4) Quarreling, returning evil for evil, gossiping, slandering, spreading surmises injurious to the good names of others.

(5) Dishonesty, taking advantage in buying and selling, bearing false witness, and like works of darkness.

(6) The indulging of pride in dress or behavior. Our people are to dress with the Christian simplicity and modesty that become holiness. "In like manner also, that women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefacedness and sobriety; not with broided hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly array; but (which becometh women professing godliness) with good works" (I Timothy 2:9-10). "Whose adorning let it not be that outward adorning of plaiting the hair, and of wearing of gold, or of putting on of apparel; but let it be the hidden man of the heart, in that which is not corruptible, even the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price" (I Peter 3:3-4).

(7) Songs, literature, and entertainments not to the glory of God; the theater, the ball-room, the circus, and like places; also, lotteries and games of chance; looseness and impropriety of conduct; membership in or fellowship with oath-bound secret orders or fraternities. "Know ye not that the friendship of the world is enmity with God? Whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God" (James 4:4). "Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness? . . . Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you" (II Corinthians 6:14-17).

§ 2. SECOND. By doing that which is enjoined in the Word of God, which is both our rule of faith and practice, including:

- (1) Being courteous to all men.
- (2) Contributing to the support of the ministry and the church and its work, according to the ability which God giveth.
- (3) Being helpful to those who are of the household of faith, in love forbearing one another.
- (4) Loving God with all the heart, soul, mind, and strength.
- (5) Attending faithfully all the ordinances of God, and the means of grace, including the public worship of God, the ministry of the Word, the sacrament of the Lord's Supper; searching the Scriptures and meditating thereon; family and private devotions.

(6) Seeking to do good to the bodies and souls of men; feeding the hungry, clothing the naked, visiting the sick and imprisoned, and ministering to the needy, as opportunity and ability are given.

(7) Pressing upon the attention of the unsaved the claims of the gospel, inviting them to the house of the Lord, and trying to compass their salvation.

§ 3. THIRD. By abiding in hearty fellowship with the church, not inveighing against its doctrines and usages, but being in full sympathy and conformity therewith.

ARTICLES OF ORGANIZATION AND GOVERNMENT

ARTICLE I. FORM OF GOVERNMENT

26. The Church of the Nazarene has a representative form of government.

§ 1. We are agreed on the necessity of a superintendency which shall foster and care for churches already established, and whose duty it shall be to organize and encourage the organizing of churches everywhere.

§ 2. We are agreed that authority given to superintendents shall not interfere with the independent action of a fully organized church.

Each church shall enjoy the right to select its own pastor, subject to such approval as the General Assembly shall find wise to institute. Each church shall also elect delegates to the various assemblies, manage its own finances, and have charge of all other matters pertaining to its local life and work.

27. It is agreed that any church of the Association of Pentecostal Churches of America going into this organization which may feel it imperative with it to continue to hold its property in like manner as at present, shall be at liberty to do so.

ARTICLE II. LOCAL CHURCHES

28. The membership of a local church shall consist of all who have been organized as a church by those authorized so to do and who have been publicly received by those having proper authority, after having declared their experience of salvation, their belief in our doctrines, and their willingness to submit to our government. [42-43]

ARTICLE III. DISTRICT ASSEMBLIES

29. The General Assembly shall organize the membership of the church into District Assemblies, giving such lay and ministerial representation therein as the General Assembly may deem fair and just, and shall determine qualifications of such representatives, provided, however, that all elders in good standing shall be members thereof. The General Assembly shall also fix the boundaries of Assembly Districts, and define the powers and duties of District Assemblies. [174, 176]

ARTICLE IV. THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

30. § 1. How Composed. The General Assembly shall be composed of ministerial and lay delegates in equal numbers, elected thereto by District Assemblies of the Church of the Nazarene; such ex officio members as the General Assembly shall from time to time direct; and such representatives of the missionary districts of the Church of the Nazarene as may be provided for by the General Assembly.

§ 2. Election of Delegates. Every District Assembly shall elect by ballot at a session within sixteen months of the meeting of the General Assembly an equal number of ministerial and lay delegates to the General Assembly, provided that the ministerial delegates shall be elders of the Church of the Nazarene. Each assembly district shall be entitled to at least one ministerial and one lay delegate, and such additional delegates as its membership may warrant on the basis of representation fixed by the General Assembly. Each assembly district shall elect alternate delegates not exceeding the number of its delegates. [180 § 26, 326-27, 333] election to the delegates and alternates severally elected to the General Assembly, and shall also send certificates of such elections to the general secretary of the Church of the Nazarene immediately following the adjournment of the District Assembly.

§ 3. Credentials. The secretary of each District Assembly shall furnish certificates of

§ 4. Quorum. When the General Assembly is in session a majority of the whole number of delegates elected thereto shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. If a quorum has once been had, a smaller number may approve the minutes then remaining unapproved, and adjourn.

§ 5. General Superintendents. The General Assembly shall elect by ballot from among the elders of the Church of the Nazarene as many general superintendents as it may deem necessary, who shall constitute the Board of General Superintendents. Any vacancy in the office of general superintendent in the interim of General Assemblies shall be filled by a two-thirds vote of all the district superintendents of the Church of the Nazarene. [337 § 1]

§ 6. Presiding Officers. A general superintendent appointed thereto by the Board of General Superintendents shall preside over the daily meetings of the General Assembly. But if no general superintendent be so appointed or be present, the General Assembly shall elect one of its members as temporary presiding officer. [324]

§ 7. Rules of Order. The General Assembly shall adopt Rules of Order governing its manner of organization, procedure, committees, and all other matters pertaining to the orderly conduct of its business. It shall be the judge of the election and qualifications of its own members. [325]

§ 8. General Court of Appeals. The General Assembly shall elect from among members of the Church of the Nazarene a General Court of Appeals and shall define its jurisdiction and powers. [337 § 10] § 9. Powers and Restrictions.

(1) The General Assembly shall have power to legislate for the Church of the Nazarene, and to make rules and regulations for all the departments related to or associated with it in any respect, but not in conflict with this Constitution. [323, 337 §§ 1-15]

(2) No local church shall be deprived of the right to call its pastor, subject to such approval as the General Assembly shall find wise to institute. [80]

(3) All local churches, officers, ministers, and laymen shall always have the right to a fair and orderly trial and the right to take an appeal.

AMENDMENTS

31. The provisions of this Constitution may be repealed or amended when concurred in by a two-thirds vote of all the members of the General Assembly, and when concurred in by not less than two-thirds of all the District Assemblies of the Church of the Nazarene. Either the General Assembly or any District Assembly may take the initiative in the matter of proposing such alterations or amendments. As soon as such alterations or amendments shall have been adopted as herein provided, the result of the vote shall be announced by the Board of General Superintendents, whereupon such alterations or amendments shall have full force and effect.

PART III
SPECIAL RULES

SUPPORT OF THE CHURCH
TEMPERANCE AND PROHIBITION
MARRIAGE AND DIVORCE
CHURCH OFFICERS
GROWTH IN GRACE
STEWARDSHIP

SPECIAL RULES

I. Support of the Church

"Even so hath the Lord ordained that they which preach the gospel should live of the gospel" (I Corinthians 9:14).

32. There can be no doubt (1) that the church is obligated to support its ministers, who have been called of God, and who, under the direction of the church, have given themselves wholly to the work of the ministry; nor (2) that all the members of the church have voluntarily committed themselves to this task of supporting the ministry. We urge, therefore, that money be gathered weekly for this holy business, and that, wherever possible and practicable, the pastor's salary be paid regularly every week. [84]

33. We believe that the scriptural method of gathering money for the support of the church is by means of tithes and offerings. We urge that our people adopt tithing as the scriptural and satisfactory plan, that each member may do his minimum share in the support of the whole church, local, district, and general. And on the basis of the divine promises to liberal givers, we exhort our people, in addition to their tithes, to make freewill offerings as generous as circumstances will permit. [41]

34. In disbursing to meet the requirements of the local, district, and general programs of the Church of the Nazarene, local churches are urged to adopt and practice the budget plan, and, wherever possible, to pay general and district apportionments monthly. [72, 124, 161-66]

II. Temperance and Prohibition

35. The Holy Scriptures and human experience alike condemn the use of intoxicating drinks as a beverage. The manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors for such purpose is a sin against God and the human race. Total abstinence from all intoxicants is the Christian rule for the individual, and total prohibition of the traffic in intoxicants is the duty of civil government. [464]

36. Only unfermented wine and unleavened bread should be used in the sacrament of the Lord's Supper. [69 § 10, 260, 266, 584]

III. Marriage and Divorce

37. The institution of marriage was ordained of God in the time of man's innocency, and is, according to apostolic authority, "honourable in all"; it is the mutual union of one man and one woman for fellowship, helpfulness, and the propagation of the race. Our people should cherish this sacred estate as becomes Christians, and should enter it only after earnest prayer for divine direction, and when assured that the contemplated union is in accordance with scriptural requirements. They should seek earnestly the blessings which God has ordained in connection with the wedded state, namely, holy companionship, parenthood, and mutual love—the elements of home building. The marriage covenant is morally binding so long as both shall live, and, therefore, may not be dissolved at will.

38. We hold that persons who obtain divorce under the civil law where the scriptural ground for divorce, namely, adultery, does not exist, and who remarry subsequently, are living in adultery, and are ineligible for membership in the Church of the Nazarene. Though there may exist such other causes and conditions as may justify divorce under the civil law, yet only adultery will supply such ground as may justify the innocent party in remarrying.

The ministers of the Church of the Nazarene are positively forbidden to solemnize the marriage of persons not having the scriptural right to marry. [43-44, 49, 255 § 5]

IV. Church Officers

39. We direct our local churches in selecting their church officers to elect only such as are clearly in the experience of entire sanctification [64 § 1, 141]

V. Growth in Grace

40. There is a marked distinction between a perfect heart and a perfect character. The former is obtained in an instant, the result of entire sanctification, but the latter is the result of growth in grace.

Our mission to the world is not alone to spread scriptural holiness as a doctrine, but also to be "an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity." Our people should give careful heed to the development of holiness in the fear of the Lord, to the promotion of the growth of Christian graces in the heart, and to their manifestation in the daily life. [13]

VI. Stewardship

41. Our people should recognize God's ownership of all things and our trusteeship—that we are but stewards of our own lives and are responsible for the use of our time, means, and other possessions; and that we are under the sacred obligation of systematic and proportionate giving of our time and means for the support of Christian work, and of holding and using all possessions sacredly unto the Lord. Because stewardship is essential to the more abundant life, we should seek by all proper means to promote its practice throughout the church.

*Storehouse tithing is clearly both the scriptural and practical performance of faithfully and regularly placing the tithe in that church to which the member belongs. Upon careful reflection the local church is the only storehouse properly recognizable in a scriptural sense. Therefore to widen the scope of the definition weakens its import and value. [33, 108, 461]

PART IV
GOVERNMENT

THE LOCAL CHURCH
THE DISTRICT ASSEMBLY
THE MINISTER AND MINISTRY
THE DEACONESS
THE SONG EVANGELIST
THE MINISTER OF MUSIC
THE DIRECTOR OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION
THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

Preamble

All life must have law; all organization must have government. He who is Head over all things unto the Church himself gave form and order unto His body of followers and representatives. We seek as a church to conform to principles of government in accord with the Holy Scriptures and divine providences, that all things may be done scripturally, decently, and in order.

The government of the Church of the Nazarene is representative, and thus avoids the extremes of episcopacy on the one hand, and unlimited congregationalism on the other.

CHAPTER I

THE LOCAL CHURCH

I. Organization of Local Churches

42. Local churches may be organized by the district superintendent, or by the general superintendent having jurisdiction, or by an elder authorized by either of them. [28, 192 § 1, 275, 343]

II. Full Membership

43. All persons who have been organized into a local church by those authorized so to do, and all who have been publicly received by the pastor, the district superintendent, or the general superintendent, after having declared their experience of salvation, and their belief in the doctrines of the Church of the Nazarene, and their willingness to submit to its government, shall compose the full membership of the local church; however, only church members who have reached their fifteenth birthday shall be entitled to vote in annual or special church meetings. [28, 38, 44, 50 § 1, 57, 69 § 2, 77, 262, 272, 343]

44. When persons desire to unite with the church the pastor shall explain to them briefly the privileges of membership in the church and the requirements of the general rules, and if they are acceptable candidates, after consulting with the church membership committee, the minister shall in a public service, using the approved form for the reception of members (Part VII, Chapter II, 583), receive them into the membership of the church. [25, 38, 49 §§ 1-2]

45. Members of missions, where the organization of a local church has not been effected, shall not be counted as church members nor reported as church members; however, members of a mission may, when duly received according to 43 and 44, hold church membership in some regularly organized local church in which they shall be counted as church members. But the members of missions shall not be reported in the annual statistics as church members. [69 § 12]

III. Probationary Membership

46. Any local church may, through its church board, establish a system of probationary membership; but probationers must not be counted as church members. [123 § 20]

47. Probationers shall have all the privileges of church members, with the exception of voting and holding church office.

48. Probationers may be received into full membership or dropped at any time, at the discretion of the pastor and church membership committee.

IV. Church Membership Committee

49. The church board shall provide a church membership committee of not fewer than three persons, whose duty it shall be to act in the capacity of an advisory committee with the pastor as chairman, and it shall be the duty of this committee to conserve the fruits of our evangelism by the following means: [43-44, 123 § 21]

§ 1. New converts shall be urged to qualify for church membership by a consistent devotional life, a study of the Bible and the Manual, individually and/or in a pastor's membership class. [24-25, 38]

§ 2. Effort shall be made to bring new members into total fellowship and service of the church.

§ 3. After new members are received, the committee shall work with the pastor in developing a continued program of spiritual guidance.

§ 4. No person shall be received into full membership of the local church until the pastor first consults with the church membership committee concerning that person's reception.

V. Change of Membership

50. § 1. The pastor, when requested by a member, may grant a transfer of church membership [see form in 590 § 4] to any local church of the Church of the Nazarene that may be named, such transfer to be valid for three months only. When the reception of the transfer is acknowledged by the receiving local church, such person's membership in the former local church shall cease. [71, 590 § 5]

§ 2. The pastor, when requested by a member, may grant a certificate of commendation [see form in 590 § 2] to any evangelical church that may be named, after which such person's membership in the local church issuing the certificate shall cease immediately. [71]

§ 3. The pastor, when requested by a member, may grant a letter of dismissal [see form in 590 § 3], thus terminating such person's membership immediately. [71]

51. A member of a local church, when changing his place of residence, is required to report to his pastor at least once in six months. Should he fail to do so, his name may be removed from the church roll by action of the church board, after which the pastor shall write opposite his name, "Removed without letter." [126]

52. When a member of a local church shall absent himself from all religious services of the church for six successive months without a reason deemed justifiable by the church board, his name may be removed from the church roll by action of the church board, after he has been visited and dealt with faithfully, when possible. After such action of the church board the pastor shall write opposite his name, "Removed by the church board." [127]

53. When a licensed or an ordained minister has united with the church membership or ministry of another denomination, his membership in the local church shall, because of that fact, immediately cease, and there shall be written opposite his name, "Removed by uniting with another denomination." [262, 272]

54. When a member of a local church has accepted license to preach or ordination from any other religious organizations, or is engaging in independent church or missionary work, his membership in the local church shall, because of that fact, immediately cease except in case that person shall secure the annual written approval of the local church board of the church in which he holds his membership and the annual written approval of the District Advisory Board of the district in which that church is located.

55. When a member of a local church or of any of the departments of the church moves to another locality in the same assembly district where vital association with the previous local church is impractical, the pastor shall notify the pastor of the local church nearest the locality, giving the member's name and address if known. If the member moves beyond the bounds of the assembly district, the local pastor shall immediately inform the "Moving Nazarenes Service" of the Department of Evangelism, 6401 The Paseo, Kansas City, Missouri 64131, giving the member's name and new address, if known. The Department of Evangelism shall immediately forward the information to the pastor of the local church nearest the new locality where the person is residing. [70]

VI. Church Meetings

56. A meeting of the members of a local church for conference and for the transaction of any business not otherwise provided for shall be known as a church meeting. [61, 75, 80, 86-90, 92, 104, 118]

57. Only those persons who have been received into full membership and have reached their fifteenth birthday shall be entitled to vote in church meetings. [43]

58. Any business, including elections, in harmony with the spirit and order of the church, and not otherwise specially provided for, may be transacted at any church meeting.

59. In all cases where the civil law requires a specific course of procedure in calling and conducting church meetings, that course should be strictly followed. [111]

60. The pastor, who shall be ex officio president of the local church, or the district superintendent, or the general superintendent having jurisdiction, or someone appointed by the district superintendent or the general superintendent, shall preside at annual or special church meetings. [73, 197, 347]

61. An annual church meeting of members of each local church shall be held within sixty days prior to the meeting of the District Assembly, public notice of the same always being given from the pulpit at least two Sundays preceding. [80, 104, 112]

62. The secretary of the church board shall be the secretary of all church meetings; in his absence a secretary pro tempore shall be elected. [129 § 4]

63. Reports shall be given at the annual church meeting by the pastor [69 § 14], the superintendent of the Sunday school [141], the president of the Nazarene Young People's Society [155], the president of the local Nazarene World Missionary Society [160], the deaconesses [93], the local preachers [98], the stewards [107], the trustees [114], the local church school board [134], the secretary [129 § 2], and the treasurer [130 § 5] of the church board.

64. At the annual church meeting there shall be an election, by ballot, of the stewards [104], the trustees [109, 112], the Sunday school superintendent [142], and the members of the church school board [133] of the local church, to serve for the next church year and until their successors are elected and qualified.

§ 1. Local churches in selecting their church officers are directed to elect only such as are clearly in the experience of entire sanctification. [See Special Rules, 39.]

§ 2. A nominating committee in the election of officers, boards, and District Assembly delegates by the local church may be used, if desired. This committee may be constituted by whatever method and in whatever manner the church board shall propose. The pastor shall serve as chairman of the committee.

65. At the annual church meeting, there shall be an election, by ballot, of lay delegates to the District Assembly, on the basis of representation fixed by the General Assembly according to 176, 177 §§ 1-2.

66. Special meetings of church members of the local church, for conference or the transaction of business, may be called at any time by the pastor or the church board after having obtained the consent of the pastor or of the district superintendent or of the general superintendent having jurisdiction. [118]

Public notice of special church meetings shall always be given from the pulpit in at least two preceding regular services, or in such manner as meets the requirements of civil law. [86, 88, 90, 104, 106, 112-13]

VII. The Church Years

67. § 1. The church year shall begin on the Monday immediately following the final adjournment of the District Assembly of the assembly district in which the local church is situated, and shall close at twelve o'clock midnight on the Sunday immediately following the final adjournment of the District Assembly.

§ 2. The statistical year shall close within forty-five days prior to the opening of the District Assembly, and the new statistical year shall begin the day following its close. The exact date of the beginning and close of the statistical year within these bounds shall be set by the District Advisory Board. [215 § 1]

VIII. The Pastor

68. A pastor is an elder or a licensed minister [80] who, under the call of God and His people, has the oversight of a local church. [39, 194]

69. The duties of a pastor are:

§ 1. To preach the Word. [260, 266]

§ 2. To receive persons into membership in the local church according to 43 and 44.

§ 3. To administer the sacraments in harmony with 260 and 266.

§ 4. To care for the people by pastoral visitation, particularly of the sick and needy.

§ 5. To comfort those who mourn.

§ 6. To reprove, rebuke, and exhort, with all long-suffering and doctrine.

§ 7. To seek, by all means, the conversion of sinners, the sanctification of the converted, and the upbuilding of God's people in their most holy faith. [23]

§ 8. To have the care of all departments of local church work.

§ 9. To appoint the teachers of the Sunday school in harmony with 144.

§ 10. To administer the sacrament of the Lord's Supper at least once a quarter. If he is a licensed minister but has failed to pass in the prescribed course of study as provided in 260 [see also 584], he shall arrange for such administration by an elder. [36, 105 § 2]

§ 11. To read to the congregation the Constitution of the Church of the Nazarene and the Special Rules contained in 1-25, 32-41, both inclusive, within each church year [67 § 1], or have this section of the Manual printed and distributed annually to the members of the church.

§ 12. To supervise the preparation of all statistical reports from all departments of the local church, and present promptly all such reports through the district secretary to the District Assembly. [45, 67 § 2, 147]

§ 13. To give leadership to the evangelism, education, devotion, and expansion programs of the local church in harmony with the district and general church promotional goals and programs; in his annual report to the local church he shall include a report on the status of the local church and its departments; he shall also outline areas of future needs with recommendations for reference by the church to any of its officers or departments for study and/or implementation in future steps for growth and progress.

§ 14. To submit a report to the annual church meeting. [63]

§ 15. To appoint an investigating committee of three in case of accusation filed against a church member. [470]

§ 16. To see that all general budget funds raised through the local missionary society are remitted promptly to the General Treasurer; and that all district budget funds are remitted promptly to the district treasurer. [130 § 2]

§ 17. To nominate to the church board all persons who are paid employees of the local church, and to have supervision of the same.

70. When a member or friend of a local church or any of the departments of the church moves to another locality in the same assembly district where vital association with the previous local church is impractical, the pastor shall notify the pastor of the church nearest the locality, giving the member's or friend's address if known. If the move is to a locality beyond the assembly district, the local pastor shall immediately inform the "Moving Nazarenes Service" of the Department of Evangelism, 6401 The Paseo, Kansas City, Missouri 64131, giving the name and new address if known. The Department of Evangelism shall immediately forward the information to the pastor of the new locality where the person is residing. [55]

71. The pastor may, when requested by a member, grant a transfer of church membership [590 § 4], a certificate of commendation [590 § 2], or a letter of dismissal [50 §§ 1-3, 590 § 3].

72. The pastor, together with the church board, according to plans adopted by the General Assembly and agreed to by the District Assembly, shall arrange for the raising of the apportionment of the general budget funds and the apportionment of the district budget funds made to the local church of which he is pastor, and shall raise these apportionments. [34, 124, 161]

73. The pastor shall be, ex officio, president of the local church, chairman of the church board, and head of the church schools, the Nazarene Young People's Society, the Nazarene World Missionary Society, and all other subsidiary organizations in connection with the local church. [121, 137, 154, 159]

74. The pastor shall have the right to a voice in the nomination of all heads of all departments of the local church. [123 § 14, 142, 149, 155, 160]

75. The pastor shall not contract bills nor create financial obligations for the local church of which he is pastor, unless he be authorized and directed by vote of the church board or by vote of a church meeting; and such action shall be duly recorded in the minutes of the church board or of the church meeting respectively. [123 § 1]

76. The pastor shall always show due regard for the united advice of the district superintendent and the District Advisory Board. [192, 215 § 2, 264, 274]

77. In case a licensed or ordained minister presenting credentials from another denomination shall, during the interim of sessions of the District Assembly, make application for membership in a local church, the pastor may not receive such applicant without first having obtained the favorable recommendation of the District Advisory Board. [43, 76, 218]

78. For the exercise of his office the pastor shall be amenable to the District Assembly, to which he shall report annually and give brief testimony to his personal Christian experience. [180 § 1, 261]

79. The pastor shall automatically become a member of the local church of which he is pastor; or, in case of more than one local church on his charge, of the church of his choice. [270]

IX. Calling of a Pastor

80. An elder or a licensed minister [68] may be called to the pastorate of a local church by two-thirds favorable vote by ballot of the church members of voting age present and voting at a duly called annual or special meeting of the local church, provided that such elder or licensed minister shall have been nominated to the local church by the church board, which, after having advised with the district superintendent, made such nomination by a majority vote by ballot of all its members; and provided the nomination shall have been approved by the district superintendent. [30 § 9 (2), 82, 87, 123 § 2, 189, 192 § 6]

§ 1. The pastor for a church that has been organized for less than two years, or has fewer than twenty-five voting members, or pays less than twenty-five dollars per week pastoral salary, or is receiving regular assistance from the district, shall be appointed by the general superintendent having jurisdiction, the district superintendent, and the District Advisory Board, with the consent of the delegates at the District Assembly.

§ 2. In case of a vacancy in the pastorate in such churches in the interim between District Assemblies, such should be filled by the appointment of the district superintendent.

81. In case of disagreement between the church board and the district superintendent, the church board or the district superintendent may submit the matter to the general superintendent having jurisdiction for his decision. From such decision either the church board or the district superintendent may appeal to the Board of General Superintendents for a final decision.

82. When a pastor is called to a church during a church year he shall not be subject to a renewal of call until he has served the local church at least six months; and the call of a pastor, if given in the last six months of a church year, may be only for a term ending with the next church year, provided, however, that the call in either case may be extended as hereinafter provided.

83. In case any local church has not called a pastor prior to the convening of the District Assembly, the general superintendent presiding at the District Assembly, the district superintendent, and the District Advisory Board, in concurrence with the delegates from such local church, shall make pastoral arrangements for that local church. [215 § 3, 344]

84. When a pastor is called, the local church should specify the remuneration he may expect. The amount of this remuneration may be determined by the church board, or by vote of the local church membership on such amount as has been recommended by the church board. When agreement has been entered into between the local church or the church board and the pastor in regard to his remuneration, the payment of the pastor's salary in full shall be considered a moral obligation by the church. If, however, the church becomes unable to continue the payment of the salary agreed upon, such inability and failure shall not be considered a sufficient cause for civil action against the church by the pastor; and in no case shall the church be legally responsible in excess of funds raised during the term of the pastor's actual service, and not otherwise designated.

The local church should also make provision for his traveling and moving expenses. [32, 123 §§ 5-6]

85. No pastor shall resign the pastorate of a local church without giving the local church board and the district superintendent written notice at least thirty days before the termination of his pastorate; and without having his resignation accepted by the local church board and approved in writing by the district superintendent.

X. Renewing the Call of the Pastor

86. The call of a pastor may be renewed for the second year and each succeeding year of his pastorate without nomination by the church board, by two-thirds vote by ballot of all church members of voting age present and voting at a church meeting duly called for this purpose and held at least ninety days prior to the date of convening the next District Assembly, provided such renewal call shall be approved by the district superintendent within thirty days after such call. His failure to disapprove shall be considered and treated as approval. [66, 192 § 7]

In case of the disapproval of the renewal call by the district superintendent within that time, either the local church or the district superintendent may submit the matter to the general superintendent having jurisdiction for his decision. From such decision either the local church or the district superintendent may appeal to the Board of General Superintendents for a final decision.

87. A pastor receiving less than two-thirds but a majority vote on a renewal call shall be considered reelected for a period of one year; but cannot be voted on again unless nominated by the church board as in regular procedure of calling a pastor. A vote for an extended call may not be taken unless there is a favorable two-thirds vote of the church. [80]

88. However, it is hereby provided that the local church may, when voting to renew pastoral relations after the pastor has served the church for at least six months, extend the call for a period of two, three, or four years on condition that the pastoral vote for one year has been presented and a favorable vote received, and that such extended call shall have been recommended by majority vote of all members of the church board and approved in writing by the district superintendent. Such a vote must be by two-thirds vote by ballot of church members of voting age present and voting, and must be taken at a church meeting duly called for that purpose at least 90 days but not more than 180 days prior to the date of convening the next District Assembly. [66]

In case of additional renewals of such pastorate, the procedure shall be the same as that stated herein; but each successive renewal shall not be for longer than four years.

89. In case the church meeting for the renewal call is held at a date later than ninety days prior to the convening of the next District Assembly, the procedure shall be that of calling a pastor according to 80.

90. Acceptance of a call to pastoral relations shall be given by the minister not later than thirty days from the date of the church meeting voting the call.

91. After a minister has accepted a call for a period longer than one year, he shall not resign the pastorate of the local church without giving the local church board and the district superintendent written notice, at least thirty days before the termination of his pastorate, and without having his resignation accepted by the local church board and approved in writing by the district superintendent.

92. In case the district superintendent and the church board shall be of the opinion that the question of the continuance of pastoral relations beyond the close of any year of an extended pastoral term should be submitted to the local church, the district superintendent and the church board together may order the question submitted for vote at a special church meeting held at least 90 days, but not more than 180 days, prior to the date of convening the next District Assembly. The question shall be submitted in the following form: "Shall the present pastoral relations be continued beyond the end of the present church year?" [66]

If, by a two-thirds vote by ballot of the church members of voting age present and voting, the church decides to continue its present pastoral relations, the office of the pastor shall continue as though such vote had not been taken.

If, however, the church fails to decide by such vote to continue the present pastoral relations, the term of office of the pastor shall terminate with the close of the next District Assembly.

XI. The Local Deaconess

93. A woman who is a member of the Church of the Nazarene and believes that she is divinely led to engage in ministering to the sick and the needy, comforting the sorrowing, and doing other works of Christian benevolence, and who gives evidence in her life of ability, grace, and usefulness, may be licensed as a local deaconess for one year by the church board of the local church upon recommendation of the pastor after proper examination by the church board as to her qualifications for that work. She shall be a member of the local church where she is engaged. She shall make a report to the local church at the annual church meeting. [63, 105 § 3, 123 § 9]

94. The church board shall issue to each local deaconess a license signed by the pastor and the secretary of the church board.

95. The local deaconess shall work under the direction of the pastor at all times, and should be accorded respect and careful pastoral guidance in this holy calling for her very work's sake.

96. The license of the local deaconess may be renewed annually by the church board upon the recommendation of the pastor. The license may be suspended or revoked by the church board, upon recommendation of the pastor, after giving her a fair hearing. [123 § 9, 128]

97. After serving for one year, the local deaconess may be recommended by her own local church board to the District Assembly for district deaconess' license upon recommendation of the pastor. [123 § 13, 180 § 3, 299]

XII. The Local Preacher

98. Any member of the Church of the Nazarene who feels called of God to preach and to conduct special meetings in the interest of salvation may be licensed as a local preacher for one year by the church board of a local church having an elder as pastor, upon the pastor's recommendation; or by the church board of a local church not having an elder as pastor, if the granting of license is recommended by the pastor and approved by the district superintendent. The candidate must first be examined as to his personal experience of salvation, his knowledge of the doctrines of the Bible, and the order of the church; he must also demonstrate that his call is evidenced by grace, gifts, and usefulness. A local preacher shall make a report to the local church at its annual church meeting. [63, 123 § 8, 192 § 8]

99. The church board shall issue to each local preacher a license signed by the pastor and the secretary of the church board.

100. The license of a local preacher may be renewed by the church board of a local church having an elder as pastor, upon the recommendation of the pastor, or by the church board of a local church not having an elder as pastor, provided that this renewal of license is recommended by the pastor and approved by the district superintendent. [123 § 8, 192 § 8]

102. Local preachers shall pursue the course of study for local preachers and take examinations therein under the direction of the District Board of Ministerial Studies. [223, 227, 593]

103. A local preacher, having served in that relation for at least one full year, and having passed the complete course of study for local preachers, may be recommended by the church board to the District Assembly for minister's license; but, if not received, he shall sustain his former relation. [123 § 10, 180 § 2, 256, 593]

XIII. The Stewards

104. The stewards of the local church shall be no fewer than three nor more than thirteen in number. They shall be elected by ballot, at the annual or a special church meeting, from among the members of the local church, to serve for the next church year and until their successors have been elected and qualified. [39, 61, 64, 66, 121]

105. The duties of the stewards are:

§ 1. To give special attention, under the direction of the church board, to raising money for the support of the church, and of the pastor, that he may be free from secular care and anxiety, and may give himself wholly to the work of the ministry. [123 § 6] in the local church in cooperation with the pastor and the General Stewardship Committee. [41, 461-62]

XV. The Trustees

109. The trustees of the local church shall be no fewer than three nor more than nine in number. They shall be elected from among the members of the local church to serve for the next church year and until their successors have been elected and qualified. [39, 64, 121]

110. Where the local church is not incorporated, or where the civil law requires it, or where for other reasons it is deemed best by the district superintendent or the District Advisory Board, the trustees shall hold the title to church property and manage it as trustees of the local church subject to the guidance and the restrictions as set forth in paragraph 118 governing the handling of church property.

111. In all cases where the civil law requires a specific mode of election of church trustees, that mode shall be strictly followed. [59]

112. Where no particular mode of election is required by civil law, the trustees shall be elected by ballot, at the annual meeting of the local church, or at a special meeting duly called for that purpose. [61, 64, 66]

113. A vacancy in the office of trustee may be filled by the local church at a duly called church meeting. [66]

114. For faithfulness to their trust, the trustees shall be amenable to the local church. They shall report to the annual church meeting. In the interim of annual church meetings, they shall make reports to the church board of which they are a part. [63, 115, 120, 168-69]

Where not inconsistent with civil law, the articles of incorporation shall set forth the powers of the corporation and provide that the corporation shall be subject to the government of the Church of the Nazarene, as from time to time authorized and declared in its Manual by the General Assembly of said church. All the property of this corporation shall be managed and controlled by the trustees subject to the approval of the local church.

Where property is purchased and developed by the District Advisory Board for a local church or where a new church is formed, upon the repayment of the money invested by the District Advisory Board by the local church, it is deemed advisable that the District Advisory Board transfer the title to the local church. [232 § 3, 424 § 2]

116. When a local church is incorporated, all property acquired shall be deeded directly to the church in its corporate name when it is possible to do so.

119. A local church contemplating the purchase of real estate, or the erection of a church building or parsonage, shall submit the proposition to the district superintendent and the District Board of Church Extension for their consideration and advice. The church school board shall have general supervision of the church school.

If desired the church school board may be elected by the annual church meeting as an integral part of the church board, thus functioning as the educational committee of the board.

In this case the church may elect fewer stewards and trustees (though never less than the minimum established by the Manual, paragraphs 104 and 109) or elect a larger church board than otherwise. [64, 123 § 23, 125]

134. The church school board shall elect a chairman, a secretary, and such other officers as may be necessary. It shall hold regular monthly or quarterly meetings for the transaction of any business pertaining to church school work. Special meetings may be called by the pastor. The church school board shall give an annual report to the annual church meeting. [63]

135. The duties of the church school board shall be:

§ 12. To make surveys and studies of Christian educational needs of the local church and community, and lay plans to meet those needs as fully as possible.

139. Each Sunday school shall have a cabinet in which the administrative work of the school is vested. This cabinet shall be composed of the general officers and the department supervisors, if any, of the Sunday school. In case it shall be deemed preferable by the local church, the members of the church school board and/or the Sunday school teachers may be included in the membership of the Sunday school cabinet.

In such situations the Sunday school cabinet becomes both the administrative organization and a group for inspiration, study, and discussion of Sunday school problems. [589, Art. IV § 2]

140. There shall be three classes of members in the Sunday school, namely, active, Cradle Roll, and Home Department.

§ 1. Active members shall be persons enrolled in the regular school whose attendance at the Sunday sessions is expected.

After incorporation, as above provided, the District Advisory Board shall have power, on its own resolution, to purchase, own, sell, exchange, mortgage, deed in trust, hypothecate, lease, and convey any property, real and personal, as may be necessary or convenient for the purpose of the corporation. [181]

§ 8. In states where the civil law does not permit such incorporation, then the District Assembly may elect the District Advisory Board as district trustee with power, on its own resolution, to purchase, own, sell, exchange, mortgage, deed in trust, hypothecate, lease, and convey any property, real and personal, as may be necessary or convenient for the purpose of carrying on its work in the district. [168, 215 § 7]

The District Advisory Board, in states where it is possible for local churches to incorporate, shall, with the advice of competent legal counsel, provide pattern incorporation forms adequate for the state or states of its district. This pattern incorporation form shall always include the provision set forth in paragraph 115 of the Manual.

Such transfer may be accepted by the District Assembly to which presented. [180 § 6, 282, 310]

217. The District Advisory Board may suspend the license of a licensed deaconess when it is required for the good of the church, after a conference with the church board of the local church of which the licensed deaconess is a member, and after giving her a fair hearing, and with the approval of the district superintendent. [302]

218. In case a licensed or ordained minister presenting credentials from another evangelical denomination shall, during the interim of sessions of the District Assembly, make application to unite with the Church of the Nazarene, his credentials shall be examined by the District Advisory Board. Only with the favorable recommendation of the District Advisory Board shall such applicant be received into membership in the local church. [257, 277]

IX. The District Board of Orders and Relations

219. The Board of Orders and Relations will report favorably to the District Assembly those candidates who, in their judgment, qualify for election. They shall also carefully consider all transfers to and from the district, except interim transfers issued by the Advisory Board; all orders presented for recognition from other denominations; all candidates for restoration of orders; and report to the assembly their recommendation for those who, in their judgment, qualify.

§ 2. Any member of any class who fails to appear for examination as directed shall not be advanced in his studies by the District Assembly, unless his absence is satisfactorily explained in writing to the chairman, and he shall have arranged with his examiner for his examination in the studies of his year, and shall pledge to complete his entire work before the final examinations.

§ 7. When a candidate has completed the examinations, the board shall report to the District Assembly the record of examinations, and make recommendations for advancement or for graduation from the course of study.

§ 8. Candidates pursuing the course of study, who may be attending any of the recognized schools of the Church of the Nazarene, and pursuing the same or similar studies as those which are in the course of study, may present a school record in lieu of examination, and, if satisfactory to the board, may be recommended for advancement in those studies without further examination.

When the district has reached the total of 100 churches, or a total membership of 9,000, 3 members may be elected to serve for a term of three years, 3 for a term of two years, and 3 for a term of one year. At this convention the superintendents of all the local schools are expected to be present and take part as opportunity affords. The convention program shall provide for special addresses, papers, discussions, and periods for general consultation relative to the district church school interests. [141]

240. The assembly district may be divided into zones with zone leaders appointed by the District Church School Board, who shall work under the supervision of that board. Zone conventions should be held.

241. The duties of the District Church School Board, in harmony with the program of the Department of Church Schools of the General Board [449 §§ 1-2], shall be:

244. The president of the district Nazarene Young People's Society shall be elected by its annual convention and shall serve without salary. When so elected and approved, he shall be a member, ex officio, of the District Assembly. [176]

245. The district convention of the Nazarene Young People's Society, which shall meet annually, shall be composed of the district superintendent, the members of the District Council, district zone presidents, the pastors of local churches, presidents of local societies, local directors of the Nazarene Junior Fellowship, elders of the district within the Nazarene Young People's Society age limits, and two delegates from each local society of thirty or fewer members, including the total membership of the society (ages four through forty), and one additional delegate for each successive thirty members and the final major part of thirty members. One delegate may be appointed by the pastor of each local church not having a fully organized Nazarene Young People's Society. [587 § 2]

246. The District Council shall be composed of the officers of the district Nazarene Young People's Society, the district superintendent, the chairmen of standing committees, and the district zone presidents. XIX. Disorganization of a District

253. When it seems clear to the Board of General Superintendents that a district no longer should continue as such, it may, upon their recommendation, be disorganized by a two-thirds favorable vote of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene and a formal pronouncement thereof. [174]

In case a district becomes officially disorganized, any church property which shall exist may in no way be diverted to other purposes, but shall pass to the control of the General Board, for the use of the Church of the Nazarene at large, as the General Assembly shall direct; and trustees holding property, or corporations created to hold property, for the disorganized district shall sell or dispose of the same only on the order and under the direction of the appointed agent of the General Board, and turn the funds over to such agent. [168, 215 § 7]

CHAPTER III

THE MINISTER AND THE MINISTRY

I. Qualifications and Call of the Minister

254. While we recognize and insist that all believers have committed unto them a dispensation of the gospel which they are to minister unto all men, we also recognize and hold that the Head of the Church calls some to the more official and public work of the ministry.

As our Lord called unto Him whom He would, and chose and ordained His twelve apostles "that they should be with him, and that he might send them forth to preach," so He still calls and sends forth messengers of the gospel. The church, illuminated by the Holy Spirit, will recognize the Lord's call.

When the church discovers this divine call, the proper steps should be taken for its recognition and endorsement, and all suitable help should be given to open the way for the candidate to enter the ministry.

255. The perpetuity and the efficiency of the Church of the Nazarene depend largely upon the spiritual qualifications, the character, and the manner of life of its ministers.

§ 1. The minister of Christ is to be in all things a pattern to the flock—in punctuality, discretion, diligence, earnestness. “By pureness, by knowledge, by longsuffering, by kindness, by the Holy Ghost, by love unfeigned, by the word of truth, by the power of God, by the armour of righteousness on the right hand and on the left” (II Corinthians 6:6-7).

§ 2. The minister of the gospel in the Church of the Nazarene must know that he has peace with God, through our Lord Jesus Christ, and that he is sanctified wholly by the baptism with the Holy Spirit. He must have a deep sense of the fact that souls for whom Christ died are perishing, and that he is called of God to proclaim to them the glad tidings of salvation.

§ 3. The minister must likewise have a deep sense of the necessity of believers going on unto perfection and developing the Christian graces in practical living, that their “love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and in all judgment.” He must have a strong appreciation of both salvation and Christian ethics.

§ 4. The minister must have gifts, as well as grace, for the work. He will have a thirst for knowledge, especially of the Word of God; sound judgment and good understanding; clear views concerning the plan of redemption and salvation as revealed in the Scriptures. Saints will be edified and sinners converted through his ministry. He must be an example in prayer.

§ 5. Any person sustaining a marriage relation contrary to that allowed as justifiable in the Special Rules (37 and 38) shall be ineligible for the office of the ministry in the Church of the Nazarene. [267, 277, 361]

II. The Licensed Minister

256. When there are members of the Church of the Nazarene who feel called to the ministry, they may be licensed as ministers by the District Assembly and enrolled as members of the District Assembly, provided they (1) have held local preacher's license for one full year; (2) have passed the complete course of study for local preachers; (3) have been recommended for such work by the church board of the local church of which they are members, to which recommendation shall be attached the Questionnaire for Prospective Licensed Ministers carefully filled out; (4) have given evidence of grace, gifts, and usefulness; (5) have been carefully examined, under the direction of the District Assembly of the district within the bounds of which they hold their church membership, regarding their spiritual, intellectual, and other fitness for such work; (6) have promised to pursue immediately the course of study prescribed for licensed ministers and candidates for ordination; and (7) have had any disqualification, which may have been imposed by a District Assembly, removed by an explanation in writing by the district superintendent and the District Advisory Board of the district where the disqualification was imposed. [103, 123 § 10, 180 § 2]

257. Licensed ministers from other evangelical denominations, desiring to unite with the Church of the Nazarene, may be licensed as ministers by the District Assembly, provided they present the credentials issued to them by the denomination in which they formerly held their membership; and further provided that they (1) have passed a course of study equivalent at least to the course of study prescribed by the Church of the Nazarene for local preachers; (2) have been recommended by the church board of the local Church of the Nazarene of which they are members; (3) have given evidence of grace, gifts, and usefulness; (4) have been carefully examined under the direction of the District Assembly regarding their spiritual, intellectual, and other fitness for such work; and (5) have promised to pursue immediately the course of study prescribed for licensed ministers and candidates for ordination. [180 § 5]

258. A minister's license shall terminate with the close of the next District Assembly. It may be renewed by vote of the District Assembly, provided (1) that the candidate for renewal shall file with the District Assembly the Questionnaire for Prospective Ministers carefully filled out; and provided (2) that the candidate shall have completed at least two subjects in the year's course of study required, not including subjects in the reading course; and provided (3) that he has been recommended for the renewal of license by the church board of the local church of which he is a member. In case, however, he shall not have passed the course of study required, his license may be renewed by the District Assembly only upon his submitting a written explanation for this failure. Such explanation shall be satisfactory to the Committee on Orders and Relations and approved by the general superintendent presiding. [123 § 11, 180 § 2, 227 §§ 1-8]

In the case of licensed ministers who are serving as pastors, the recommendation for the renewal of minister's license shall be made by the District Advisory Board rather than by the local church board. [79]

259. The general superintendent having jurisdiction shall issue to each licensed minister a minister's license signed by himself and the district secretary. [591 § 4]

260. Such licensed ministers shall be vested with authority to preach the Word; and, provided they pass annually the required studies of the course of study and are acting as pastors, they shall also be vested with authority to administer the sacraments of baptism and the Lord's Supper in their own congregations, and to officiate at marriages where the laws of the state do not prohibit. [36, 69 §§ 1, 3, 584-85]

261. All licensed ministers shall hold their ministerial membership in the District Assembly of the district wherein their church membership is held, and shall report to this body annually. [78, 176, 180 § 1]

262. In case a licensed minister has united with the church membership or ministry of another denomination, his church membership and ministerial membership in the Church of the Nazarene shall, because of that fact, immediately cease, and the District Assembly shall cause to be entered into its minute record the following statement: "Removed from the membership and ministry of the Church of the Nazarene by uniting with another denomination." [43, 53]

263. In case a licensed minister shall, without the written approval of the District Advisory Board of the assembly district in which he holds his ministerial membership or the written approval of the Board of General Superintendents, regularly conduct independent church activities which are not under the direction of the Church of the Nazarene, or be connected with the operating staff of an independent church or other religious group, he shall be subject to trial under the law dealing with the discipline of a minister. [273, 471]

264. The licensed minister shall always show due regard for the united advice of the district superintendent and the District Advisory Board. [76]

265. Any claim to participation by a licensed minister and/or his dependents, in any plan or fund that the church may have now or hereafter for the assistance or support of its disabled or aged ministers, shall be based only upon regular, full-time, active service rendered by the minister in the pastoral or evangelistic office or other recognized relation, under the sanction of the District Assembly. This rule shall exclude from such participation all those in part-time and occasional service. [276]

III. The Ordained Minister

266. We recognize but one order of the official ministry—that of the eldership. This is a permanent order in the Church. The elder is to rule well in the Church, to preach the Word, to administer the sacraments of baptism and the Lord's Supper, and to solemnize matrimony, all in the name of and in subjection to Jesus Christ, the great Head of the Church. [36, 68, 69 §§ 1, 3, 275]

267. One who is called of God to this ministry, and who has fulfilled all the requirements of the church for the same, who has successfully completed the full course of study prescribed for licensed ministers and candidates for ordination, who has been recommended for renewal of district license by the church board of the local church in which he holds his membership or by the District Advisory Board [258], and has been carefully considered and favorably reported by the Board of Orders and Relations of the District Assembly, may be elected to elder's orders by two-thirds vote of the District Assembly, provided he has been in the active ministry not less than two consecutive years either as regularly established pastor or as commissioned evangelist, and has spent the major portion of that time actively in the field; provided further that any disqualification which may have been imposed by a District Assembly has been removed in writing by the district superintendent and the District Advisory Board of the district where the disqualification was imposed; and provided further that his marriage relationship does not render him ineligible for ordination. No person shall be ordained after passing the fiftieth birthday. [123 § 11, 180 § 4, 255 § 5, 361, 594]

268. The candidate thus elected shall be ordained by the laying on of the hands of the elders, and other religious exercises, under the direction of the presiding general superintendent. [341 § 3]

269. The general superintendent having jurisdiction shall issue to the person so ordained a certificate of ordination signed by himself and the district secretary. [278, 591 § 1]

270. All elders shall hold church membership in some local church. [79]

271. All elders shall hold their ministerial membership in the District Assembly of the district wherein their church membership is held, to which body they shall report annually. Any elder, who for two consecutive years does not report to his District Assembly, either in person or by letter, shall, if the District Assembly so elect, cease to be a member thereof. [29, 78, 176, 180 § 1, 291]

272. In case an ordained minister has united with the church membership or ministry of another denomination, his church membership and ministerial membership in the Church of the Nazarene shall, because of that fact, immediately cease, and the District Assembly shall cause to be entered into its minute record the following statement: "Removed from the membership and ministry of the Church of the Nazarene by uniting with another denomination." [43, 53]

273. In case an ordained minister shall, without the annual written approval of the District Advisory Board of the assembly district in which he holds his ministerial membership or the annual written approval of the Board of General Superintendents, regularly conduct independent church activities which are not under the direction of the Church of the Nazarene, or be connected with the operating staff of an independent church or other religious group, or be carrying on independent missions or church activities, he may, on recommendation by a two-thirds vote of the entire membership of the Board of Orders and Relations and by action of the District Assembly, be dropped from the roll of the District Assembly and from the membership of the Church of the Nazarene. Because of this fact the District Assembly shall enter into its minute record the following statement: "Removed from the roll of elders of the District Assembly and from the membership of the Church of the Nazarene because of unauthorized independent activities."

The final determination as to whether any specific activity constitutes "an independent mission" or "unauthorized church activity" shall rest with the Board of General Superintendents. [54, 222 § 5]

274. The elder shall always show due regard for the united advice of the district superintendent and the District Advisory Board. [76]

275. An elder may organize a local church when authorized to do so by the district superintendent or the general superintendent having jurisdiction. [42, 192 § 1, 266, 343]

276. Any claim to participation by an elder and/or his dependents, in any plan or fund that the church may have now or hereafter for the assistance or support of its disabled or aged ministers, shall be based only upon regular, full-time, active service rendered by the elder in the pastoral or evangelistic office or other recognized relation, under the sanction of the District Assembly. This rule shall exclude from such participation all those in part-time and occasional service. [265, 429 § 2]

IV. The Recognition of Elder's Orders

277. Elders from other evangelical denominations, desiring to unite with the Church of the Nazarene and presenting their ordination papers, may have their orders recognized by the District Assembly, after satisfactory examination as to personal experience and doctrine, provided: (1) that they be required to take an examination on the Manual and on the history of the Church of the Nazarene, (2) they shall file with the District Assembly the Questionnaire for Ordained Ministers Desiring to Join the Church of the Nazarene, carefully filled out; and provided, (3) their marriage relationship shall be in accordance with that required for ordination in the Church of the Nazarene. [37-38, 180 § 5, 218, 255 § 5, 594]

278. The general superintendent having jurisdiction shall issue to the elder so recognized a certificate of recognition signed by himself and the district secretary. [269, 591 § 2]

279. When the orders of an elder from another church shall have been duly recognized, his credentials issued by said church shall be returned to him inscribed in writing or stamped across the face as follows:

Accredited by the.....District
 Assembly of the Church of the Nazarene
 this day of, 19.....,
 as the basis of new credentials.
 General Superintendent
 District Secretary

280. The elder so recognized shall have his name enrolled as a ministerial member of the District Assembly. [176, 180 § 1]

V. The Transfers of Ministers

281. Such transfer may be received by the District Assembly to which it is addressed. [180 § 7]

282. When an elder or a licensed minister desires to transfer to another District Assembly before the meeting of the District Assembly in which his ministerial membership is held, a transfer of ministerial membership may be issued by the district superintendent and the District Advisory Board. Such transfer may be received by the District Assembly to which it is addressed. [180 § 6, 216, 591 §§ 12-13]

283. The transfer of a licensed minister shall be valid only when accompanied by a detailed record of his grades in the course of study for licensed ministers, properly certified by the secretary of the District Board of Ministerial Studies of the issuing District Assembly. The minister being transferred shall actively pursue the matter of the reporting of his grades in the course of study to the receiving district. [591 § 12]

284. All transfers shall be sent direct to the District Assembly to which addressed. The receiving District Assembly shall notify the issuing District Assembly of the reception of the transferred person's membership. Until the transfer is received by vote of the District Assembly to which addressed, the person thus transferred shall be a member of the issuing District Assembly. Such transfer is valid only until the close of the next session following date of issue of the District Assembly to which addressed. [180 § 6, 591 §§ 12-14]

VI. The Evangelist

285. While we recognize but one order of the official ministry—that of the eldership, we also recognize and hold that God calls some to be evangelists in the specialized work of holiness evangelism. "And he gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers" (Ephesians 4:11).

§ 1. An elder who is called of God to the specialized ministry of an evangelist, who writes his district superintendent requesting an evangelist's commission, and who has been recommended by the District Advisory Board and has been carefully considered and favorably reported upon by the Board of Orders and Relations of the District Assembly, may be granted an evangelist's commission by two-thirds vote of the District Assembly, provided that it is his intention to devote the major portion of his time to the field of evangelism in the Church of the Nazarene. Such commission shall continue only until the close of the next District Assembly.

§ 2. A licensed minister who has completed at least one year of the course of study for licensed ministers may, upon written request to his district superintendent, be registered to do the work of an evangelist by a two-thirds vote of the District Assembly, provided that it is his intention to devote the major portion of his time to the field of evangelism in the Church of the Nazarene. Such registration shall continue only until the close of the next District Assembly.

§ 3. An elder or a licensed minister who devotes a portion of his time to evangelism may, upon written request, be registered to do the work of an evangelist by two-thirds vote of the District Assembly. Such registration shall expire at the close of the next District Assembly.

§ 4. An elder or a licensed minister who desires to enter the field of evangelism prior to or following his District Assembly may secure proper recognition by being registered with the Department of Evangelism upon the recommendation of his district superintendent pending action of the next District Assembly.

286. The general superintendent having jurisdiction shall issue to each commissioned evangelist an evangelist's commission and each registered evangelist an appropriate certificate signed by himself and the district secretary. [591 § 6]

287. The commissioned and/or registered evangelist shall report annually to the District Assembly of which he is a member, and shall attend the District Assembly in person, unless he can give a satisfactory reason for his absence. Should he fail to report, his commission or registration to evangelize shall not be renewed. [180 § 1]

290. Any minister who is in good standing, but who is disqualified by physical disability or old age from engaging in such active ministerial labors as will afford him sufficient income for support, may, upon recommendation of the Committee on Orders and Relations, be placed in the retired relation by his District Assembly. [180 § 31]

291. Retirement shall not compel cessation from ministerial labors nor deprive of membership in the District Assembly. [176, 271]

292. As a condition to receiving, or continuing to receive, financial assistance from the Department of Ministerial Benevolence, it shall be required that the minister applying for such assistance be placed in the retired relation by his District Assembly, after having passed his sixty-fifth birthday. [429 §§ 1-2]

VIII. The Restoration of Church Membership of Ministers

293. Any minister who is expelled or withdraws under charges may reunite with the Church of the Nazarene only with the consent of the District Assembly of the assembly district from which he withdrew or was expelled.

IX. The Restoration of District Assembly Membership of Elders

294. If for any reason the name of an elder shall be removed from a District Assembly roll such elder shall not be recognized in any other District Assembly without having secured the written consent of the District Assembly from whose roll his name was removed.

295. When an elder has been deprived of his credentials by expulsion or other disciplinary action, or has surrendered his credentials for any reason, such credentials shall be sent to the General Secretary to be filed and preserved, subject to the order of his District Assembly. [367 § 5]

296. When an elder in good standing surrenders his credentials for any reason, such surrendered credentials may, at any subsequent time, be restored to the elder upon order of the District Assembly to which they were surrendered, provided that the restoration of his credentials shall have been recommended by the local church of which he is a member and by the district superintendent and the District Advisory Board.

297. When an elder has been deprived of his credentials by expulsion or other disciplinary action, or has surrendered his credentials, except as provided in 296, his District Assembly may restore such credentials at any future time, provided that (1) the elder shall have given satisfactory evidence of amendment of life and conduct; and that (2) the church board of the local church of which he is a member shall recommend the restoration of his credentials and the district superintendent and the District Advisory Board shall endorse that recommendation. In case of a question of adultery or other sex immorality, however, his credentials shall not be restored in less than two years from the date of their surrender, and then only with the additional written approval of the Board of General Superintendents.

298. In case the credentials of an elder have been misplaced, mutilated, or destroyed, a duplicate certificate may be issued upon the recommendation of the District Advisory Board. Such recommendation shall be made directly to the general superintendent in jurisdiction, and, upon his approval, shall be issued by the office of the General Secretary. If the general superintendent signing the original certificate is not available, the general superintendent having jurisdiction shall sign the certificate, with notation on the back for the reason for issuing the new certificate. On the reverse side thereof shall be the following statement inscribed in writing or printing or both writing and printing, and signed by the general superintendent having jurisdiction and the district secretary:

GUARANTY OF RIGHTS

I. CHURCH DISCIPLINE

469. The object of church discipline is not the punishment of offenders, but vindication of the truth, purification of the church, warning of the careless, and reformation and salvation of the guilty. Members of the church who do violence to the General or Special Rules, or who willfully and continuously violate their membership vows, should be dealt with kindly yet faithfully, according to the grievousness of their offenses.

Holiness of heart and life being the New Testament standard, the Church of the Nazarene insists upon a clean ministry, and requires that those who bear its credentials as ministers be orthodox in doctrine and holy in life. Thus the purpose of the discipline of a minister is not punitive or retributive, but is to determine the ministerial standing and church relations of a minister accused of misconduct.

II. DISCIPLINE OF A LAYMAN

470. If a request is made for investigation of a lay member accused of unchristian conduct, the pastor shall appoint an investigating committee of three members of the local church, who shall make a written report concerning the result of their investigation. [69 § 15] This report must be signed by a majority and filed with the church board. The accusation upon which an investigation is made must be signed by at least two reputable members of the local church.

After the investigation and pursuant thereto, any two members in good standing in the local church may sign charges against the accused and file same with the church board. Thereupon the church board shall appoint a local board of discipline of five members who are unprejudiced and able to hear and dispose of the case in a fair and impartial manner, and these shall conduct a hearing as soon as practicable and determine the issues involved. [123 § 24] After hearing the testimony of witnesses and considering the evidence, they shall either absolve the accused or administer discipline as the facts shall establish to be proper. Such decision must be unanimous. Discipline may take the form of reprimand, suspension, or expulsion from membership in the local church. Repentance, apology, or restitution may be required.

An appeal from the decision of a local board of discipline may be taken to the District Court of Appeals within thirty days by either the accused or the church board.

III. DISCIPLINE OF A MINISTER

471. If an elder or licensed minister be accused of conduct unbecoming to a minister, or of teaching doctrines out of harmony with the doctrinal statement of the Church of the Nazarene, or of serious laxity in the enforcement of the General or Special Rules of the church, such accusation shall be placed in writing and shall be signed by at least two members of the Church of the Nazarene who are at the time in good standing; this written accusation must be filed with the District Advisory Board of the district where the accused has ministerial membership. This accusation shall become a part of the record in the case, and the accused or his counsel shall have a right to examine same.

When a written accusation is filed, the District Advisory Board shall appoint a committee of two or more elders to investigate the facts and circumstances involved and report their finding in writing and signed by a majority of the committee. If, after considering the committee's report, it shall appear that there are probable grounds for charges, such charges shall be drawn up and signed by any two elders. [215 § 4]

In case charges are filed, the District Advisory Board shall appoint five elders of the district to hear the case and determine the issues; these five elders so named shall constitute a district board of discipline to conduct the hearing and dispose of the case according to the laws of the church. This board of discipline shall have power to vindicate and absolve the accused in connection with said charges, or to administer discipline commensurate with the offense. Such discipline may provide for repentance, confession, restitution, suspension, cancellation of credentials, expulsion from the ministry or membership of the church, or both, public or private reprimand, or such other discipline as may be appropriate. [215 § 5]

When a minister is accused of immorality, or of action involving moral turpitude, disciplinary action may be taken and discipline administered by any district where such immoral acts occurred. But when disciplinary proceedings are taken on a district other than the one where the accused holds ministerial membership, only such immoral acts as may have occurred within the bounds of that district may be proved in evidence and form the basis for discipline in that proceeding.

It is provided that in no case shall disciplinary action be taken against a missionary by a national mission district as such.

The decision of a board of discipline shall be unanimous and shall be written and signed by all members. Failure of any member to sign shall make void the entire proceeding. If such unanimous decision cannot be reached, this fact shall be certified to the District Advisory Board by the chairman of the board of discipline, whereupon the District Advisory Board shall determine whether to drop the charges and end the proceedings or to order another hearing. If the proceedings are ended, such action shall not preclude a reconsideration of the case. If another hearing is determined upon, another board of discipline shall be appointed to conduct the same.

Any hearing by a board of discipline herein provided for shall always be conducted within the bounds of the district where the charges were filed, at a place designated by the board which is to hear the charges.

The procedure at any hearing shall be according to Rules of Procedure hereinafter provided for. [215 §§ 4-5, 263, 273, 474]

472. Following a decision by a board of discipline the accused, the District Advisory Board, or those who signed the charges shall be entitled to appeal the decision to the General Court of Appeals. The appeal shall be begun within thirty days after such decision, and the court shall review the entire record of the case and all steps which have been taken therein. If the court discovers any substantial error prejudicial to the right of any person, it shall correct such error by ordering a new hearing to be conducted in a manner capable of giving relief to that person affected adversely by previous proceedings or decision.

473. When the decision of a board of discipline is adverse to the accused minister and the decision provides for suspension from the ministry or cancellation of credentials, the minister shall thereupon immediately suspend all ministerial activity; and, if he refuses to do so, his right of appeal shall be for that reason forfeited.

When the decision of a board of discipline provided for suspension or cancellation of credentials and the accused minister desires to appeal, he shall file with the secretary of the General Court of Appeals, at the time the notice of appeal is filed, his written credentials as a minister, and his right of appeal shall be conditioned upon his compliance with this provision. When such credentials are so filed, they shall be safely kept by the said secretary until the conclusion of the case, and thereupon the same shall either be canceled or returned to the minister as the court may direct.

IV. RULES OF PROCEDURE

474. The General Court of Appeals shall adopt uniform Rules of Procedure governing all proceedings before boards of discipline and courts of appeal. After such rules are adopted and published, they shall be the final authority in all judicial proceedings. Printed Rules of Procedure shall be supplied by the General Secretary. Changes or amendments to such rules may be adopted by the General Court of Appeals at any time, and when these are adopted and published they shall be effective and authoritative in all cases. Any steps which are thereafter taken in any proceeding shall be in accordance with such change or amendment. [471]

V. DISTRICT COURT OF APPEALS

475. Each regularly organized district shall have a District Court of Appeals composed of five elders elected annually by the District Assembly. This court shall hear appeals of church members concerning any action of a local church or church board when they are aggrieved or adversely affected by such action. Notice of appeal must be given in writing within thirty days after such action or after appellant has knowledge thereof. Such notice shall be delivered to the District Court of Appeals or a member thereof, and a copy of such notice shall be delivered to the pastor of the local church and to the secretary of the church board concerned. [180 § 24, 346]

476. The District Court of Appeals shall have jurisdiction to hear and decide all appeals of laymen or churches from the action of a board of discipline appointed to discipline a layman.

VI. GENERAL COURT OF APPEALS

477. The General Assembly shall elect five elders to serve as members of the General Court of Appeals during each ensuing quadrennium, or until their successors are elected and qualified. [600 § 2] This court shall have jurisdiction as follows:

§ 1. To hear and determine all appeals from the action or decision of any District Board of Discipline.

§ 2. To hear and determine appeals concerning the action of any District Assembly affecting the interests of a minister amenable to that assembly.

§ 3. To hear and determine appeals from the action of any district superintendent in matters affecting the interests of a minister. When such appeals are so determined by said court such determination shall be authoritative and final. [201, 337 § 10]

478. Vacancies which may exist in the General Court of Appeals during the interim between sessions of the General Assembly shall be filled by appointment of the Board of General Superintendents. [358 § 4]

479. Per diem and expense allowances for members of the General Court of Appeals shall be the same as that of members of the General Board of the church, when the members of the court are engaged in official business of the court, and payment therefor shall be made by the General Treasurer.

480. The General Secretary shall be custodian of all permanent records and decisions of the General Court of Appeals. [367 § 4]

VII. GUARANTY OF RIGHTS

481. The right to a fair and impartial hearing of charges pending against an accused minister or layman shall not be denied or unduly postponed. Written charges shall be given an early hearing in order that the innocent may be absolved and the guilty brought to discipline.

482. The cost of preparing the record of a case for the purpose of an appeal to the General Court of Appeals shall be borne by the district where the hearing was held and disciplinary action taken.

483. A minister or layman who is accused of misconduct or any violation of the church Manual and against whom charges are pending shall have the right to meet his or her accusers face to face and to cross-examine the witnesses for the prosecution.

484. The testimony of any witness before a board of discipline shall not be received or considered in evidence unless such testimony be given under oath or solemn affirmation.

485. A minister or layman who is brought before a board of discipline to answer charges shall always have the right to be represented by counsel of his or her own choosing, provided such counsel be a member in good standing in the Church of the Nazarene. Any full member of a regularly organized church against whom no written charges are pending will be considered in good standing.

486. A minister or layman shall not be required to answer charges for any act which occurred more than five years before the filing of such charges, and no evidence will be considered at any hearing for any matter which occurred more than five years before the charges were filed.

487. A minister or layman shall not be twice placed in jeopardy for the same offense. It shall not be considered, however, that such person was placed in jeopardy at any hearing or proceeding where the court of appeals discovers reversible error committed in the original proceeding before a board of discipline.

[The following form is provided for use in those cases where the parents or guardians do not care to have children baptized but simply dedicated or consecrated.]

[When the sponsors have presented themselves with the child (or children) before the minister at his call, the minister shall say:]

“Then were brought unto him little children, that he should put his hands on them, and pray: and the disciples rebuked them. But Jesus said, Suffer little children, and forbid them not, to come unto me: for of such is the kingdom of heaven. Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall not enter therein. And he took them up in his arms, put his hands upon them, and blessed them.”

In presenting this child for dedication (or consecration), you not only signify your faith in the Christian religion, but also your desire that he (or she) may early know and follow the will of God, may live and die a Christian, and come unto everlasting blessedness.

In order to attain this holy end it will be your duty, as parents (or guardians), to teach him (or her) early the fear of the Lord; to watch over his (or her) education, that he (or she) be not led astray; to direct his (or her) youthful mind to the Holy Scriptures, and his (or her) feet to the sanctuary; to restrain him (or her) from evil associates and habits; and, as much as in you lies, to bring him (or her) up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.

Will you endeavor to do so by the help of God? If so, answer, "I will."

[The minister shall then dedicate the child, repeating the full name of the child, and saying:]

Our loving Heavenly Father, we do here and now dedicate (or consecrate) [naming the child] unto Thee, praying that he (or she) may be endued with heavenly virtues, taught by Thy Holy Spirit, nourished by Thy Word, kept by divine grace, and everlastingly rewarded through Thine eternal mercies. In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

Wilt Thou be pleased, O God, to grant unto this child an understanding mind; may Thy providence lead him (her) through the dangers, temptations, and ignorance of youth; may he (she) never run into folly nor the evils of unbridled appetites; may he (she) be led to serve Thee faithfully, so that, when he (she) has glorified Thee in his (her) generation and served Thy cause on earth, he (she) may be received into Thine eternal kingdom. Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Benediction, II Corinthians 13:14.

II. The Baptism of Infants

Dearly Beloved: Baptism is the external seal of the new covenant of grace.

In presenting this child for Christian baptism, you must remember that it is your part and duty to see that he be taught, as soon as he shall be able to learn, the nature and the end of this holy sacrament.

Will you endeavor to lead this child to Christ early in life; call upon him to give reverent attendance upon appointed means of grace; see that he is taught the truth of God as contained in the Holy Scriptures; and help him, as you may be able, in the way of life? If so, answer, "I will."

[The minister may then ask the parents or guardians of the child to name the child, and baptize it, saying:]

I baptize thee in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

[The minister may offer prayer, the congregation uniting in the Lord's Prayer.]

III. The Baptism of Believers

Dearly Beloved: Believing that God has given you forgiveness of sins, and spiritual life through Christ Jesus our Lord and Saviour, and that you are thus graciously prepared to receive Christian baptism, as declarative of your saving faith and covenant of obedience, you will now give avowals of your belief and purpose.

Do you believe in God, the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, His only begotten Son, our Lord? that He was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary? that He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried? that the third day He rose from the dead? that He ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty, and from thence shall come again to judge the quick and the dead? and

Do you believe in the Holy Ghost? the Church of God? the communion of saints? the remission of sins? the resurrection of the body? and the life everlasting?

Answer: All this I steadfastly believe.

Will you be baptized in this faith?

Answer: I will.

Do you renounce the devil and all his works? the vain pomp and glory of the world, with all covetous desires of the flesh and of the mind?

Answer: I renounce them all.

Will you then obey God's holy will, and keep His commandments, and walk in them all the days of your life?

Answer: I will.

[The minister, asking the name, shall say:]

A. B., I baptize thee in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

CHAPTER II

583. THE RECEPTION OF CHURCH MEMBERS

Dearly Beloved: The privileges and blessings which we have in association together in the Church of Jesus Christ are very sacred and precious. There is in it such hallowed fellowship as cannot otherwise be known.

There is such helpfulness with brotherly watch care and counsel as can be found only in the Church.

There is the godly care of pastors, with the teachings of the Word, and the helpful inspiration of social worship. And there is co-operation in service, accomplishing that which cannot otherwise be done. It is necessary that we be of one mind and heart. The doctrines upon which the Church rests as essential to Christian experience are brief. We believe in God the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost; we especially emphasize the deity of Jesus Christ and the personality of the Holy Spirit; that man is born in sin; that he needs the work of the Holy Spirit in regeneration; that, after the work of regeneration, there is the further work of heart-cleansing, or entire sanctification, which is effected by the Holy Ghost. And to each of these works of grace the Holy Spirit gives witness. We believe in eternal destiny, with its rewards and punishments.

Do you heartily believe these truths?

Do you take Jesus Christ as your Saviour and do you realize that He saves you now?

Desiring to unite with the Church of the Nazarene, do you covenant to give yourself to the fellowship and work of God in connection with it, as set forth in the General Rules and Special Rules of the Church of the Nazarene? to endeavor in every way to glorify God, by a humble walk, godly conversation, and holy service; by devotedly giving of your means; by faithful attendance upon the means of grace; and abstaining from all evil, to seek earnestly to perfect holiness of heart and life in the fear of the Lord?

[These questions being satisfactorily answered, the persons may be received. The minister, taking them by the hand, shall say:]

I welcome you into this church, to its sacred fellowship, duties, and privileges. May the great Head of the Church bless and keep you, and enable you to be faithful in all good works.

CHAPTER III

584. THE SACRAMENT OF THE LORD'S SUPPER

[36, 69 § 10, 260]

[The administration of the Lord's Supper may be introduced by an appropriate sermon or a suitable address, and the reading of I Corinthians 11:23-29; Luke 22:14-20, or some other appropriate passage. Let the minister give the following invitation:]

The Lord himself ordained this holy sacrament. He commanded His disciples to partake of the bread and wine, emblems of His broken body and shed blood. This is His table. The feast is for His disciples. Let all those who have with true repentance forsaken their sins, and have believed in Christ unto salvation, draw near and take these emblems, and, by faith, partake of the life of Jesus Christ, to your soul's comfort and joy. Let us remember that it is the memorial of the death and passion of our Lord; also a token of His coming again. Let us not forget that we are one, at one table with the Lord.

[The minister, with the congregation, kneeling, may offer prayer of confession and supplication, with the following prayer of consecration:]

Almighty God, our Heavenly Father, who of Thy tender mercy didst give Thine only Son, Jesus Christ, to suffer death upon the Cross for our redemption: hear us, O merciful Father, we most humbly beseech Thee; grant that, as we receive these Thy creatures of bread and wine according to the holy institution of Thy Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ, in remembrance of His death and passion, we may be made partakers of the benefits of His sacrificial death; who, in the same night that He was betrayed, took bread and, when He had given thanks, He broke it and gave it to His disciples, saying, "Take, eat: this is My body, which is broken for you: do this in remembrance of Me."

Likewise, after supper, He took the cup, and when He had given thanks, He gave it to them saying, "Drink ye all of this, for this is My blood of the New Testament, which is shed for you and for many, for the remission of sins; do this, as oft as ye shall drink it, in remembrance of Me." Amen.

[Then may the minister, first partaking himself, with the assistance of any other ministers present, and when necessary, of the stewards, administer the Communion to the people.]

[If there be those who cannot kneel, let them receive it sitting or standing. While the bread is being distributed, let the minister say:]

The body of our Lord Jesus Christ, which was broken for thee, preserve thee blameless, unto everlasting life. Take and eat this, in remembrance that Christ died for thee.

[As the cup is being passed, let the minister say:]

The blood of our Lord Jesus Christ, which was shed for thee, preserve thee blameless unto everlasting life. Drink this, in remembrance that Christ's blood was shed for thee, and be thankful.

[The Lord's Prayer with extemporary prayer of thanksgiving.]

CHAPTER IV

585. MATRIMONY

[At the day and time appointed for the solemnization of matrimony, the persons to be married—having been qualified according to law—standing together, the man on the right hand and the woman on the left, the minister shall say:]

Dearlly Beloved: We are gathered together here in the sight of God, and in the presence of these witnesses, to join together this man and this woman in holy matrimony, which is an honorable estate, instituted of God in the time of man's innocency, signifying unto us the mystical union that exists between Christ and His Church. This holy estate Christ adorned and beautified with His presence and first miracle that He wrought, in Cana of Galilee, and St. Paul commended it to be honorable among all men. It is, therefore, not to be entered into unadvisedly, but reverently, discreetly, and in the fear of God.

Into this holy estate these persons present come now to be joined. Therefore, if any can show just cause why they may not lawfully be joined together, let him now speak, or else forever hold his peace.

[And also, speaking unto the persons that are to be married, the minister shall say:]

I require and charge you both that, if either of you knows any impediment why you may not be lawfully joined together in matrimony, you do now confess it; for be ye well assured that so many as are coupled together otherwise than God's Word doth allow are not joined together by God, neither is their matrimony lawful.

[If no impediment be alleged, then shall the minister say unto the man:]

Wilt thou have this woman to be thy wedded wife, to live together after God's ordinance in the holy estate of matrimony? Wilt thou love her, comfort her, honor and keep her, in sickness and in health; and, forsaking all others, keep thee only unto her, so long as ye both shall live?

[The man shall answer:]

I will.

[Then shall the minister say unto the woman:]

Wilt thou have this man to be thy wedded husband, to live together after God's ordinance in the holy estate of matrimony? Wilt thou love, honor, and keep him, in sickness and in health; and, forsaking all others, keep thee only unto him, so long as ye both shall live?

[The woman shall answer:]

I will.

[Then shall the minister ask:]

Who giveth this woman in marriage?

[Joining right hands with the woman, the man shall repeat after the minister:]

I,, take thee,, to be my wedded wife, to have and to hold from this day forward, for better—for worse, for richer—for poorer, in sickness and in health, to love and to cherish, till death us do part, according to God's holy ordinance; and thereto I plight thee my troth.

[The woman shall repeat after the minister:]

I,, take thee,, to be my wedded husband, to have and to hold from this day forward, for better—for worse, for richer—for poorer, in sickness and in health, to love and to cherish, till death us do part, according to God's holy ordinance; and thereto I plight thee my troth.

[Then shall the minister pray thus:]

O Eternal God, Creator and Preserver of all mankind, Giver of all spiritual grace, the Author of everlasting life, send Thy blessing upon these Thy servants, this man and this woman, whom we bless in Thy name; that, as Isaac and Rebekah lived faithfully together, so these persons may surely perform and keep the vow and covenant between them made, and may ever remain in perfect love and peace together, and live according to Thy laws: through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

[Then shall the minister say:]

Forasmuch as this man and this woman have consented together in holy wedlock, and have witnessed the same before God and this company, and have declared the same by joining of hands, I pronounce that they are husband and wife together, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Those whom God hath joined together let not man put asunder. Amen.

[And the minister shall add his blessing:]

God, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, bless, preserve, and keep you; the Lord mercifully with His favor look upon you, and so fill you with all spiritual benediction and grace that ye may so live together in this life that in the world to come ye may have life everlasting. Amen.

[Then may the minister offer the following prayer, or may use extemporary prayer:]

O God of Abraham, God of Isaac, God of Jacob, bless this man and this woman, and sow the seed of eternal life in their hearts, that whatsoever in the Holy Word they shall profitably learn, they may indeed fulfill the same. Look, O Lord, mercifully on them from heaven, and bless them; as Thou didst send Thy blessing upon Abraham and Sarah, to their great comfort, so vouchsafe to send Thy blessing upon this man and this woman, that they, obeying Thy will, and always being in safety under Thy protection, may abide in Thy love unto their lives' end, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Almighty God, who at the beginning didst create our first parents, Adam and Eve, and didst sanctify and join them together in marriage, pour upon these persons the riches of Thy grace, sanctify and bless them, that they may please Thee, in both body and soul, and live together in holy love unto their lives' end. Amen.

CHAPTER V

586. THE FUNERAL SERVICE

OPENING SENTENCES, the following or other suitable selections:

"I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: and whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die" (John 11:25, 26). Or,

"For I know that my redeemer liveth, and that he shall stand at the latter day upon the earth: and though after my skin worms destroy this body, yet in my flesh shall I see God: whom I shall see for myself, and mine eyes shall behold, and not another" (Job 19:25-27).

INVOCATION, in the minister's own words or the following:

Almighty God, our Heavenly Father, we come into this sanctuary of sorrow, realizing our utter dependence upon Thee. We know Thou dost love us and canst turn even the shadow of death into the light of morning. Help us now to wait before Thee with reverent and submissive hearts.

Thou art our Refuge and Strength, O God—a very present Help in time of trouble. Grant unto us Thy abundant mercy. May those who mourn today find comfort and healing balm in Thy sustaining grace.

We humbly bring these petitions in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

A HYMN OR SPECIAL SONG

SUITABLE SELECTIONS OF SCRIPTURE:

“Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, to an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you, who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. Wherein ye greatly rejoice, though now for a season, if need be, ye are in heaviness through manifold temptations: that the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise and honour and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ: whom having not seen, ye love; in whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory: receiving the end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls" (I Peter 1:3-9). Or, Matthew 5:3-4, 6, 8; Psalms 27:3-5, 11, 13-14; Psalms 46:1-6, 10-11.

ADDRESS

A HYMN OR SPECIAL MUSIC

CLOSING PRAYER

AT THE GRAVE

When the people have assembled, the minister may say:

"Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also. And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know. Thomas saith unto him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest; and how can we know the way? Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me" (John 14:1-6). Or,

"Blessed be God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort; who comforteth us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any trouble by the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted of God" (II Corinthians 1:3-4).

THE COMMITTAL

We come hither to lay all that was mortal of our dear friend in this new-made sepulcher. He (she) is not here. His (her) absence occasions our coming hither today. This is but the house in which he (she) lived. While he (she) abode in it, it was alive. But he (she) has gone, and the house is silent and lifeless. As it was taken from the earth, so it will go back and mingle with its kindred elements. We can do no other than to bring it hither, and, laying it back upon the bosom of Mother Earth, say: "Earth to earth, ashes to ashes, dust to dust." Despite the shadow and sorrow caused by his (her) absence, we recognize the immortality of the soul; that through Christ we have hope of eternal life in heaven. Also that these mortal bodies shall come forth to the final awards of eternity.

PRAYER, in the minister's own words or the following:

Our Heavenly Father, God of all mercy, we look to Thee in this moment of sorrow and bereavement. Comfort these dear ones whose hearts are heavy and sad. Wilt Thou be with them; sustain and guide them in the days to come. Grant, O Lord, that they may love and serve Thee and obtain the fullness of Thy promises in the world to come.

“Now the God of peace, that brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant, make you perfect in every good work to do his will, working in you that which is wellpleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ; to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen” (Hebrews 13:20-21).

CHAPTER III

589. BYLAWS OF THE SUNDAY SCHOOL

Note—These bylaws are suggestive and may be adapted by the church school board to meet the needs of the local school [138.] While they are not binding church legislation, they have been recommended by the Department of Church Schools and have been endorsed by vote of the General Assembly.

PURPOSE

The purpose of the Sunday school is basically twofold:

§ 1. To teach the Word of God effectively until pupils are saved, sanctified wholly, and maturing in Christian experience and grace so they can also win and teach others.

§ 2. To locate and visit unchurched people until they become enrolled and regular in attendance.

ARTICLE I. Membership

§ 1. Membership in the Sunday school of the Church of the Nazarene is open to all who desire the help and association this school offers and who consent to become members under the provisions of the Manual and these bylaws. There shall be three classes of members in the Sunday school; namely, active, Cradle Roll, and Home Department. [140]

§ 2. All persons eligible to active membership who declare their willingness to attend with some degree of regularity may be enrolled at once.

§ 3. Active members should be dropped from the roll immediately when they join another Sunday school, move out of town, die, or specifically ask to have their names removed. Members who have ceased to attend but who still live in the community should be removed only after every effort has been made by the teacher, supervisor, superintendent, and pastor to gain their attendance. A non-attending member may be transferred to another class upon recommendation of the supervisor and/or superintendent in the interest of gaining his regular attendance. Non-attending members should be removed only upon approval of the pastor.

§ 4. The attendance count shall be closed not later than midpoint of the Sunday school hour.

§ 5. Cradle Roll members shall be children under four years of age, enrolled in the Cradle Roll department, who do not attend Sunday school. Cradle Roll members shall be enrolled by the Cradle Roll supervisor or "Department visitors." All Cradle Roll members are a part of the total Sunday school enrollment, just as are Home Department members.

All children on the Cradle Roll should be considered as prospects for the Nursery Department. The parents of these children are prospects for the Young Adult Department or class.

Any children on the Cradle Roll who have not started attending Sunday school by their fourth birthday should be transferred to the prospect list of the Kindergarten Department.

Children remain on the Cradle Roll until they come to Sunday school with some regularity. They are then enrolled in a nursery class suitable for their age—nursery crib, nursery one (toddlers), nursery two, or nursery three. When enrolled in the Nursery Department they are taken off the Cradle Roll and placed on a class roll. They are counted in the Sunday school's active enrollment, and in the attendance when they are present.

It is recommended that the Cradle Roll be sponsored as a project by a young married people's Sunday school class, or a young married people's department.

§ 6. Home Department members shall be enrolled by the supervisor of the Home Department.

When Home Department members are present in the school they should be counted as visitors in the class where they attend.

It is recommended that the Home Department be sponsored as a project by a middle-aged or older adult class or department of the Sunday school.

§ 7. When a church sponsors a branch Sunday school, enrollment and attendance of the branch are to be credited to the parent Sunday school until the branch becomes an organized church. Records from the branch school are to be included in the records of the sponsoring school, but shown as a separate item in local and district reports as follows:

Attendance	126
Branch School	23
Total	149

Where two or more churches sponsor the same branch Sunday school, enrollment and attendance figures are to be equally divided among sponsoring churches. A branch school shall be defined as a group with reasonable expectation of becoming an organized church, or an extension group with more than one class.

§ 8. When a group of persons under the supervision of the Home Department or other approved leadership of the Sunday school meets regularly each week for not less than one-half hour of Bible study at a time or place other than the regular Sunday school, such a group shall be known as an extension class. Extension class enrollment and attendance shall be reported as follows, but they shall not be included in the totals for the local Sunday school:

Attendance	126
Extension Class	13

ARTICLE II. Classes and Departments

§ 1. For the teaching work and certain group activities the Sunday school shall be divided into classes on the basis of school grade or age and other conditions. Each class shall be under the care of a competent teacher suited to the group age

§ 2. For the most effective work a Sunday school should be departmentalized. Even a small school, if there be more than one class for children, will progress more rapidly if there is a department supervisor to correlate the work of the children's classes. As soon as there two or more classes within a given age-group, e.g., juniors (nine to eleven years), someone should be appointed as the junior supervisor even though a separate worship service for juniors is not possible. A youth supervisor and an adult supervisor should be appointed as soon as there are two or more classes in either of these age-groups. It shall be the duty of the department supervisor, in harmony with the Manual and the bylaws of the Sunday school: (a) to attend all cabinet meetings, and to preside at all meetings of his department workers; (b) with the superintendent to nominate to the pastor such teachers as may be needed, and provide such other officers and helpers as may be required for the most efficient work of the department; and (c) to cooperate with the pastor and superintendent in their plans for the general advancement of the school.

§ 3. Each Sunday school class above junior age should be organized to carry out Christian service projects and other helpful class activities. The Department of Church Schools will, upon request, furnish information and plans for such class organization.

§ 4. The Department of Church Schools will, upon request, furnish full instructions for a plan of departmentalization of the Sunday school.

ARTICLE III. Officers and Their Duties

§ 1. The officers of the Sunday school shall be a superintendent, an assistant superintendent, a secretary, and a treasurer, and such other officers as may be needed. These shall be elected according to the Manual, paragraphs 135 and 142.

§ 2. It shall be the duty of the superintendent (a) to administer the affairs of the school according to the provisions of the Manual and the bylaws; (b) to counsel with the teachers relative to their work; (c) to give an annual report to the annual church meeting; (d) to attend the District Assembly; (e) to cooperate with the District Church School Board and Department of Church Schools in the promotion of the church school work.

§ 5. It shall be the duty of the treasurer to receive all funds raised by the Sunday school and direct disbursement of the same as directed by the budget and policies laid down by the church school board. He shall keep an accurate account of all finances and make a monthly, detailed report to the cabinet and a quarterly report to the church school board of all receipts, expenditures, and obligations.

In the small school one person may serve as secretary-treasurer.

§ 6. It is well to have a librarian, whose duty will be (a) to have charge of all Sunday school literature, books, and periodicals, and direct their proper distribution; (b) to promote and have charge of a workers' library; (c) to create through the school an appreciation for wholesome literature and encourage the reading of the same.

§ 7. A music committee with the following duties may be profitable: (a) to have general charge of the music of the school; (b) to see that proper persons are selected to lead the singing and play the musical instruments; (c) to see that proper songbooks are provided for each department; (d) to create throughout the school an appreciation for wholesome music in Christian worship and character building; (e) to organize and promote such ensemble work as may be desirable and helpful.

ARTICLE IV. Administration and Supervision

§1. This school is an organic part of the local church, and of the local church educational program. It is under the general supervision of the church school board, the care of the pastor, and the immediate leadership of the Sunday school superintendent.

§2. There shall be a Sunday school cabinet, in which the administrative work of the school is vested. The cabinet shall consist of the general officers and the department supervisors, if any, of the Sunday school. (In case it shall be deemed preferable by the local church, the members of the church school board and/or the Sunday school teachers may be included in the membership of the Sunday school cabinet.) 3. Resolved, That the Manual Editing Committee be and they are hereby authorized to harmonize conflicting statements which may appear in the records of the actions of the Sixteenth General Assembly in regard to changes in the Manual. [Adopted by General Assembly, 1964.]

§10. Manual Appendix Review

Any item remaining in Chapters III and V of the Appendix for three quadrennia (twelve years) without reconsideration shall be referred by the Committee on Reference to the proper committee of the General Assembly for the same consideration as a memorial to the General Assembly. [Adopted by General Assembly, 1964.]

CHAPTER IV

602. INTERPRETATIONS OF CHURCH LAW

Judiciary Actions

1. Has the District Advisory Board the right to transfer a member of the District Assembly to another denomination?

Ans. The District Advisory Board has no authority to transfer a member of the District Assembly to another denomination.

2. (a) Does a district superintendent have the right to give his written approval to the sale of church property without the consent of the District Advisory Board?

(b) Does he need the consent of the District Advisory Board?

Ans. (a) The district superintendent does have the right to give his written approval of the sale of church property without the approval of the District Advisory Board.

(b) He does not need the consent of the District Advisory Board.

3. Relating to General Rules 25 § 1 (7), "membership in or fellowship with oath-bound secret orders or fraternities."

(a) Does this mean that the Church of the Nazarene will not permit its members to hold their former insurance in this class of orders, provided that the fees are paid for this purpose only and there is no fellowship with the organization?

(b) Does a church have the right to maintain the membership of a person when he holds membership in a secret order solely for the purpose of keeping his insurance while it bars from membership other persons because they are members of the same order?

Ans. (a) (b) According to 25 § 1 (7) of our Manual one cannot be a member of the Church of the Nazarene while holding membership in an oath-bound secret order.

4. A woman marries a man who had been previously married and unscripturally divorced. Would she be barred from membership in the Church of the Nazarene provided her own individual case met the requirements for membership?

Ans. Such a person as that referred to would be barred from membership in the Church of the Nazarene.

5. General Rules 24 §1 (3) relating to "Using of tobacco in any of its forms, or the trafficking therein."

Does this prohibit church membership in the Church of the Nazarene to a person who is employed in a store, either as clerk or manager, where among other things he is obliged to sell tobacco?

Ans. There is a distinction between trafficking as the owner of a business and selling as a clerk; and, therefore, we would not interpret the selling as a clerk as violating the letter of the Manual.

6. At a church meeting called for the purpose of voting on the recall of a pastor, is it legal to count the votes of members not present at the time of such voting?

Ans. It would be illegal to count the votes of members not present when voting on the recall of a pastor.

7. If a licensed minister meets all the requirements for the renewal of his license according to 258, is the District Assembly obliged to renew such license?

Ans. A District Assembly is not under obligation according to 258 to renew said license.

8. A church has a debt on its property. It elects a finance committee of three who are members of the church board with instructions to receive and disburse all money which applies to the church debt. Has the church the right to make this committee custodian of that part of the church funds and to receive and disburse the same independent of the regularly elected church treasurer?

Ans. The church does have such a right.

9. A pastor resigns. The district superintendent calls the church board together to consider the appointment of a man to fill the vacancy until the next District Assembly. He finds that the church board had previously held a meeting and elected a man for the pastorate for the remainder of the District Assembly year, and also had called him for the year following. Is the church acting within its rights?

Ans. The church is not acting within its rights.

10. In case a district superintendent and pastor fail to investigate charges filed against a minister in their Assembly District as directed in 471 of the Manual, does this incriminate the district superintendent or the pastor for failure to make this investigation?

Ans. A district superintendent would be incriminated if he failed to investigate written accusations against a minister in his assembly district. The fact of his amenability to his District Assembly is evidence that he will be subject to charges for failing to discharge his official duty. [Adopted by General Assembly, 1928.]

11. Clarify the status of an elder who may be dropped from the local membership roll on account of absence of over a six-month period, which is unsatisfactorily explained, and the nonsupport of the church during this period. If a local church drops his name from the roll, what is his assembly relationship?

Ans. It is the opinion of the Committee on Judiciary that the dropping of an elder from the church roll of which he is a member, under the conditions mentioned, cannot affect his status as a member of his assembly district. [Adopted by General Assembly, 1940.]

CHAPTER V

603. CURRENT MORAL AND SOCIAL ISSUES

§1. Race and Discrimination

We, the members of the Sixteenth General Assembly of the Church of the Nazarene, wish to reiterate our historic stand of Christian compassion for men of all races. We believe that God is the Creator of all men and that of one blood are all men created.

We believe that all races should have equality before law, including the right to vote, the right to equal educational opportunities, the right to earn a living according to one's ability without discrimination, and the right to public facilities supported by taxation.

We urge our churches everywhere to continue and strengthen programs of education to promote racial understanding and harmony. We also feel that the scriptural admonition, "Follow peace with all men" (Hebrews 12:14), should guide the actions of our people lest racial prejudices be intensified and by "sowing to the wind" we "reap a whirlwind" of bitterness, hatred, social disorder, and lawlessness.

We also wish to state once again our belief that holiness of heart and life is the basis for all right living. We believe the real solution for misunderstanding between racial groups will come when the hearts of men have been changed by complete submission to Jesus Christ and that the crux of true religion consists in loving God with one's heart, soul, mind, and strength, and one's neighbor as himself. [Adopted by General Assembly, 1964.]

§2. Prayer and Bible in School and Nation

WHEREAS, The United States of America was founded on Christian principles and the law of God as embodied in the Scriptures; and

WHEREAS, The First Amendment of the Constitution states that "Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion or prohibiting the free exercise thereof," and

WHEREAS, Prayer and reading of the Bible were never known to be in opposition to the Constitution of this great nation; and

WHEREAS, We have throughout our history been a God-fearing and God-honoring Christian nation; and

WHEREAS, Certain religious, atheistic, and secular forces have set about to tear down this time-tested fabric of our national life; be it

Resolved, That the Sixteenth General Assembly of the Church of the Nazarene in session at Portland, Oregon, in June, 1964, be recorded as supporting:

(1) All present references to God on our national currency and in the pledge of allegiance and other reverent usage;

(2) The present system of the chaplaincy in federal, state, and local governments;

(3) Voluntary prayer and Bible reading in any public, government, or private institutions;

(4) The traditional practice of public school baccalaureate; and

(5) Prayer and other religious observances by public and civic organizations. [Adopted by General Assembly, 1964.]

§3. Tobacco and Its Effect on Health and Morals

In view of our historic stand on the use of tobacco and its attendant evils, and

WHEREAS, The American Medical Association has condemned its use as a health hazard, and

WHEREAS, Senator Maurene Neubarger of our host state has championed legislation for the protection of our youth against this enemy of health and morals, and

WHEREAS, The Federal Trade Commission has announced that warnings of the health hazards of smoking be placed on each package of cigarettes beginning January 1, 1965; be it

Resolved, That we, the General Assembly of the Church of the Nazarene, concur in the stand thus taken and send to Senator Neubarger, the American Medical Association, and the Federal Trade Commission our greetings and statement of support. [Adopted by General Assembly, 1964.]

§4. Separation of Church and State

We, the Fifteenth General Assembly of the Church of the Nazarene, desiring to reaffirm our continuing concern that our great Protestant heritage be understood and safeguarded, remind our people that both our political and religious freedom rest upon biblical concepts of the dignity of man as God's creation and the sanctity of his individual conscience. We encourage our people to participate in political activity in support of these historic concepts and to be ever vigilant against threats to our precious freedom.

We recognize that, in the United States, separation of church and state is a tradition which has implemented these principles at the national, state, and local levels. Believing that our precious freedoms are constantly in danger, we urge election of men to public office at all levels of government who believe in these principles and who are answerable only to God and the constituency which elected them when carrying out a public trust. Further, we resist any invasion of these principles by religious groups seeking special favors.

We believe that the role of the Church is to be prophetic and constantly to remind the people that "righteousness exalteth a nation." [Adopted by General Assembly, 1960.]

§5. Modern or Folk Dancing

Resolved, That we go on record as being opposed to modern or folk dancing, in either ballrooms or other places, even under the guise of physical education classes. [Adopted by General Assembly, 1952.]

§6. Magazines, Radio, and Television

Since we are living in a day of great moral confusion in which we face the potential encroachment of the evils of the day into the sacred precincts of our homes through various avenues such as current literature, radio, and the more modern medium of television, it is essential that the most rigid safeguards be observed to keep our homes from becoming secularized and worldly.

While we recognize these agencies are of great value in the propagation of the gospel and the salvation of souls, we do deplore the low moral tone of much current literature, comic magazines, articles and pictures of some magazines, and the contents of many books.

We do likewise deplore the sensual appeal of many radio and television programs. We believe it to be detrimental to the welfare of our homes to listen to or view programs of the Hollywood type of movies or shows of the vaudeville level. We therefore call upon our leaders and pastors to give strong emphasis in our periodicals and from our pulpits to such fundamental truths as will develop the principle of discrimination between the evil and the good to be found in these mediums.

We suggest that the standard given to John Wesley by his mother, namely, "Whatsoever weakens your reason, impairs the tenderness of your conscience, obscures your sense of God, or takes off the relish of spiritual things, whatever increases the authority of your body over mind, that thing for you is sin," form the basis for this teaching of discrimination.

We especially recommend that the reading, listening, and viewing on the Sabbath day be consistent with our high standards of holiness, and that we do not allow any television program to become a substitute for church attendance. [Adopted by General Assembly, 1952.]

§7. Public Bathing Places

Resolved, That this General Assembly go on record as being unqualifiedly opposed to our people's patronizing promiscuous public bathing places. [Adopted by General Assembly, 1928.]

CHAPTER VI

604. SPECIAL COMMISSIONS AND COMMITTEES

Commissions

§1. Relocation

There shall be a Commission on Relocation of General Interests to be nominated by the Board of General Superintendents and elected by the General Board. This commission shall execute plans for the development of a denominational center subject to approval of the General Board and the Board of General Superintendents. [Authorized by the General Assembly, 1948.] [600 §10]

§2. Marriage in Our Society

Assignment: We memorialize the General Assembly that the general superintendents appoint a commission to study during the next quadrennium the status of marriage in our society; to define the scriptural position relative to the problems of marriage and divorce, and to outline how these problems may be solved through the life and ministry of the church. [Authorized by the General Assembly, 1964.]

§3. Adding Scriptural References to General Rules

We memorialize the General Assembly that the Board of General Superintendents appoint a commission who during the quadrennium will study the matter of adding suitable scriptures to the General Rules of our church. [Authorized by the General Assembly, 1964.]
