FOREWORD FOR 1980 MANUAL

A church must place its doctrines, standard of practical ethics, and polity within the grasp of all its constituents. The Church of the Nazarene has done so in this Manual.

Its people must come to union in strength through agreement on the basic creed, structure, and government of the church. This Manual is the written form of that great faith.

The history of the Church of the Nazarene is a matter of record. A brief historical statement is included to introduce the origins of the church to our people.

Our faith in the Bible as the inspired Word of God is made evident in the Constitution with its clear, concise statements of our doctrinal beliefs. The essential ethical standard and its expression of the Christian life is proclaimed in the General and Special Rules to be guides and helps to holy living.

Our church government is the legacy of both laymen and our ministry. It presents the obligation and privilege to all members to have part in the operation of the church. Our government is representative; however, we believe in dedicated and responsible leadership by superintendency on district and general levels.

Since our church is committed to outreach in evangelism, the government of the church is directed to the achievement of our great objective; namely, to advance the kingdom of God on earth.

This Manual contains the decisions and judgment of the delegates, both ministers and laymen, who have met in session in the 1980 General Assembly which is the lawmaking body of the Church of the Nazarene. While our church accepts all the major doctrines of evangelical orthodoxy, as stated in the Articles of Faith, we have a definite commitment to proclaim the doctrine of Christian holiness. We believe it is an essential experience and provides the scriptural way of life for the Christian. This Manual, rooted in our history, grounded in the Scriptures, and clearly stating our doctrine and ethical practice, is to us all a most important book.

Since it states the faith and practice of our church so clearly related to the Scriptures, let all who are a part of the Church of the Nazarene seek to follow faithfully these tenets of doctrine and holiness ethics. To fail to do so is to imperil one's own soul and mar the witness and fellowship of the church.

In this day when the unregenerate need desperately a standard of human existence to benefit society, let us provide the example in a great united witness of faith in Christ through righteous living. We offer this 1969 Manual to our people, believing in its usefulness as a service to all our members while we work together with our Lord through the agency of the Church of the Nazarene.

Historical Statement

HISTORICAL STATEMENT

I. Near the close of the nineteenth century, a movement for the spread and conservation of scriptural holiness in organized church form developed almost simultaneously in various parts of the United States. This movement was similar to the Wesleyan revival of the previous century. The manifestation everywhere of a spontaneous drawing in the unity of the Spirit towards closer affiliation of those of like previous faith culminated finally in the organization of the Pentecostal Church of the Nazarene.

The great impulse of this movement has been the emphasis placed by the Scriptures upon the fact that, in the atonement, Jesus Christ has made provision, not only to save men from their sins, but also to perfect them in love.

II. On May 12, 1886, a number of the brethren in Providence, R.I., interested in promoting the Wesleyan doctrine and experience of entire sanctification, organized and held weekly religious services, first in private homes, but after a few months in a rented store on Oxford Street. On January 16, 1887, a Sunday school was organized with 95 members. On July 21, 1887, the People's Evangelical Church was organized with 51 members, Rev. F. A. Hilary acting as pastor. On November 25, 1888, the Mission Church, Lynn, Mass., was organized with Rev. C. Howard Davis as pastor. On March 13 and 14, 1890, representatives from these churches and other evangelical holiness organizations in southern New England assembled at Rock, Mass., and organized the Central Evangelical Holiness Association. Rev. W. C. Ryder, pastor of the Independent Congregational Church of that place, was elected president. Within the following year the Mission Church, Malden, Mass., the Emmanuel Mission Church, North Attleboro, Mass., and the Bethany Mission Church, Keen, N.H., were organized.

In January, 1894, William Howard Hoople, a businessman in New York City, founded a mission in Brooklyn, which, in the following May, was organized as an independent church with a membership of 22, and was called the Utica Avenue Pentecostal Tabernacle. After a church edifice was erected, Mr. Hoople was called to the pastorate. The following February, in an abandoned church building, the Bedford Avenue Pentecostal Church was organized, and a little later the Emmanuel Pentecostal Tabernacle. In December, 1895, delegates from these three churches adopted a constitution, summary of doctrines, and bylaws, and formed the Association of Pentecostal Churches of America. This association was duly incorporated. Associated with Rev. William Howard Hoople in this work were Rev. H. B. Hosley, Rev. John Norberry, Rev. Charles BeVier, and Rev. H. F. Reynolds.

On November 12, 1896, a joint committee from these two associations met in the city of Brooklyn, N.Y., to formulate some plan of union. For the benefit of their counsel and cooperation, several brethren prominent in the work were invited to act with the joint committee. Among this number were Rev. C. Howard Davis, Rev. G. W. Wilson, Rev. John Norberry, Rev. H. F. Reynolds, Rev. H. B. Hosley, and Rev. Charles H. BeVier. This meeting resulted in the union of the two bodies. It was agreed that the work should be continued under the name of the Association of Presbyterian Churches of America.

III. In October, 1886, a number of persons, under the leadership of Rev. Phineas F. Benson, D.D., and J. P. Welney, M.D., formed the First Church of the Nazarene at Los Angeles, Calif., with 135 charter members. They adopted statements of belief, and agreed to such general rules as seemed proper and needful for their immediate guidance, leaving to the future the making of such provisions as the work and its conditions might necessitate. As a result of this organization a number of churches sprang into existence, reaching as far east as Chicago.

IV. As the group from the East and the group from the West came to know each other better, the feeling grew that they should unite. After delegates from both areas had conferred, the following basis of union was prepared and adopted unanimously by both bodies:

Basis of Union

It is agreed that the two churches are one in the doctrines considered essential to salvation, especially the doctrines of justification by faith and entire sanctification subsequent to justification, also by faith, and as a result, the precious experience of entire sanctification as a normal condition of the churches. Both churches recognize that the right of church membership rests upon experience and that persons who have been born of the Spirit are entitled to its privileges.

We are agreed on the necessity of a superintendency, which shall foster and care for churches already established and whose duty it shall be to organize and encourage the organizing of churches everywhere.

We are agreed that authority given to superintendents shall not interfere with the independent action of a fully organized church, each church enjoying the right of selecting its own pastor, subject to such approval as the General Assembly shall find wise to institute; the election of delegates to the various assemblies; the management of their own finances; and of all other things pertaining to their local life and work.

It is agreed that any church of the Association of Pentecostal Churches of America going into this organization which may feel it imperative with them to continue to hold their property in like manner as at present, shall be at liberty to do so.

The first union assembly was held in Chicago in October, 1897. It was agreed that the name of the united body should be The Pentecostal Church of the Nazarene.

V. In 1894 at Milan, Tenn., the New Testament Church of Christ was organized with 14 members by Rev. R. L. Harris to conserve and promote scriptural holiness. The influence of this church soon spread throughout western Texas and Arkansas. Prominent among the leaders was Mrs. Mary Lee Cagle, formerly the wife of Rev. R. L. Harris, who continued the work after her husband's death.

In 1895 the first holiness churches in Texas were organized by Rev. Thomas Rogers and Rev. Dennis Rogers, who came from California.

In 1901 the first Independent Holiness church was organized at Van Alstyne, Tex., by Rev. C. B. Jennings. This denomination grew and prospered until, in 1902, there were 21 church organizations.

The legal representatives of the Independent

Holiness church and the New Testament Church of Christ met at Rising Star, Tex., in November, 1904, where a joint committee framed a Manual and statement of doctrine and basis of union. The union was fully consummated at Pilot Point, Tex., in November, 1905, and the united body adopted the name Holiness Church of Christ.

VI. In 1907 several representatives from the Holiness Church of Christ accepted the invitation of the Pentecostal Church of the Nazarene to attend its General Assembly in Chicago, but were not authorized to take any action with reference to organic union. After the assembly invited them into counsel, provisional arrangements were made to incorporate the two churches into one body, when proper action could be taken. Upon the invitation of the Holiness Church of Christ, the Second General Assembly convened at Pilot Point, Tex., at two o'clock Thursday afternoon, October 8, 1908. On the following Tuesday morning, R. B. Micham moved: "That the union of the two churches be now consummated," and the motion was seconded by Rev. C. W. Ruth. Revs. John N. Short, J. B. Creighton, C. B. Jennings, H. B. Hosley, P. F. Briscoe, and others spoke favorably regarding the motion. On Tuesday, October 13, 1908, at 10:40 a.m., amid great enthusiasm, the motion to unite was adopted by a unanimous rising vote.

VII. In 1888 Rev. J. O. McClurkan and a few others called a meeting of the holiness people of Tennessee and adjacent states to be held in Nashville. At this convention an association known as the Pentecostal Alliance was formed, but its name was later changed to the Pentecostal Mission. From the beginning these people were evangelistic in spirit and had a burning desire to disseminate the doctrine and experience of sanctification. Thus in different sections of the South there came together groups of holiness people, known as bands of the Pentecostal Mission. They were decidedly missionary in spirit, and soon were sending their representatives to "the regions beyond." Throughout their career they have been characterized by this missionary zeal.

At different times the question of the union of the Pentecostal Mission with the Pentecostal Church of the Nazarenes had been discussed. Finally on February 12, 1915, this union was effected at Nashville, Tenn., thus uniting both the home and the foreign work of the Pentecostal Mission and the Pentecostal Church of the Nazarenes.

VIII. In November, 1901, the first stage in the present holiness church movement in the British Isles began, when Rev. George Sharpe, who had been for 17½ years a preacher in the Methodist Episcopal church, accepted a call to the Congregational church at Ardrossan, Scotland. In September, 1905, he became minister of Parkhead Congregational Church, Glasgow; but after a strenuous, successful, and glorious ministry of 13 months, he was evicted for preaching Bible holiness.

On September 23, 1906, the first services of the first distinctly holiness church were held in the Great Eastern Posh Hall, Glasgow. The charter members numbered 85. Other churches were organized and became the Pentecostal Church of Scotland. Visits of Dr. E. F. Walker and Dr. H. F. Reynolds to Scotland, and a visit of Rev. George Sharpe and Mrs. Sharpe to the Fourth General Assembly, at Kansas City, Mo., led the way to union with the Church of the Nazarene, which was consummated in November, 1915.

IX. The General Assembly of 1918, in response to memorials from 35 district assemblies, changed the name of the organization to "Church of the Nazarene."

X. For many years a holiness movement had been developing in Minnesota, the Dakotas, and Montana. It was originated by a group of Methodist laymen, and was formally organized in 1917 at Jamestown, N.D., as the Laymen's Holiness Association. Rev. J. G. Morrison was immediately elected field evangelist and, in 1918, president of the organization. With him were associated Rev. Ira K. Hammer, Rev. S. C. Taylor, Rev. W. G. Bennett, and over 20 other evangelists and workers engaged in a widespread program of holiness evangelism and camp-meeting promotion. In 1922, under the leadership of these ministers, more than 1,000 people identified with the Laymen's Holiness Association united with the Church of the Nazarene.

XI. During the quadrennium 1952-56, two holiness groups in Britain merged with the Church of the Nazarene.

The International Holiness Mission, founded in London, England, in 1907 by Mr. David Thomas, businessman and lay preacher, consummated union with the Church of the Nazarene in Leeds, England, October 29, 1952, with General Superintendent Hardy C. Powers officiating. At the time of union, Mr. John Place was president of the International Holiness Mission, and Rev. J. B. MacLagan, who for 22 years had been a minister in the Church of the Nazarene in the British Isles, was superintendent-minister. The union brought 28 churches, over 1,000 constituents, and 31 missionaries in South Africa into the Church of the Nazarene.

For about 25 years the Calvary Holiness church of Britain carried on its ministry of holiness evangelism under the leadership of Rev. Maynard James and Rev. Jack Ford. Union of the Calvary Holiness church with the Church of the Nazarene was consummated June 11, 1955, at Manchester, England, with General Superintendent Samuel Young officiating. About 22 churches and over 600 members came into the church as a result of this union.

XII. The Gospel Workers church of Canada united with the Church of the Nazarene on September 7, 1958. Under the leadership of Rev. Albert Mills, president, and Rev. C. J. McNicol, secretary, the union took place with Mr. Samuel Goff, son of the founder, Rev. Frank D. Goff, of the Gospel Workers church, acting as attorney in the negotiations. The union was completed under the supervision of General Superintendent Samuel Young and added five churches and 20 members to the Canada Central District.

AMENDMENTS

PREAMBLE OF CONSTITUTION

In order that we may preserve our God-given heritage, the faith once delivered to the saints, especially the doctrine and experience of sanctification as a second work of grace, and also that we may cooperate effectually with other branches of the Church of Jesus Christ in advancing God's kingdom among men, we, the ministers and lay members of the Church of the Nazarene, in accordance with the principles of constitutional legislation established among us, do hereby ordain, adopt, and set forth as the fundamental law or constitution of the Church of the Nazarene the Articles of Faith, the General Rules, and the Articles of Organization and Government here following, to wit:

ARTICLES OF FAITH*

I. The True God

I. We believe in one eternally-existent, infinite God, Sovereign of the universe; that He only is God, creative and administrative, holy in nature, attributes, and purpose; that He, as God, is True in essential being, revealed as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

Genesis 1	John 1:6-27
Leviticus 19:2	I Corinthians 8:6
Deuteronomy 6:4-6	II Corinthians 13:14
Isaiah 3:16; 4:1-7; 48:18-21	Galatians 4:4-6
Matthew 3:14-17; 28:19-20	Ephesians 2:12-18

II. Jesus Christ

2. We believe in Jesus Christ, the Second Person of the Triune Godhead; that He was eternally one with the Father; that He became incarnate by the Holy Spirit and was born of the Virgin Mary, so that two whole and perfect natures, that is to say the Godhead and manhood, are thus united in one person very God and very man, the God-man.

We believe that Jesus Christ died for our sins, and that He truly arose from the dead and took again His body, together with all things appertaining to the perfection of man's nature, wherewith He ascended into heaven and is there engaged in intercession for us.

Matthew 1:23-28, 16:13-16

Luke 1:26-35

John 1:1-18

Acts 2:22-36

Romans 8:3, 12-14

Galatians 4:4-5

Philippians 2:6-11

Colossians 1:13-20

1 Timothy 3:14-16

Hebrews 2:14; 7:23-28;

9:24-28

1 John 1:1-2; 4:2-3, 10

III. The Holy Spirit

3. We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Third Person of the Triune Godhead, that He is ever present and efficiently active in and with the Church of Christ, convicting the world of sin, regenerating those who repent and believe, sanctifying believers, and guiding into all truth as it is in Jesus.

John 7:39; 14:15-18, 26; 16:7-15

Acts 2:33; 12:4-5

Romans 8:1-27

Galatians 3:1-14; 4:6

Ephesians 3:14-21

1 Thessalonians 4:7-8

2 Thessalonians 2:13

1 Peter 1:2

1 John 2:20; 4:13

IV. The Holy Scriptures

4. We believe in the plenary inspiration of the Holy Scriptures, by which we understand the sixty-six books of the Old and New Testaments, given by divine inspiration, inerrantly revealing the will of God concerning us in all things necessary to our salvation, so that whatever is not contained therein is not to be enjoined as an article of faith.

Luke 24:44-47

2 Timothy 3:15-17

John 10:35

1 Peter 1:19-12

1 Corinthians 12:3-4

2 Peter 1:20-21

V. Original Sin, or Depravity

5. We believe that original sin, or depravity, is that corruption of the nature of all the offspring of Adam by reason of which every one is very far gone from original righteousness or the pure state of our first parents at the time of their creation, is avverse to God, is without spiritual life, and inclined to evil, and that continually. We further believe that original sin continues to exist with the new life of the regenerate, until eradicated by the baptism with the Holy Spirit.

7:7-8; 9

Psalms 51:5

1 Corinthians 3:1-4

Jeremiah 17:9-10

Galatians 3:16-20

Mark 7:21-23

VI. Atonement

6. We believe that Jesus Christ, by His sufferings, by the shedding of His own blood, and by His meritorious death on the Cross, made a full atonement ment for all human sin, and that this atonement is the only ground of salvation, and that it is sufficient for every individual of Adam's race. The atonement is graciously efficacious for the salvation of the irresponsible and for the children in infancy, but is efficacious for the salvation of those who reach the age of responsibility only when they repent and believe.

Mark 10:45

Luke 24:46-48

Hebrews 2:9; 9:11-14; 13:12

1 Peter 1:18-21; 2:19-22

1 John 2:1-2

VII. Free Agency

7. We believe that man's creation in Godlikeness included ability to choose between right and wrong, and that thus he was made morally responsible; that through the fall of Adam he became depraved so that he cannot now turn and prepare himself by his own natural strength and works to faith and calling upon God. But we also believe that the grace of God through Jesus Christ is freely bestowed upon all men, making all who will to turn from sin to righteousness, believe in Jesus Christ for pardon and cleansing from sin, and follow good works pleasing and acceptable in His sight.

We believe that man, though in the possession of the experience of regeneration and entire sanctification, may fall from grace and apostatize and, unless he repent of his sin, be hopelessly and eternally lost.

VIII. Repentance

8. We believe that repentance, which is a sincere and thorough change of the mind in regard to sin, involving a sense of personal guilt and a voluntary turning away from sin, is demanded of all who have by act or purpose become sinners against God. The Spirit of God gives to all who will repent the gracious help of penitence of heart and hope of mercy, that they may believe unto pardon and spiritual life.

IX. Justification, Regeneration, and Adoption

9. We believe that justification is the gracious and judicial act of God by which He grants full pardon of all guilt and complete release from the penalty of sins committed, and acceptance as righteous, to all who believe on Jesus Christ and receive Him as Lord and Savior.

10. We believe that regeneration, or the new birth, is that gracious work of God whereby the moral nature of the repentant believer is spiritually quickened and given a distinctively spiritual life, capable of faith, love, and obedience.

11. We believe that adoption is that gracious act of God by which the justified and regenerated believer is constituted a son of God.

12. We believe that justification, regeneration, and adoption are simultaneous in the experience of seekers after God and are obtained upon the condition of faith, preceded by repentance; and that in this work and state of grace the Holy Spirit bears witness.

X. Entire Sanctification

13. We believe that entire sanctification is that act of God, subsequent to regeneration, by which believers are made free from original sin, or depravity, and brought into a state of entire devotedness to God, and the holy obedience of love made perfect.

It is wrought by the baptism with the Holy Spirit, and comprehends in our experience the cleansing of the heart from sin and the abiding indwelling presence of the Holy Spirit, empowering the believer for life and service.

Entire sanctification is provided by the blood of Jesus, is wrought instantaneously by faith, preceded by entire consecration; and to this work and state of grace the Holy Spirit bears witness.

This experience is also known by various terms representing its different phases, such as "Christian perfection," "perfect love," "heart purity," "the baptism with the Holy Spirit," "the fullness of the blessing," and "Christian holiness."

14. We believe that there is a marked distinction between a pure heart and a mature character. The former is obtained in an instant, the result of entire sanctification; the latter is the result of growth in grace.

We believe that the grace of entire sanctification includes the impulse to grow in grace. However, this impulse must be consciously nurtured, and careful attention given to the requisites and processes of spiritual development and improvement in Christ-likeness of character and personality. Without such purposeful endeavor one's witness may be impaired and the grace itself frustrated and ultimately lost.

XI. Second Coming of Christ

15. We believe that the Lord Jesus Christ will come again; that we who are alive at His coming shall not precede them that are asleep in Christ Jesus; but that, if we are abiding in Him, we shall be caught up with the risen saints to meet the Lord in the air, so that we shall ever be with the Lord.

16. We believe in the resurrection of the dead, that the bodies both of the just and of the unjust shall be raised to life and united with their spirits—"they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of damnation."

17. We believe in future judgment in which every man shall appear before God to be judged according to his deeds in this life.

18. We believe that glorious and everlasting life is assured to all who savingly believe in, and obediently follow, Jesus Christ our Lord; and that the finally impenitent shall suffer eternally in hell.

XIII. Baptism

19. We believe that Christian baptism is a sacrament signifying acceptance of the benefits of the atonement of Jesus Christ, to be administered to believers as declarative of their faith in Jesus Christ as their Saviour, and full purpose of obedience in holiness and righteousness.

Baptism being the symbol of the New Testament, young children may be baptized, upon request of parents or guardians who shall give assurance for them of necessary Christian training.

Baptism may be administered by sprinkling, pouring, or immersion, according to the choice of the applicant.

XIV. The Lord's Supper

20. We believe that the Memorial and Communion Supper instituted by our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ is essentially a New Testament sacrament, declarative of His sacrificial death, through the merits of which believers have life and salvation and promise of all spiritual blessings in Christ. It is distinctively for those who are prepared for reverent appreciation of its significance and by it they show both the Lord's death till He come again. It being the Communion least, only those who have faith in Christ and love for the saints should be called to participate therein.

XV, Divine Healing

21. We believe in the Bible doctrine of divine healing and urge our people to seek to offer the prayer of faith for the healing of the sick. Providential means and agencies when deemed necessary should not be refused.

THE CHURCH

I. The General Church

22. The Church of God is composed of all spiritually regenerate persons, whose names are written in heaven.

II. The Churches Severally

23. The churches severally are to be composed of such regenerate persons as by providential permission, and by the leadings of the Holy Spirit, become associated together for holy fellowship and ministries.

III. The Church of The Nazarene

24. The Church of the Nazarene is composed of those persons who have voluntarily associated themselves together according to the doctrines and polity of said church, and who seek holy Christian fellowship, the conversion of sinners, the entire sanctification of believers, their upbuilding in holiness, and the simplicity and spiritual power manifest in the primitive New Testament Church, together with the preaching of the gospel to every creature.

IV. Agreed Statement of Belief

25. Recognizing that the right and privilege of persons to church membership rest upon the fact of their being regenerate, we would require only such avowal of belief as are essential to Christian experience. We, therefore, deem belief in the following brief statements to be sufficient. We believe:

25.1. In one God—the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

24.2. That the Old and New Testament Scriptures, given by plenary inspiration, contain all truth necessary to faith and Christian living.

24.3. That man is born with a fallen nature, and is, therefore, inclined to evil, and that continually.

24.4. That the finally impenitent are hopelessly and eternally lost.

24.5. That the atonement through Jesus Christ is for the whole human race; and that whosoever repents and believes on the Lord Jesus Christ is justified and regenerated and saved from the dominion of sin.

24.6. That believers are to be sanctified wholly, subsequent to regeneration, through faith in the Lord Jesus Christ.

24.7. That the Holy Spirit bears witness to the new birth, and also to the entire sanctification of believers.

24.8. That our Lord will return, the dead will be raised, and the final judgment will take place.

V. The General Rules

25. To be identified with the visible Church is the blessed privilege and sacred duty of all who are saved from their sins, and are seeking completeness in Christ Jesus. It is required of all who desire to unite with the Church of the Nazarene, and thus to walk in fellowship with us, that they shall show evidence of salvation from their sins by a godly walk and vital piety; and that they shall be, or earnestly desire to be, cleansed from all indwelling sin. They shall evidence their commitment to God—

FIRST. By doing that which is enjoined in the Word of God, which is our rule of both faith and practice, including:

(1) Loving God with all the heart, soul, mind and strength, and one's neighbor as oneself [Exodus 20:3-6; Leviticus 19:17-18; Deuteronomy 5:7-10; 6:4-5; Mark 12:28-31; Romans 12:8-10].

(2) Pressing upon the attention of the unsaved the claims of the gospel, inviting them to the house of the Lord, and trying to compass their salvation. [Matthew 28:19-20; Acts 1:8; Romans 1:14-16; 2 Corinthians 5:15-20].

(3) Being courteous to all men [Ephesians 4:32; Titus 2:2; 1 Peter 2:17; 1 John 3:16].

(4) Being helpful to those who are also of the faith, in love forbearing one another [Romans 12:13; Galatians 6:2, 10; Colossians 3:12-14].

(5) Seeking to do good to the bodies and souls of men; feeding the hungry, clothing the naked, visiting the sick and imprisoned, and ministering to the needy, as opportunity and ability are given [Matthew 25:31-36; 2 Corinthians 9:8-10; Galatians 2:10; James 2:15-16; 1 John 3:17-18].

(6) Contributing to the support of the ministry and the church and its work in tithes and offerings [Malachi 3:10; Luke 11:42; 1 Corinthians 9:14; 16:2; 1 Corinthians 9:6-10; Philippians 4:15-19].

(7) Attending faithfully all the ordinances of God, and the means of grace, including the public worship of God [Hebrews 10:25], the ministry of the Word [Acts 2:42], the sacrament of the Lord's Supper [1 Corinthians 11:23-30], searching the Scriptures and meditating thereon [Acts 17:11; 2

Timothy 2:15; 3:14-16]; family and private devotions [Deuteronomy 6:6-7; Matthew 6:6].

SECOND. By avoiding evil of every kind, including:

(1) Taking the name of God in vain [Exodus 20:7; Leviticus 19:12; James 5:12].

(2) Profaning of the Lord's day by participation in unnecessary secular activities, thereby indulging in practices which deny its sanctity [Exodus 20:8-11; Isaiah 58:13-14; Mark 2:27-28; Acts 20:7; Revelation 1:10].

(3) Sexual immorality, such as premarital or extramarital relations, perversion in any form, or looseness and impropriety of conduct [Exodus 20:14; Matthew 5:27-32; 1 Corinthians 6:9-11; Galatians 5:19; 1 Thessalonians 4:3-7].

(4) Habits or practices known to be destructive of physical and mental well-being. Christians are to regard themselves as temples of the Holy Spirit [Proverbs 20:1; 23:1-3; 1 Corinthians 6:17-20; 2 Corinthians 7:1; Ephesians 5:18].

(5) Quarreling, returning evil for evil, gossiping, slandering, spreading rumors injurious to the good names of others [2 Corinthians 12:20; Galatians 5:15; Ephesians 4:30-32; James 3:5-15; 1 Peter 3:9-10].

(6) Dishonesty, taking advantage in buying and selling, bearing false witness, and like works of darkness [Leviticus 19:10-11; Romans 13:17; 1 Corinthians 6:7-10].

(7) The indulging of pride in dress or behavior. Our people are to dress with the Christian simplicity and modesty that become holiness [Proverbs 29:33; 1 Timothy 2:8-10; James 4:8; 1 Peter 3:3-4; 1 John 2:15-17].

(8) Music, literature, and entertainments that dishonor God [1 Corinthians 10:31; 2 Corinthians 6:14-17; James 4:4].

THIRD. By abiding in hearty fellowship with the church, not inveighing against but wholly committed to its doctrines and usages and actively involved in its continuing witness and outreach [Ephesians 2:19-22; 4:1-3, 11-16; Philippians 2:1-8; 1 Peter 2:9-10].

ARTICLES OF ORGANIZATION AND GOVERNMENT

Article I. Form of Government

I. The Church of the Nazarene has a representative form of government.

27.1. We are agreed on the necessity of a superintendency which shall foster and care for churches already established, and whose duty it shall be to organize and encourage the organizing of churches everywhere.

27.2. We are agreed that authority given to superintendents shall not interfere with the independent action of a fully organized church. Each church shall enjoy the right to select its own pastor, subject to such approval as the General Assembly shall find wise to institute. Each church shall also elect delegates to the various assemblies, manage its own finances, and have charge of all other matters pertaining to its local life and work.

Article II. Local Churches

28. The membership of a local church shall consist of all who have been organized as a church by those authorized so to do and who have been publicly received by those having proper authority, after having declared their experience of salvation, their belief in our doctrines, and their willingness to submit to our government. [100-107]

Article III. District Assemblies

29. The General Assembly shall organize the membership of the church into District Assemblies, giving each lay and ministerial representation therein as the General Assembly may deem fair and just, and shall determine qualifications of such representatives, provided, however, that all elders in good standing shall be members thereof. The General Assembly shall also fix the boundaries of Assembly Districts, and define the powers and duties of District Assemblies. [200-201]

Article IV. The General Assembly

201. How Composed. The General Assembly shall be composed of ministerial and lay delegates in equal numbers, elected thereto by District Assemblies of the Church of the Nazarene; such ex officio members as the General Assembly shall from time to time direct, and such delegates of districts under the administration of the Departments of World Mission and Church Extension of the Church of the Nazarene as may be provided for by the General Assembly.

202. Election of Delegates. At a District Assembly within 18 months of the meeting of the General Assembly an equal number of ministerial and lay delegates to the General Assembly shall be chosen as may be provided by the General Assembly, and provided that the ministerial delegates shall be elders of the Church of the Nazarene. Each assembly district shall be entitled to at least one ministerial and one lay delegate, and such additional delegates as its membership may warrant on the basis of representation fixed by the General Assembly. Each assembly district shall elect alternate delegates not exceeding the number of its delegates. [202,29, 301-1.1]

203. Credentials. The secretary of each District Assembly shall furnish certificates of election to the delegates and alternates severally elected to the General Assembly, and shall also send certificates of such elections to the general secretary of the Church of the Nazarene immediately following the adjournment of the District Assembly.

30.4. Quorum. When the General Assembly is in session, a majority of the whole number of delegates elected thereto shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. If a quorum has once been had, a smaller number may approve the minutes then remaining unapproved, and adjourn.

30.5. General Superintendents. The General Assembly shall elect by ballot from among the elders of the Church of the Nazarene as many general superintendents as it may deem necessary, who shall constitute the Board of General Superintendents. Any vacancy in the office of general superintendent in the interim of General Assemblies shall be filled by a two-thirds vote of all the district superintendents of the Church of the Nazarene. [305.1]

30.6. Presiding Officers. A general superintendent appointed thereto by the Board of General Superintendents shall preside over the daily meetings of the General Assembly. But if no general superintendent be so appointed or be present, the General Assembly shall elect one of its members as temporary presiding officer. [300.1]

30.7. Rules of Order. The General Assembly shall adopt Rules of Order governing its manner of organization, procedure, committees, and all other matters pertaining to the orderly conduct of its business. It shall be the judge of the election and qualifications of its own members. [300.2]

30.8. General Court of Appeals. The General Assembly shall elect from among members of the Church of the Nazarene a General Court of Appeals and shall define its jurisdiction and powers. [305.8]

30.9. Powers and Restrictions.

(1) The General Assembly shall have power to legislate for the Church of the Nazarene, and to make rules and regulations for all the departments related to or associated with it in any respect, but not in conflict with this Constitution. [1904, 309-311]

(2) No local church shall be deprived of the right to call its pastor, subject to such approval as the General Assembly shall find wise to institute. [112]

(3) All local churches, officers, ministers, and laymen shall always have the right to a fair and orderly trial and the right to make an appeal.

AMENDMENTS

11. The provisions of this Constitution may be repealed or amended when concurred in by a two-thirds vote of all the members of the General Assembly, and when concurred in by not less than two-thirds of all the Regular and Mission District Assemblies of the Church of the Nazarene. Either the General Assembly or any Regular or Mission District Assembly may take the initiative in the matter of proposing such alterations or amendments. As soon as such alterations or amendments shall have been adopted as herein provided, the result of the vote shall be announced by the Board of General Superintendents, whenever such alterations or amendments shall have full force and effect.

PART III

Special Rules

THE CHRISTIAN LIFE

MARRIAGE AND DIVORCE AND/OR DISSOLUTION OF MARRIAGE

CHRISTIAN STEWARDSHIP

CHURCH OFFICERS

AMENDING SPECIAL RULES

A. THE CHRISTIAN LIFE

12. The church joyfully proclaims the good news that we may be delivered from all sin to a new life in Christ. By the grace of God we Christians are to "put off the old"—(the old patterns of conduct as well as the old carnal mind)—and are to "put on the new"—a new and holy way of life as well as the mind of Christ (Ephesians 4:17-24).

12.1. The Church of the Nazarene purports to relate timeless biblical principles to contemporary society in such a way that the doctrines and rules of the church may be known and understood in many lands and within a variety of cultures. We hold that the Ten Commandments, as reaffirmed in the New Testament, constitute the basic Christian ethic and ought to be obeyed in all particulars.

12.2. It is further recognized that there is validity in the concept of the collective Christian conscience as illuminated and guided by the Holy Spirit. The Church of the Nazarene, as an international expression of the body of Christ, acknowledges its responsibility to seek ways to particularize the Christian life so as to lead to a holiness ethic. The historic ethical standards of the church are expressed in part in the following items. They should be followed carefully and conscientiously as guides and helps to holy living. Those who violate the conscience of the church do so at their own peril and to the hurt of the witness of the church. Culturally conditioned adaptations shall be referred to and approved by the Board of General Superintendents.

12.3. In listing practices to be avoided we recognize that no catalog, however inclusive, can hope to encompass all forms of evil throughout the world. Therefore it is imperative that our people earnestly seek the aid of the Spirit in cultivating a sensitivity to evil which transcends the mere letter of the law; remembering the admonition; "Prove all things; hold fast that which is good. Abstain from all appearance of evil" (1 Thessalonians 5:21-22).

12.4. Our leaders and pastors are expected to give strong emphasis in our periodicals and from our pulpits to such fundamental biblical truths as will develop the faculty of discrimination between the evil and the good.

12.5. Education is of the utmost importance for the social and spiritual well-being of society. Public schools have a mandate to educate all. They are limited, however, as to their scope and, in fact, are prohibited by court rulings from teaching the basic tenets of Christianity. Nazarene educational organizations and institutions, such as Sunday schools, day schools, colleges, and seminary, are expected to teach children, youth, and adults biblical principles and ethical standards in such a way that our doctrines may be known. This practice may be instead of or in addition to public schools, which often teach secular humanism and fall short of teaching principles of holy living. The education from public sources should be complemented by holiness teaching in the home. Christians should also be encouraged to work in and with public institutions to witness to and influence these institutions for God's kingdom. (Matthew 5:13-14)

12. We hold specifically that the following practices should be avoided:

12.1. Entertainments which are subversive of the Christian ethic. Our people should govern themselves by three principles. One is the Christian stewardship of leisure time. A second principle is the recognition of the Christian obligation to apply the highest moral standards to the Christian family. Because we are living in a day of great moral confusion in which we face the potential encroachment of the evils of the day into the sacred precincts of our homes through various avenues such as current literature, radio, and television, it is essential that the most rigid safeguards be observed. The third principle is the obligation to witness against social evils by appropriate forms of influence, and by the refusal to patronize and thereby lend influence to the industries which are known to be the purveyors of this kind of entertainment. This would include the avoidance of the motion picture theater (cinema). We should also avoid such other commercial ventures including television programs which feature the violent, the sensual, and the pornographic and thus undermine God's standard of holiness of heart and life. [304.2] Romans 14:7-13; 1 Corinthians 10:31-33; Ephesians 5:1-18; Philippians 4:8-9; 1 Peter 1:13-17

33.2. Lotteries and other forms of gambling, whether legal or illegal. The church holds that the final result of these practices is detrimental both to the individual and society. Matthew 6:24-34; 2 Thessalonians 2:8-13; 1 Timothy 6:6-11; Hebrews 13:5-6; 1 John 2:15-17

33.3. Membership in oath-bound secret orders or societies. The quasi-religious nature of such organizations dilutes the Christian's commitment and their secrecy contravenes the Christian's open witness. 1 Corinthians 1:26-31; 2 Corinthians 6:14-7:1; Ephesians 5:11-14; James 4:4; 1 John 2:15-17

23.4. All forms of social dancing. We hold that such practices tend to break down proper inhibitions and reserve between the sexes. Matthew 23:34-39; Romans 12:1-2; 1 Corinthians 10:31-33; Philippians 1:9-11; Colossians 3:1-17

23.5. The use of intoxicating liquors as a beverage, or trafficking therein; giving influence to, or voting for, the licensing of places for the sale of the same; using illicit drugs or trafficking therein; using of tobacco in any of its forms, or trafficking therein. [204.4]

The Holy Scriptures and human experience together justify the condemnation of the use of intoxicating drinks as a beverage. The manufacture and sale of liquors for such purposes is a sin against God and the human race. Total abstinence from all intoxicants should be the Christian rule for the individual, and total prohibition of the traffic in intoxicants the duty of civil government. Proverbs 20:1; 23:29-34:2; Habakkuk 2:6; 1 Corinthians 6:9-12; 10-20; Galatians 5:21; Ephesians 5:18

[Only unfermented wine and unleavened bread* should be used in the sacrament of the Lord's Supper.] [115, 10, 403.6, 404, 502]

23.6. The unprescribed use of hallucinogenics, stimulants, and depressants, and the misuse and abuse of regularly prescribed medicines. Only on competent medical advice and under medical supervision should such drugs be used. Matthew 23:23-30; 27:34; 1 Corinthians 6:13-20; 9:24-27; Romans 12:1-2

*It would seem that this may cause special practical difficulties, a District Assembly may request the Board of General Superintendence for permission to use unleavened bread.

B. MARRIAGE AND DIVORCE AND/OR DISSOLUTION OF MARRIAGE

(The meaning of divorce in this rule shall include "dissolution of marriage" when it is used as a legal substitute for divorce.)

34. The Christian family, knit together in a common bond through Jesus Christ, is a circle of love, fellowship, and worship to be earnestly cultivated in a society in which family ties are easily dissolved. We urge upon the ministry and congregations of our church such teachings and practices as will strengthen and develop family ties.

The institution of marriage was ordained of God in the time of man's innocency, and is, according to apostolic authority, "honourable in all"; it is the mutual union of one man and one woman for fellowship, helpfulness, and the propagation of the race. Our people should cherish this sacred estate as becomes Christians, and should enter it only after earnest prayer for divine direction, and when assured that the contemplated union is in accordance with scriptural requirements. They should seek earnestly the blessings which God has ordained in connection with the wedded state, namely, help, companionship, parenthood, and mutual love—the elements of home building. The marriage covenant is morally binding as long as both shall live, and therefore, may not be dissolved at will. Genesis 1:26-28, 31; 2:21-24; Malachi 2:13-16; Matthew 19:3-9; John 2:1-11; Ephesians 5:21-6:4; 1 Thessalonians 4:3-5; Hebrews 13:4

34.1. Ministers of the Church of the Nazarene are instructed to give due care to matters relating to solemnizing marriages. They shall seek, in every manner possible, to convey to their congregations the sacredness of Christian marriage. They shall provide premarital counseling in every instance possible before performing a marriage ceremony. They shall only solemnize marriages of persons having the scriptural right to marry. [107-7.1, 402.5]

34.2. Members of the Church of the Nazarene are to seek prayerfully a redemptive course of action when involved in marital unhappiness, in full harmony with their vows and the clear teachings of the Scriptures, their aim being to save the home and safeguard the good name of both Christ and His Church. Couples having serious marital problems are urged to seek counsel and guidance of their pastor. Failure to comply with this procedure in good faith and with sincere endeavor to seek a Christian solution, and subsequent obtaining of an unscriptural divorce and remarriage, makes one or both parties subject to discipline as prescribed in 501.

34.3. Though there may exist such other causes and conditions as may justify a divorce under the civil law, only adultery is a scriptural ground for divorce and only adultery will supply such ground as may justify the innocent party in remarrying. (Matthew 5:31-32, 19:3-9)

34.4. Through ignorance, sin, and human frailties, many in our society fall short of the divine ideal. We believe that Christ can redeem these persons even as He did the woman at Samaria's well. Where the scriptural ground for divorce did not exist and remarriage followed, the marriage partners, upon genuine repentance for their sin, are enjoined to seek the forgiving grace of God and His redemptive help in their marriage relation. Such persons may be received into the membership of the church at such time as they have given evidence of their regeneration and an awareness of their understanding of the sanctity of Christian marriage. [25.4. 107.1]

C. ABORTION

35. We believe induced abortion to be permissible only on the basis of sound medical reasons affecting the life of the fetus and that of the mother. We oppose induced abortion for personal convenience or population control. We also oppose liberalizing of the laws which allow induced abortion on demand. There may be pregnancies that require deliberate termination by therapeutic abortion, but such a decision should be made only on the basis of adequate medical and spiritual counseling. Exodus 20:13; Job 31:15; Psalm 129:3-10; Isaiah 49:5; Luke 1:31, 41-44; Romans 12:1-2

D. HOMOSEXUALITY

36. We recognize the depth of the perversion that leads to homosexual acts, but affirm the biblical position that such acts are sinful and subject to the wrath of God. We believe the grace of God sufficient to overcome the practice of homosexuality (1 Corinthians 6:9-11). We deplore any action or statement that would seem to imply compatibility between Christian morality and the practice of homosexuality. We urge clear preaching and teaching concerning Bible standards of sex morality. Genesis 1:27; 19:1-25; Leviticus 20:13; Romans 1:26-27; 1 Corinthians 6:9-11; 1 Timothy 1:8-10

E. CHRISTIAN STEWARDSHIP

II. Meaning of Stewardship. The Scriptures teach that God is the Owner of all persons and all things, that men are His stewards of both life and possessions, that God's ownership and man's stewardship ought to be acknowledged, and that men shall be held personally accountable to God for the exercise of their stewardship. God, as a God of system and order in all of His ways, has established a system of giving which acknowledges His ownership and man's stewardship. To this end all His children should faithfully tithes and present offerings for the support of the gospel. [147, 363] Malachi 3:8-12; Matthew 6:24-34; 23:21-26; Mark 10:17-31; Luke 12:13-24; 19:11-27; John 15:1-17; Romans 12:1-13; 1 Corinthians 9:7-14; 2 Corinthians 8:1-15; 9:8-15; 1 Timothy 4:6-19; Hebrews 7:8; James 1:27; 1 John 3:16-18.

II.1. Storehouse Tithing. Storehouse tithing is a scriptural and practical performance of faithfully and regularly placing the tithes into that church to which the member belongs. Therefore, the financing of the church shall be based on the plan of storehouse tithing, and the local Church of the Nazarene shall be regarded by all of its people as the storehouse. All who are a part of the Church of the Nazarene are urged to contribute faithfully one-tenth of all their increase as a minimum financial obligation to the Lord and freewill offerings in addition as God has prospered them for the support of the whole church, local, district, regional, and general.

II.2. Fund Raising and Distribution. In the light of the scriptural teaching concerning the giving of tithes and offerings for the support of the gospel, and for the erection of church buildings, no Nazarene church should engage in any method of fund raising which would detract from these principles, hinder the gospel message, sully the name of the church, discriminate against the poor, or misdirect the people's energies from promoting the gospel.

In disbursing to meet the requirements of the local, district, regional, and general programs of the Church of the Nazarene, local churches are urged to adopt and practice the budget plan, and to pay general, regional, and district apportionments monthly. [115-20, 171, 173-74]

37.3 Support of the Ministry. "Even so hath the Lord ordained that they which preach the gospel should live of the gospel" (1 Corinthians 9:14). The church is obligated to support its ministers, who have been called of God, and who, under the direction of the church, have given themselves wholly to the work of the ministry. We urge therefore that the members of the church voluntarily commit themselves to the task of supporting the ministry by gathering money weekly for this holy business and that the pastor's salary be paid regularly every week. [128]

37.4. Life Income Gifts and Bequests. It is essential in the exercise of Christian stewardship that careful thought be given as to what shall be done with the residue of one's income and possessions over which the Lord makes the Christian a steward during his life. Civil laws often do not provide for the distribution of an estate in such a way as to glorify God. Each Christian should give attention to the preparation of his last will and testament in a careful and legal manner, and the Church of the Nazarene through its various ministries of missions, evangeli-tion, education, and benevolence—local, district, regional, and general—is recommended for consideration. [14.8-14.9]

F. CHURCH OFFICERS

18. We direct our local churches to elect as church officers only persons who are clearly in the experience of entire sanctification; who are in full sympathy with the doctrines, polity, and practices of the Church of the Nazarene; and who support the local church faithfully with tithes and offerings. [112.10, 194, 195.]

G. AMENDING SPECIAL RULES

19. The provisions of these Special Rules may be repealed or amended when concurred in by a two-thirds vote of all the members of a given General Assembly.

PART IV

Government

THE LOCAL CHURCH

THE DISTRICT ASSEMBLY

THE REGION

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

PREAMBLE TO GOVERNMENT

All life must have law; all organization must have government. He who is Head over all things unto the Church Himself gave form and order unto His body of followers and representatives. We seek as a church to conform to principles of government in accord with the Holy Scriptures and divine providences, that all things may be done scripturally, decently, and in order.

The government of the Church of the Nazarene is representative, and thus avoids the extremes of episcopacy on the one hand, and unlimited congregationalism on the other.

CHAPTER I

THE LOCAL CHURCH

A. Organization, Name, Incorporation, Property, Restrictions, Mergers, Disorganization

100. Organization. Local churches may be organized by the district superintendent, or by the general superintendent having jurisdiction, or by an elder authorized by either of them. Official reports of new churches shall be filed in the Department of Church Extension. [28, 208.1, 310, 354, 404.11]

101. Name. The name of a newly organized church shall be determined by the local church in consultation with the district superintendent and with the approval of the District Advisory Board.

101.1. Change of Name. A local Church of the Nazarene may change its name by a majority ballot vote in an annual or special meeting of the church membership. Processes for the change shall be: (a) The local church board submits the proposed change to the district superintendent, who shall obtain the written approval of the District Advisory Board; (b) the local church votes; (c) The District Advisory Board reports the change to the District Assembly, and the District Assembly votes approval of the same.

102. Incorporation. In all places where the statutes will permit, the trustees shall have the local church incorporated and the said trustees and their successors shall be the trustees of the said corporation. Where not inconsistent with civil law, the articles of incorporation shall set forth the powers of the corporation and provide that the corporation shall be subject to the government of the Church of the Nazarene, as from time to time authorized and declared in its Manual by the General Assembly of said church. All the property of this corporation shall be managed and controlled by the trustees subject to the approval of the local church.

102.1. Where property is purchased and developed by the District Advisory Board for a local church or where a new church is formed, upon the repayment of the money invested by the District Advisory Board by the local church, it is deemed advisable that the District Advisory Board transfer the title to the local church. [208.3, 204.3]

102.2. When a local church is incorporated, all property acquired shall be deeded directly to the church in its corporate name when it is possible to do so.

102.3. The pastor and the secretary of the church board shall be the president and secretary of the church, incorporated or not incorporated, and shall execute and sign all conveyances of real estate, mortgages, releases of mortgage, contracts, and other legal documents of the church not otherwise provided for in the Manual and subject to the restrictions set forth in 101-4.2.

102.4. The Articles of Incorporation of each local church shall include the following provisions:

1. The corporate name shall include the words "Church of the Nazarene."

2. The bylaws of the corporation shall be the Manual of the Church of the Nazarene.

3. The Articles of Incorporation shall not contain any provision which might prevent the local church from qualifying for any tax exemption available to churches in the same area.

4. Upon dissolution, the assets of the corporation shall be distributed to the District Advisory Board.

The Articles of Incorporation may contain additional provisions when appropriate under local law. No provision, however, shall be included which can cause the property of the local church to be diverted from the Church of the Nazarene. [101-1.1, 104.2, 106-6.2]

103. Property. The local church contemplating the purchase of real estate, or the erection of a church building or parsonage, or a major remodeling of either, shall submit the proposition to the district superintendent and the District Board of Church Properties for their consideration, advice, and approval. No indebtedness, whether involving a mortgage or not, shall be incurred in the purchase of real estate or the erection of buildings or a major remodeling of either, without the written approval of the district superintendent and the written approval of the District Board of Church Properties.

103.1. In case agreement cannot be reached between the church board and the district superintendent and the Board of Church Properties, the issue may be submitted to the general superintendent having jurisdiction for his decision. Either the church or the district superintendent may appeal such decision to the Board of General Superintendents for a final decision.

104. Restrictions. The local church may not purchase real estate, nor sell, mortgage, exchange, or otherwise dispose of real estate except by majority vote of the members present at an annual meeting, or at a special meeting duly called for that purpose, and except upon the written approval of the district superintendent, and the written approval of the District Board of Church Properties. [112.6, 112.12]

104.1. The real estate of the local church shall not be mortgaged to meet current expenses.

104.2. Trustees and/or a local church may not divert property from the use of the Church of the Nazarene. [112-12.1]

104.3. Withdrawal of Churches. No local church may withdraw as a body from the Church of the Nazarene, or in any way sever its relation thereto, except by provision of the General Assembly, and upon agreed conditions and plans.

105. Mergers. Two or more local churches may be merged upon two-thirds favorable vote by ballot of the members of the churches present and voting at specially called meetings of the churches involved, provided: The merger shall be recommended by a majority vote by ballot of all the members of the respec-five church boards and provided the merger shall have been approved in writing by the district superintendent, the District Advisory Board, and the general superintendent in jurisdiction. Upon the notification by the district superintendent, the general secretary of the Church of the Nazarene is authorized to remove the names of the inactive churches from the roll of churches.

The merger shall be finalized in a special meeting of the new congregation for the purpose of electing officers and making pastoral arrangements. The district superintendent, or an elder appointed by him, shall preside.

The organization thus created shall combine the total membership of the former churches, the membership of all departments of those churches, and the assets and liabilities of those churches, including budget allocations.

106. Disorganization of Churches: A local church may be disorganized by action and formal pronouncement of the Board of General Superintendents. Such action shall be taken only after (a) the district superintendent has consulted with the general superintendent in jurisdiction concerning the possibility of discontinuing a local church organization; and (b) on recommendation of the district superintendent and the District Advisory Board.

106.1. In case a local church becomes disorganized, any church property which may exist may in no way be diverted to other purposes, but title shall pass to the District Advisory Board acting as agent for said district where such has been incorporated, or other authorized agents, for the use of the Church of the Nazarene at large, as the District Assembly shall direct; and trustees holding property for the disorganized church shall sell or dispose of the same only on the order and under the direction of the District Advisory Board or other appointed agent of the District Assembly, with the written approval of the general superintendent in jurisdiction; either conveying said property or delivering the proceeds from the sale thereof as directed by the District Assembly or its District Advisory Board.

104.2. No trustee or trustees of a disorganized church may divert property from the use of the Church of the Nazarene. [148-52]

104.3. Only those churches officially disorganized may be dropped from the records of the General Secretary.

B. Membership

107. Full Membership. All persons who have been organized into a local church by those authorized so to do, and all who have been publicly received by the pastor, the district superintendent, or the general superintendent, after having declared their experience of salvation, and their belief in the doctrines of the Church of the Nazarene, and their willingness to submit to its government, shall compose the full membership of the local church; however, only church members who have reached their fifteenth birthday shall be entitled to vote in annual or special church meetings. [28, 34.4, 107, 110, 112.1, 115.2, 119, 350, 403.7, 404.8]

107.1. When persons desire to unite with the church, the pastor shall explain to them the privileges and responsibilities of membership in the church, the Articles of Faith, and the requirements of the General and Special Rules, and the purpose and mission of the Church of the Nazarene. Specific indoctrination and orientation shall be provided to qualify candidates for meaningful church membership.

After consulting with the evangelism and church membership committee, the minister shall receive acceptable candidates into the membership of the church in a public service, using the approved form for the reception of members (801). [20, 32-38, 109-9.4, 225]

107.2. Members of missions, where the organization of a local church has not been effected, shall not be counted as church members nor reported as church members; however, members of a mission may, when duly received according to 107 and 107.1, hold church membership in some regularly organized local church in which they shall be counted as church members. But the members of missions shall not be reported in the annual statistics as church members. [115.12]

108. Probationary Membership. Where a district makes provision (203.34), a local church may have probationers who shall have all the privileges of church members, with the exception of voting and holding church office. [203.30]

108.1. Probationers may be received into full membership or dropped at any time, at the discretion of the pastor and evangelism and church membership committee.

C. Evangelism and Church Membership Committee

109. The church board shall provide an evangelism and church membership committee of not fewer than three persons acting in an advisory capacity to the pastor who shall be the chairman. Its duties shall be:

109.1. To promote evangelism in the local church and seek to conserve the fruits of evangelism. [101, 105-7.1, 136.24]

109.2. To study and recommend to the church board and departments ways to emphasize evangelism in the whole life of the church.

109.3. To serve as the local committee to implement the denominational programs, both general and district, of evangelism.

109.4. To urge new converts to qualify for church membership by a consistent devotional life, a study of the Bible and the Manual, individually or in a pastor's membership class, remembering that members received by profession of faith help to conserve the fruits of evangelism. [25-26, 34-4]

109.5. To endeavor to bring new members into vital fellowship and service of the church.

109.6. To work with the pastor in developing a continuing program of spiritual guidance for new members.

109.7. To recommend to the church board, upon nomination by the pastor, the evangelists for local campaigns. It is recommended that at least one campaign each year be conducted by a commissioned or recruited evangelist.

109.8. No person shall be received into full membership of the local church until the pastor first consults with the evangelism and church membership committee concerning that person's reception. [107-1]

D. Change of Membership

110. Transfer. The pastor, when requested by a member, may grant a transfer of church membership

[see form in 811.4] to any local church of the Church of the Nazarene that may be named, such transfer to be valid for three months only. When the reception of the transfer is acknowledged by the receiving local church, such person's membership in the former local church shall cease. [111, 813.5]

110.1. Commencement. The pastor, when requested by a member, may grant a certificate of commencement [see form in 813.2] to any evangelical church that may be named, after which such person's membership in the local church issuing the certificate shall cease immediately. [111]

E. Termination of Membership

111. Change of Residence. A member of a local church, when changing his place of residence, is required to report to his pastor at least once in six months. Should he fail to do so, his name may be removed from the church roll by action of the church board. A 120-day waiting period of prayer and supplication shall follow the initial action, after which the pastor shall write opposite his name, "Removed without letter." [121]

112. Persistent Absence. When a member of a church has been absent from all religious services of the church for six successive months without a reason deemed justifiable by the church board, and he has been visited and dealt with faithfully, the member's name may be removed from the church roll by action of the church board. A 120-day waiting period of prayer and supplication shall follow the initial action. After such action of the church board, the pastor shall write opposite the member's name, "Removed by the church board." [122.1]

111.2. When a licensed or an ordained minister has united with the church membership or ministry of another denomination, his membership in the local church shall, because of that fact, immediately cease, and there shall be written opposite his name, "Removed by uniting with another denomination." [403.2, 404.8]

111.3. When a member of a local church has accepted license to preach or ordination from any other religious organization, or is engaging in independent church or missionary work, his membership in the local church shall, because of that fact, immediately cease except in case that person shall secure the annual written approval of the local church board of the church in which he holds his membership and the annual written approval of the District Advisory Board of the district in which that church is located.

111.4. Release from Membership. The pastor, when requested by a member, may grant a letter of release [see form in 811.3], thus terminating such person's membership immediately. [111]

111.5. A church board may not remove more than 10 percent of the membership of the local church in any one assembly year without the written approval of the District Advisory Board and the district superintendent. The names of those to be removed and the reason for their removal shall be presented in writing to the Advisory Board by the local church secretary.

F. Church Meetings

112. A meeting of the members of a local church for conference and for the transaction of business shall be known as a church meeting. [104, 112.6, 117, 121, 130-31, 143]

112.1. Only those persons who have been received into full membership and have reached their thirtieth birthday shall be entitled to vote in church meetings. [107]

112.2. Business Transactions. Business, including elections, in harmony with the spirit and order of the church, and not otherwise specially provided for, may be transacted at any church meeting.

112.3. Comply with Civil Law. In all cases where the civil law requires a specific course of procedure in calling and conducting church meetings, that course should be strictly followed. [149]

112.4. Presiding Officer. The pastor, who shall be ex officio president of the local church, or the district superintendent, or the general superintendent having jurisdiction, or someone appointed by the district superintendent or the general superintendent, shall preside at annual or special church meetings. [116, 210.1, 310.1]

112.5. Secretary. The secretary of the church board shall be the secretary of all church meetings; in his absence a secretary pro tempore shall be elected. [141.4]

112.6. Annual Meeting. An annual church meeting shall be held within 60 days prior to the meeting of the District Assembly, public notice of the same always being given from the pulpit at least two Sundays preceding.

In cases where the District Assembly will convene so that the 60-day period is during the vacation season, the local church may, upon recommendation of the local church board and with the written ap-approval of the district superintendent, hold its annual meeting within 90 days prior to the meeting of the District Assembly.

112.7. Reports. Reports shall be given at the annual church meeting by the pastor [115.14], the chairman of the Board of Christian Life and Sunday School [156.5], the president of the Nazarene Youth International [171.3], the president of the Nazarene World Mission Society [172.2], the deacons [415], the local preachers [402], the stewards [145], the trustees [151], the Board of Christian Life and Sunday School [156.5], the secretary [141.2], and the treasurer [142.3] of the church board.

112.8. Elections. At the annual church meeting there shall be an election, by ballot, of the stewards [145], the trustees [148, 148.1], the chairman of the Board of Christian Life and Sunday School [156.5], and the members of the Board of Christian Life and Sunday School [156], to serve for the next church year and until their successors are elected and qualified. [38]

112.9. Where laws permit, and in churches where such procedure is approved by a majority vote of the church members present at a duly called or annual meeting, a specific number of church members may be elected by ballot, primarily as members of the church board, it being understood that a designated proportion of these shall thereby be elected as trustees, and a further designated proportion as stewards in harmony with 143 and 148. The number to be elected shall be at least 8 and shall not exceed 22. The number to be decided by majority vote in the church meeting. When a church board is elected in this manner, the board shall organize itself into committees to carry out assigned responsibilities.

112.10. A nominating committee may be used, if desired, in the election process of officers, boards, and District Assembly delegates. This committee may be constituted by whatever method the church board shall propose. The pastor shall serve as chairman. [38]

112.11. At the annual church meeting, there shall be an election, by ballot, of lay delegates to the District Assembly, on the basis of representation fixed by the General Assembly according to 20-1.1.

112.12. Special church meetings may be called at any time by the pastor; or by the church board after having obtained the consent of the pastor, or of the district superintendent or of the general superintendent having jurisdiction. [104]

112.13. Public notice of special church meetings shall always be given from the pulpit in at least two preceding regular services, or in such manner as meets the requirements of civil law, [127, 130-31, 143, 145, 149.1-52]

G. The Church Year

113. The administrative year shall begin on the Monday immediately following the final adjournment of the District Assembly of the assembly district in which the local church is situated, and shall close at twelve o'clock midnight on the Sunday immediately following the final adjournment of the District Assembly.

113.1. The statistical year shall close within 60 days prior to the opening of the District Assembly; and the new statistical year shall begin the day following its close. The exact date of the beginning and close of the statistical year within these boards shall be set by the District Advisory Board. [22.1]

II. The Pastor

114. A pastor is an elder or a licensed minister [122] who, under the call of God and His people, has the oversight of a local church. [28, 210]

115. The duties of a pastor are:

115.1. To preach the Word, [403.5, 404]

115.2. To receive persons as members of the local church according to 107 and 107.1.

115.3. To administer the sacraments in harmony with 403.6 and 404.

115.8. To have the care of all departments of local church work.

115.9. To appoint the teachers of the Sunday school in harmony with 102.3.

115.10. To administer the sacrament of the Lord's Supper at least once a quarter. A licensed minister who has not complied fully with provisions of 403.6 (see also 822), shall arrange for the administration of the sacrament by an elder. [23.5, 144.2]

115.11. To read to the congregation the Constitution of the Church of the Nazarene and the Special Rules contained in 1-26, 27-28, both inclusive, within each church year [113] or have this section of the Manual printed and distributed annually to the members of the church.

115.12. To supervise the preparation of all statistical reports from all departments of the local church, and present promptly all such reports through the district secretary to the District Assembly. [107.2, 113.1, 165]

115.19. To notify the pastor of the nearest church when a member or friend of a local church or any of its departments moves to another locality in the same assembly district where vital association with the previous local church is impractical, giving the member's or friend's address. If the move is to a locality beyond the assembly district, the pastor shall immediately inform the Moving Nazarene Services of the Department of Evangelism, giving the name and new address.

115.20. To arrange, together with the church board, according to plans adopted by the General Assembly and agreed to by the District Assembly, for the raising of the apportionment of the General Budget funds, and the apportionment of the District Budget funds, made to the local church; and to raise these apportionments. [87.2, 137, 173]

115.21. The pastor may, when requested by a member, grant a transfer of church membership [813.4], a certificate of commendation [813.3], or a letter of release [100-10.1, 111.4, 813.3].

115.22. The pastor shall be, ex officio, president of the local church, chairman of the church board, head of the church schools and any weekday Nazarene school organization, the Nazarene Youth International, the Nazarene World Mission Society, and all other subsidiary organizations in connection with the local church. [134, 162, 170, 171.2, 172.1]

116. The pastor shall have the right to a voice in the nomination of all heads of all departments of the local church, and any Nazarene weekday school organization. [157.4-57.10]

117. The pastor shall not contract bills, create financial obligations, count monies, or disburse funds for the local church unless authorized and directed by majority vote of the church board or by majority vote of a church meeting; such action, if taken, must be approved in writing by the District Advisory Board and shall be duly recorded in the minutes of the church board or of the church meeting. [126.1, 126.21-26.22]

118. The pastor shall always show due regard for the united advice of the district superintendent and the District Advisory Board [208, 221.2, 403.9, 404.10]

119. In case a licensed or ordained minister presenting credentials from another denomination shall, during the interim of sessions of the District Assembly, make application for membership in a local church, the pastor may not receive such applicant without first having obtained the favorable recommendation of the District Advisory Board. [207, 118, 220]

120. For the exercise of this office the pastor shall be amenable to the District Assembly, to which he shall report annually and give brief testimony to his personal Christian experience. [203.1, 403.6]

121. The pastor shall automatically become a member of the church of which he is pastor; or, in case of more than one church on his charge, of the church of his choice. [404.5]

I. Calling of a Pastor

122. An elder or licensed minister [114] may be called to the pastorate of a church by two-thirds favorable vote by ballot of the church members of voting age present and voting at a duly called annual or special meeting of the church, provided that such elder or licensed minister shall have been nominated to the church by the church board, which, after having advised with the district superintendent, made such nomination by majority vote by ballot of all its members; and provided the nomination shall have been approved by the district superintendent. This call shall be subject to review and continuance as hereinafter provided. The initial term of service for a pastor who is an elder shall be for a period of two years. A licensed minister shall serve for one year. [208.9, 125, 130.2, 136.2, 206.7, 208.6]

123. The pastor of a church which has been organized for less than five years, or has less than 30 voting members, or is receiving regular financial assistance from the district, may be appointed by the district superintendent with the consent of the general superintendent having jurisdiction and the District Advisory Board. [208.1, 208.3]

123.1. In such a church a pastoral vacancy in the interim between District Assemblies shall be filled by appointment by the district superintendent.

124. In case of disagreement between the church board and the district superintendent, the church board or the district superintendent may submit the matter to the general superintendent having jurisdiction for his decision. From such decision either the church board or the district superintendent may appeal to the Board of General Superintendents.

125. When a pastor who is a licensed minister accepts the call to a local church after the beginning of the church year [113], his ministry shall be for a term including the next church year, and the call may be renewed as hereinafter provided, except that in case his license should not be renewed by the next District Assembly, his pastorate shall terminate at the final adjournment of the assembly.

125.1. When a pastor who is an elder accepts the call to a local church after the beginning of the church year [113], his ministry shall be for a term of the next two church years, and the call may be renewed or extended as hereinafter provided.

125. In case a church has not called a pastor prior to the convening of the District Assembly, the general superintendent presiding at the District Assembly, the district superintendent, and the District Advisory Board, in concurrence with the delegates from the church, shall make pastoral arrangements. [222-3, 308.1]

127. Acceptance of a call to pastoral relations shall be given by the minister not later than 30 days from the date of the church meeting voting the call.

128. When a pastor is called, the local church should specify the expected remuneration. The amount of this remuneration may be determined by the church board, or by vote of the church membership upon the recommendation of the church board. When agreement has been entered into between the church or the church board and the pastor, the payment of the pastor's salary in full shall be considered a moral obligation by the church. If, however, the church becomes unable to continue the payment of the salary agreed upon, such inability and failure shall not be considered a sufficient cause for civil action against the church by the pastor, and in no case shall the church be legally responsible in excess of funds raised during the term of the pastor's actual service, and not otherwise designated.

The local church should also make provision for his traveling and moving expenses. [12, 136.7-36.8]

128.1. The remuneration of the pastor shall commence on the Monday preceding his first official Sunday of service to the local church.

129. No pastor shall terminate the pastorate of a church without giving the church board and the district superintendent written resignation at least 30 days before the termination of his pastorate, and without having this resignation accepted by the church board and approved in writing by the district superintendent. When the resignation has been accepted, termination may be any time agreed upon within 30 days.

129.1. The pastor who resigns shall, in cooperation with the secretary of the church board, prepare a correct list of the church membership roll with current addresses. This roll must correspond numerically with the last published district minutes showing deletions and additions for the current year.

J. Renewing the Call of the Pastor

130. When a minister is called to a local church as pastor, he will serve at least 12 months before a renewal vote is taken. The call of the pastor who is an elder may be continued for a two-year period and each succeeding two-year period of his pastorate without nomination of the church board, by two-thirds vote by ballot of all church members of voting age present and voting at a church meeting duly called for this purpose, that notice being given from the pulpit at two preceding regular services, the first notice given at least 8 days prior to the date the vote is taken, and held at least 30 days but not more than 120 days prior to the date of convening the next District Assembly, provided such continuance shall be approved by the district superintendent within 30 days after such call. His failure to disapprove shall be considered and treated as approval. [112.12, 208.7]

130.1. In case of disagreement regarding the disapapproval of the renewal call by the district superintendent within the specified time, either the church or the district superintendent may submit the matter to the general superintendent having jurisdiction for a decision. From such decision either the local church or the district superintendent may appeal to the Board of General Superintendents.

128.2. A pastor receiving less than two-thirds majority vote on a renewal call shall terminate his ministry with that church at the close of the District Assembly.

128.3. The pastor of a church which has been organized for less than five years, or has less than 50 voting members, or is receiving regular financial assistance from the district, may be reappointed by the district superintendent with the consent of the general superintendent having jurisdiction and the District Advisory Board.

131. Extended Call. The local church, when voting to renew pastoral relations of the pastor who is an elder and who has served at least 12 months prior to the vote on reelection [130], shall vote to extend the call to a total of three or four years; or after a pastor has served that church for a minimum of four years, he shall be eligible for an indefinite call. The conditions for either kind of extended call are: (1) The pastoral vote for two years has been presented and a favorable vote received; (2) Such extended call shall have been recommended by majority vote of all members of the church board; (3) Approval in writing by the district superintendent. Such a vote must be by two-thirds vote by ballot of church members of voting age present and voting and must be taken at a church meeting duly called for the purpose at least 90 days but not more than 180 days prior to the date of convening the next District Assembly. When the extended call is for an indefinite period of time, the pastoral relationship shall be reviewed at least every four years by the district superintendent meeting with the church board. Any other review is provided for in Paragraph 123. [112.12.]

121. It shall be understood that this extended call shall include the two-year renewal call period. In the case of additional renewals of such pastorate, the procedure shall be the same as that stated herein.

122. In case the church meeting for the renewal call is held at a date later than 30 days prior to the convening of the next District Assembly, the procedure shall be that of calling a pastor according to 122.

123. In case the district superintendent and the church board shall be of the opinion that the question of the continuance of pastoral relations beyond the close of any year of an extended pastoral term should be submitted to the church, the district superintendent and the church board by a two-thirds majority vote of all its members together may order the question submitted for vote at a special church meeting held at least 30 days, but not more than 180 days, prior to the date of convening the next District Assembly. The question shall be submitted in the following form: "Shall the present pastoral relations be continued beyond the end of the present church year?" [112.12]

If, by a two-thirds vote by ballot of the church members of voting age present and voting, the church decides to continue its present pastoral relations, the office of the pastor shall continue as though such vote had not been taken.

If, however, the church fails to decide by such vote to continue the present pastoral relations, the term of office of the pastor shall terminate with the close of the District Assembly.

Ministry and Christian Service

- THE MINISTER OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

THE MINISTER AND THE MINISTRY

A. Qualifications and Call of the Minister

400. While we recognize and insist that all believers have committed unto them a dispensation of the gospel which they are to minister unto all men, we also recognize and hold that the Head of the Church calls some to the more official and public work of the ministry.

As our Lord called unto Him whom He would, and chose and ordained His 12 apostles "that they should be with him, and that he might send them forth to preach," so He still calls and sends forth messengers of the gospel. The church, illuminated by the Holy Spirit, will recognize the Lord's call.

When the church discovers this divine call, the proper steps should be taken for its recognition and endorsement, and all suitable help should be given to open the way for the candidate to enter the ministry.

401. The perpetuity and the efficiency of the Church of the Nazarene depend largely upon the spiritual qualifications, the character, and the manner of life of its ministers.

401.1. The minister of Christ is to be in all things a pattern to the flock—in punctuality, discretion, diligence, earnestness. "By purities, by knowledge, by long-suffering, by kindness, by the Holy Ghost, by love unfeigned, by the word of truth, by the power of God, by the armour of righteousness on the right hand and on the left" (2 Corinthians 6:6-7).

401.2. The minister of the gospel in the Church of the Nazarene must know that he has peace with God, through our Lord Jesus Christ, and that he is sanctified wholly by the baptism with the Holy Spirit. He must have a deep sense of the fact that souls for whom Christ died are perishing, and that he is called of God to proclaim to them the glad tidings of salvation.

¶1.2. The minister must likewise have a deep sense of the necessity of believers going on unto perfection and developing the Christian graces in practical living, that their "love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and in all judgment." He must have a strong appreciation of both salvation and Christian ethics.

¶1.4. The minister must have gifts, as well as grace, for the work. He will have a thirst for knowledge, especially of the Word of God, sound judgment and good understanding; clear views concerning the plan of redemption and salvation as revealed in the Scriptures. Saints will be edified and sinners converted through his ministry. He must be an example in prayer.

¶1.5. Persons who obtain divorce under the civil law where the scriptural ground for divorce, namely, adultery, does not exist and who subsequently remarry are ineligible for the office of the ministry of the Church of the Nazarene. [320, 403, 404.2, 405.]

¶1.6. It shall be the duty of every minister of the Church of the Nazarene to hold in trust and confidence any communication of a confidential nature given him by a counsellee of the congregation while he is acting in his professional character as a licensed or ordained minister of the Church of the Nazarene. The public dissemination of such communication without the express written consent of the declarant is expressly condemned. Any Nazarene minister who violates the above-recited duty subjects himself to the disciplinary sanctions set forth in Part VII, Subsection III of this Manual.

B. The Local Preacher

402. Any member of the Church of the Nazarene who feels called of God to preach and to conduct special meetings in the interest of salvation may be licensed as a local preacher for one year by the church board of a local church having an elder as pastor, upon the pastor's recommendation; or by the church board of a local church not having an elder as pastor, if the granting of license is recommended by the pastor and approved by the district superintendent. The candidate must first be examined as to his personal experience of salvation, his knowledge of the doctrines of the Bible, and the order of the church; he must also demonstrate that his call is evidenced by grace, gifts, and usefulness. A local preacher shall make a report to the local church at its annual church meeting. [112.7, 136.11, 208.8]

402.1. The church board shall issue to each local preacher a license signed by the pastor and the secretary of the church board. Where a church is supplied by a person who does not have a district license, the person may be issued a local preacher's license by the District Advisory Board upon the recommendation of the district superintendent.

402.2. The license of a local preacher may be renewed by the church board of a local church having an elder as pastor, upon the recommendation of the pastor, or by the church board of a local church not having an elder as pastor, provided that this renewal of license is recommended by the pastor and approved by the district superintendent. [136.11, 295.8]

402.3. Local preachers shall pursue the course of study for ministers under the direction of the District Board of Ministerial Studies. Local license cannot be renewed after two years without the written approval of the district superintendent if the local preacher has not completed at least two subjects in the course of study.

402.4. A local preacher, having served in that relation for at least one full year, and having passed the complete first-year course of study for ministers, or if a student in a Nazarene college or seminary, having completed one-fourth of the units prescribed in the college or college-seminary program, or one-third of the Nazarene Bible College ministerial curriculum; may be recommended by the church board to the District Assembly for minister's license. but, if not received, he shall sustain his former relation. [136.11, 295.7, 402, 425]

402.5. A local preacher who has been appointed to supply pastor must be approved by the Board of Orders and Relations if he continues his service after the District Assembly following his appointment. [209, 289.3]

C. The Licensed Minister

403. When there are members of the Church of the Nazarene who feel called to the ministry, they may be licensed as ministers by the District Assembly and enrolled as members of the District Assembly, provided they (1) have held local preacher's license for one full year; (2) have passed the complete first-year course of study for ministers, or if enrolled in a

Nazarene college or seminary, have completed one-fourth of the units prescribed in the college or college-seminary program, or one-third of the Bible college ministerial curriculum; (3) have been recommended for such work by the church board of the local church of which they are members, to which recommendation shall be attached the Application for Minister's License carefully filled out; (4) have given evidence of grace, gifts, and usefulness; (5) have been carefully examined, under the direction of the District Assembly of the district within the bounds of which they hold their church membership, regarding their spiritual, intellectual, and other fitness for such work; (6) have promised to pursue immediately the course of study prescribed for licensed ministers and candidates for ordination; and (7) have had any disqualification, which may have been imposed by a District Assembly, removed by an explanation in writing by the district superintendent and the District Advisory Board of the district where the disqualification was imposed; and provided further that their marriage relationship does not render them ineligible [401.5] for the office of the ministry. [196.1], 205.7, 402.4.]

403.1. Licensed ministers from other evangelical denominations, desiring to unite with the Church of the Nazarene, may be licensed as ministers by the District Assembly, provided they present the credentials issued to them by the denomination in which they formerly held their membership, and further provided that they (1) have passed a course of study equivalent at least to the course of study prescribed by the Church of the Nazarene for local preachers; (2) have been recommended by the church board of the local Church of the Nazarene of which they are members; (3) have given evidence of grace, gifts, and usefulness; (4) have been carefully examined under the direction of the District Assembly regarding their spiritual, intellectual, and other fitness for such work; and (5) have promised to pursue immediately the course of study prescribed for licensed ministers and candidates for ordination. [201.5, 401.5]

401.2. A minister's license shall terminate with the close of the next District Assembly. It may be renewed by vote of the District Assembly, provided (1) that the candidate for renewal shall file with the District Assembly the Application for Minister's License carefully filled out; and provided (2) that the candidate shall have completed at least two subjects in the year's course of study required, not including subjects in the reading course; and provided (3) that he has been recommended for the renewal of license by the church board of the local church of which he is a member. In case, however, he shall not have passed the course of study required, his license may be renewed by the District Assembly only upon his submitting a written explanation for this failure. Such explanation shall be satisfactory to the Committee on Orders and Relations and approved by the general superintendent presiding. [196.14, 201.2]

401.3. To qualify for ordination, candidates must achieve graduation from the course of study within eight years from the granting of the first district license. Any exception, due to unusual circumstances, must be recommended to the District Assembly, including a specified time limit, by the Board of Orders and Relations and be subject to the approval of the general superintendent in jurisdiction.

A licensed minister who is disqualified from ordination by reasons of age or failure to complete the course of study within the prescribed time limit may be granted renewal of minister's license upon recommendation of the District Advisory Board and the Board of Deacons and Relations.

403.4. In the case of licensed ministers who are serving as pastors, the recommendation for the renewal of minister's license shall be made by the District Advisory Board rather than by the local church board. [22-11]

403.5. The general superintendent having jurisdiction shall issue to each licensed minister a minister's license signed by himself and the district secretary. [51-4]

403.6. Such licensed ministers shall be vested with authority to preach the Word; and, provided they pass annually the required studies of the course of study and are acting as pastors, or are involved in a full-time active ministry recognized by the district on which their membership is held, they shall also be vested with authority to administer the sacraments of baptism and the Lord's Supper in their own congregations, and to officiate at marriages where the laws of the state do not prohibit. [33.5, 115, 115-3, 802, 803]

403.6. Such licensed ministers shall be vested with authority to preach the Word, and, provided they pass annually the required studies of the course of study and are acting as pastors, they shall also be vested with authority to administer the sacraments of baptism and the Lord's Supper in their own congregations, and to officiate at marriages where the laws of the state do not prohibit. [33.5, 115, 115-3, 802, 803]

403.7. All licensed ministers shall hold their ministerial membership in the District Assembly of the district wherein their church membership is held, and shall report to this body annually. [120, 201, 203.]

403.8. In case a licensed minister has united with the church membership or ministry of another denomination, his church membership and ministerial membership in the Church of the Nazarene shall, because of that fact, immediately cease, and the District Assembly shall cause to be entered into its minute record the following statement: "Removed from the membership and ministry of the Church of the Nazarene by uniting with another denomination." [107, 111.2]

403.9. In case a licensed minister shall, without the written approval of the District Advisory Board of the assembly district in which he holds his ministerial membership or the written approval of the Board of General Superintendents, regularly conduct independent church activities which are not under the direction of the Church of the Nazarene, or be connected with the operating staff of an independent church or other religious group, he shall be subject to trial under the law dealing with the discipline of a minister. [404.9, 502]

403.10. The licensed minister shall always show due regard for the united advice of the district superintendent and the District Advisory Board. [118]

403.11. Any claim to participation by a licensed minister and/or his dependents in any plan or fund that the church may have now or hereafter for the assistance or support of its disabled or aged ministers shall be based only upon regular, full-time, active service rendered by the minister in the pastoral or evangelistic office or other recognized relation, under the sanction of the District Assembly. This rule shall exclude from such participation all those in part-time and occasional service. [404.12]

D. The Ordained Minister

404. We recognize but one order of official ministry—that of elder. This is a permanent order in the Church. The elder is to rule well in the Church, to preach the Word, to administer the sacraments of baptism and the Lord's Supper, and to administer matrimony, all in the name of and in subjection to Jesus Christ, the great Head of the Church. [23.3, 114, 115, 115.3, 404.11]

404.1. The church expects that one called to this official ministry should be a steward of the Word and give full energy through a lifetime to its proclamation.

404.2. One who is called of God to this ministry, and who has fulfilled all the requirements of the church for the same, who has successfully completed the full course of study prescribed for licensed ministers and candidates for ordination, who has been recommended for renewal of district license by the church board of the local church in which he holds his membership or by the District Advisory Board [403.2], and has been carefully considered and favorably reported by the Board of Orders and Relations of the District Assembly, may be elected to elder's orders by two-thirds vote of the District Assembly, provided he has been in the active ministry not less than two consecutive years either as a regularly established pastor or as a registered evangelist, and has spent the major portion of that time actively in the field, or has served four consecutive years full-time as associate or assistant pastor or one year as pastor and two consecutive years as full-time associate or assistant pastor or one who has served four years as a full-time teacher in the religion department of one of our Nazarene institutions of higher education; provided further, that any disqualification which may have been imposed by a District Assembly has been removed in writing by the district superintendent and the District Advisory Board of the district where the disqualification was imposed; and provided further that his marriage relationship does not render him ineligible [§07.3] for ordination. No person shall be ordained after passing the sixtieth birthday. [136.14, 203.5, 328, 420]

§44.3. A licensed minister in active service at the present time, who has served as a full-time pastor for 15 years or more, and who has completed all other requirements for ordination, and is barred only by the age restriction, should be considered an eligible candidate for ordination.

§44.4. The candidate thus elected shall be ordained by the laying on of the hands of the elders, and other religious exercises, under the direction of the presiding general superintendent. [307.3]

§44.5. The general superintendent having jurisdiction shall issue to the person so ordained a certificate of ordination signed by himself and the district secretary. [406.1, 514.1]

§44.6. All elders shall hold church membership in some local church. [121]

§44.7. All elders shall hold their ministerial membership in the District Assembly of the district

wherein their church membership is held, to which body they shall report annually. Any elder who for two consecutive years does not report to his District Assembly either in person or by letter shall, if the District Assembly so elect, cease to be a member thereof. [DR, 120, 201, 203.1, 407.3]

404.5. In case an ordained minister has united with the church membership or ministry of another denomination, his church membership and ministerial membership in the Church of the Nazarene shall, because of that fact, immediately cease, and the District Assembly shall cause to be entered into its minute record the following statement: "Removed from the membership and ministry of the Church of the Nazarene by uniting with another denomination." [DR, 111.2]

404.6. No ordained minister shall regularly conduct independent church activities which are not under the direction of the Church of the Nazarene, or carry on independent missions or church activities, or be connected with the operating staff of an independent church or other religious group without the annual written approval of the District Advisory Board or the written approval of the Board of General Superintendents.

When the said activities are to be conducted on more than one district, or a district other than the district on which said minister holds his ministerial membership, the written approval of the Board of General Superintendents must be obtained prior to the participation in said activities. The Board of General Superintendents shall notify the respective District Advisory Boards that a request for said approval is pending before their board.

Should an ordained minister fail to comply with these requirements, he may, on recommendation by a two-thirds vote of the entire membership of the Board of Orders and Relations and by action of the District Assembly, be dropped from the membership of the Church of the Nazarene.

The final determination as to whether any specific activity constitutes "an independent mission" or "unauthorized church activity" shall rest with the Board of General Superintendents.

404.10. The elder shall always show due regard for the united advice of the district superintendent and the District Advisory Board. [118]

404.11. An elder may organize a local church when authorized to do so by the district superintendent or the general superintendent having jurisdiction. Official reports are to be filed in the Department of Church Extension. [100, 208.1, 310]

404.12. Any claim to participation by an elder and/or his dependents in any plan or fund that the church may have now or hereafter for the assistance or support of its disabled or aged ministers shall be based only upon regular, full-time, active service rendered by the elder in the pastoral or evangelistic office or other recognized relation, under the sanction of the District Assembly. This rule shall exclude from such participation all those in part-time and occasional service. [100.5, 403.11]

E. The Recognition of Elder's Orders

405. Elders from other evangelical denominations, desiring to unite with the Church of the Nazarene and presenting their ordination papers, may have their orders recognized by the District Assembly, after satisfactory examination as to personal experience and doctrine, provided that: (1) they be required to take an examination on the Manual and on the history of the Church of the Nazarene; (2) they shall file with the District Assembly the Questionnaire for Ordained Ministers Desiring to Join the Church of the Nazarene, carefully filled out; and (3) their marriage relationship shall be in accordance with that required for ordination in the Church of the Nazarene. [34-34.1, 331.A, 235, 401.A, 425]

405.1. The general superintendent having jurisdiction shall issue to the elder so recognized a certificate of recognition signed by himself and the district secretary. [404.B, 414.2]

405.2. When the orders of an elder from another church shall have been duly recognized, his credentials issued by said church shall be returned to him inscribed in writing or stamped across the face as follows:

Accredited by the _____ District
Assembly of the Church of the Nazarene

This _____ day of _____ 19____

as the basis of the new credentials.

_____ General Superintendent

_____ District Secretary

405.3. The elder so recognized shall have his name enrolled as a ministerial member of the District Assembly. [201, 234.1]

F. The Transfer of Ministers

406. When an elder or a licensed minister desires to transfer to another district, transfer of ministerial membership may be issued by vote of the District Assembly, or by the District Advisory Board in the interim of assemblies, in which his ministerial membership is held. Such transfer of an elder or licensed minister may be received by the District Advisory Board in the interim before the District Assembly meets, granting to said elder or licensed minister full rights and privileges of membership on the district on which it is received, subject to final approval of the Board of Orders and Relations and the District Assembly. [2016-3.7, 221, 814.13]

406.1. The transfer of a licensed minister shall be valid only when accompanied by a detailed record of his grades in the course of study for licensed ministers, properly certified by the secretary of the District Board of Ministerial Studies of the issuing District Assembly. The minister being transferred shall actively pursue the matter of the reporting of his grades in the course of study to the receiving district. [814.13]

406.2. All transfers shall be sent direct to the District Assembly to which addressed. The receiving District Assembly shall notify the issuing District Assembly of the reception of the transferred person's membership. Until the transfer is received by vote of the District Assembly to which addressed, the person thus transferred shall be a member of the issuing District Assembly. Such transfer is valid only until the close of the next session following date of issue of the District Assembly to which addressed. [2016, 814.13]

G. The Retired Minister

407. A retired minister is one who has been placed in the retired relation by the District Assembly in which he holds his ministerial membership. [200.33-334, 222.6]

497.1. Any minister who is in good standing and has reached the age of 65 years may request a retired relation, and, at his request, shall be placed in the retired relation by his District Assembly upon recommendation by the Board of Orders and Relations. [200.33, 228.6]

497.2. Any minister who is in good standing, but who is disqualified by physical disability or old age from engaging in such active ministerial labors as will afford him sufficient income for support, may, upon recommendation of the Committee on Orders and Relations, be placed in the retired relation by his District Assembly. [200.34]

497.3. Retirement shall not compel cessation from ministerial labors nor deprive of membership in the District Assembly. [201, 404.7]

497.4. As a condition to receiving or continuing to receive financial assistance from the Board of Pensions having responsibility for the Pensions and Benefits Program on the district in which he/she is serving, it shall be required that the minister applying for such assistance be placed in the retired relation by his District Assembly, after having passed his/her 65th birthday.

II. The Restoration of Church Membership of Ministers

498. Any minister who is expelled or withdrawn under charges may reunite with the Church of the Nazarene only with the consent of the District Assembly of the assembly district from which he withdrew or was expelled.

1. The Restoration of District Assembly Membership of Elders

409. If for any reason the name of an elder shall be removed from a District Assembly roll, such elder shall not be recognized in any other District Assembly without having secured the written consent of the District Assembly from whose roll his name was removed.

409.1. When an elder has been deprived of his credentials by expulsion or other disciplinary action, or has surrendered his credentials for any reason, such credentials shall be sent to the General Secretary to be filed and preserved subject to the order of his District Assembly. [203.5]

409.2. When an elder in good standing surrenders his credentials for any reason, such surrendered credentials may, at any subsequent time, be restored to the elder upon order of the District Assembly to which they were surrendered, provided that the restoration of his credentials shall have been recommended by the local church of which he is a member and by the district superintendent and the District Advisory Board.

409.3. When an elder has been deprived of his credentials by expulsion or other disciplinary action, or has surrendered his credentials, except as provided in 409.2, his District Assembly may restore such credentials at any future time, provided that (1) the elder shall have given satisfactory evidence of amendment of life and conduct; and that (2) the church board of the local church of which he is a member shall recommend the restoration of his credentials and the district superintendent and the District Advisory Board shall endorse that recommendation. In case of a question of adultery or other sexual immorality, however, his credentials shall not be restored in less than two years from the date of their surrender, and then only with the additional written approval of the Board of General Superintendents.

408.4. Pastors and local church boards are advised not to engage a person who has lost his credentials as an elder or licensed minister by the action of a board of discipline in any official capacity such as a supply minister, song director, Sunday school teacher, or other, until his credentials are restored, except on written approval of both the district superintendent where such credentials were lost and the general superintendent in jurisdiction of that district.

409.5. In case the credentials of an elder have been misplaced, mutilated, or destroyed, a duplicate certificate may be issued upon the recommendation of the District Advisory Board. Such recommendation shall be made directly to the general superintendent in jurisdiction and upon his approval shall be issued by the office of the General Secretary. If the general superintendent signing the original certificate is not available, the general superintendent having jurisdiction shall sign the certificate, with notation on the back for the reason for issuing the new certificate. On the reverse side thereof shall be the following statement inscribed in writing or printing or both writing and printing, and signed by the general superintendent having jurisdiction and the district secretary:

This certificate is given to take the place of former certificate of ordination given to [name], on the _____ day of [month], A.D. 19____, by the [ordaining organization], at which date _____ he was ordained and is _____ former ordination certificate was signed by _____ and _____

The former certificate was [misplaced—mutilated—destroyed].

_____ General Superintendent
 _____ District Secretary

409.6. When an elder ceases from the active ministry and takes full-time secular employment, after a period of two years his credentials shall, if the Board of Orders and Relations so requests, be filed with the General Secretary. His name shall then be recorded in the district minutes as one who has filed his credentials with the General Secretary.

When, and if, such elder wishes to reenter the active ministry, he shall be able to do so by complying with the provision in 409.2, which relates to an elder in good standing.

This action should be considered nonprejudicial to his character and standing as an elder.

CHAPTER II

THE EVANGELIST

410. Any person, whether minister or layman, active or retired, may do the work of evangelist as the Lord opens doors. This ministry is encouraged, and no special endorsement or certification is needed.

410.1. Our Lord calls some to the special work of evangelism as evangelists (Ephesians 4:11). The church confirms the call by granting these persons a certificate for either a commissioned or registered evangelist. Only those who give full time to evangelism as their primary assignment, and who do not sustain a retired relationship with the church or any of its departments or institutions, shall be eligible for certification.

410.2. A commissioned evangelist is an elder who has met all the requirements of a registered evangelist for two full years, and has been voted an evangelist's commission by the District Assembly upon recommendation by the Board of Orders and Relations. The commission is for one year, and may be renewed by subsequent District Assemblies for one who continues to meet the requirements.

410.3. A registered evangelist is an elder, or a licensed minister graduated from the course of study, who has indicated his purpose to devote full time to evangelism, and has been voted a certificate of registration by the District Assembly upon recommendation by the Board of Orders and Relations, excepting licensed ministers still in the course of study, but who are full time in the field of evangelism. Such registration shall be for one year. Renewal by subsequent District Assemblies shall be granted on the basis of actual full-time work in evangelism in the year prior to the assembly.

410.4. An elder or licensed minister desiring to enter the field of evangelism between District Assemblies may be recognized by the Department of Evangelism upon recommendation of the district superintendent.

410.5. The general superintendent having jurisdiction shall issue to each commissioned evangelist an evangelist's commission and each registered evangelist an appropriate certificate signed by himself and the district secretary. [814.6]

410.6. The commissioned and/or registered evangelist shall report annually to the District Assembly of which he is a member, and shall attend the District Assembly in person, unless he can give a satisfactory reason for his absence. Should he fail to report, his commission or registration to evangelize shall not be renewed. [203.1]

CHAPTER III

THE MINISTER OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

411. While we recognize but one order of the official ministry, that of elder, we also recognize that the Lord has always called to full-time service those who may not be called to a preaching ministry. The New Testament Church recognized the response of laymen to such a divine call. As local churches grow, such individuals become increasingly important, especially in the field of Christian education.

To encourage such persons in respect to the divine call, the church officially recognizes and endorses it, giving all suitable help to open the way for the candidate to enter this ministry. Such a person may prepare for and be commissioned a minister of Christian education. [203.12, 411]

411.1. The church expects of such persons the same spiritual qualifications, character, and manner of life as is expected of the elder as stated in 401.1-1.2.

411.2. A member of the Church of the Nazarene who feels called to the ministry of Christian education may be licensed as a director of Christian education for one year by the District Assembly by a two-thirds vote, provided he (1) has been recommended for such a license by the local church of which he is a member; (2) has been carefully examined, under the direction of the District Assembly of the assembly district within the bounds of which he holds his church membership, regarding his spiritual qualifications and general fitness for the work; and (2) has declared his intention to pursue faithfully the appropriate course of study.

¶411.3. A licensed director of Christian education who (1) has been recommended for renewal of district license by the church board of the local church in which he holds his membership; (2) who has successfully completed the full course of study prescribed for ministers of Christian education; and (3) since the granting of the first district license has served for at least two years in a full-time capacity as director of Christian education in a local church; (4) and has been carefully considered and favorably reported by the Board of Orders and Relations to the District Assembly, may be elected as commissioned minister of Christian education by a two-thirds vote of the District Assembly; provided that any disqualification which may have been imposed by a District Assembly has been removed in writing by the district superintendent and the District Advisory Board of the district where the disqualification was imposed and provided further that his marriage relationship does not render him ineligible. [§11.3]

¶411.4. No person shall be eligible to be elected as commissioned minister of Christian education after passing his sixtieth birthday.

¶411.5. A candidate thus elected shall be commissioned by the presiding general superintendent, upon the candidate's public avowal of his willingness to surrender the certificate of commission if he ever finds himself out of harmony with the official doctrine and practice of the Church of the Nazarene, or upon the request of the Board of Orders and Relations for cause.

411.6. The general superintendent having jurisdiction shall issue to the person so commissioned a "Certificate of Commission as a Minister of Christian Education," signed by himself and the district secretary. [814.11]

411.7. No person shall be elected both as elder and as a commissioned minister of Christian education.

411.8. Each licensed director of Christian education and each commissioned minister of Christian education shall report annually to the District Assembly of which he is a member. Those serving in full-time relationship shall be members of the assembly.

411.9. For the exercise of his office, the minister of Christian education shall be amenable to the local pastor under whom he serves, and/or the district superintendent and the District Assembly.

CHAPTER IV THE SONG EVANGELIST

412. Members of the Church of the Nazarene who feel called to the special ministry of song evangelism, whose intention it is to devote the major portion of their time to this ministry, and who have completed the full course of study for song evangelists, and have fulfilled all other requirements of the church for the registered song evangelist, may, upon their request in writing to their district superintendent, be recommended by the District Advisory Board, and if carefully and favorably considered by the Board of Orders and Relations of the District Assembly, be granted a song evangelist's commission by a two-thirds vote of the District Assembly. Such commission shall continue only until the close of the next District Assembly.

412.1. Members of the Church of the Nazarene who feel called to the ministry of song evangelism, and who devote a portion of their time to song evangelism, may become registered song evangelists by two-thirds vote of the District Assembly, provided they (1) have been recommended for such work by the church board of the local church of which they are members; (2) give evidence of grace, gifts, and usefulness; (3) have had not less than one year of vocal study under an accredited teacher and are pursuing the course of study prescribed for the song evangelist under the supervision of the District Board of Ministerial Studies or have completed the same; (4) have been carefully examined under the direction of the District Assembly of the assembly district within the bounds of which they hold their church membership, regarding their intellectual and spiritual qualifications and general fitness for such work; (5) have stated a willingness to surrender the certificate of commission or registration if they find themselves out of harmony with the doctrine and practices of the Church of the Nazarene, or for cause, upon the request of the Board of Orders and Relations. Such registration shall continue only until the close of the next District Assembly. [422]

412.2. Those who desire to enter this field of song evangelism prior to or following their District Assembly may secure proper recognition by being registered with the Department of Evangelism upon the recommendation of their district superintendent pending action of the next District Assembly.

412.3. Each song evangelist, commissioned and registered, shall report annually to the District Asassembly from which he received recognition. Should he fail to report, his commission, or registration, shall not be renewed.

412.4. The general superintendent having jurisdiction shall issue to each song evangelist a commission, or a certificate of registration, signed by himself and the district secretary. [1412.8-14.3].

CHAPTER V

THE MINISTER OF MUSIC

414. Members of the Church of the Nazarenes who feel called to the ministry of music may be commissioned as ministers of music for one year by the District Assembly, provided they (1) have been recommended for such work by the church board of the local church of which they are members; (2) give evidence of grace, gifts, and usefulness; (3) have had at least one year of experience in music ministry; (4) have had not less than one year of vocal study under an accredited teacher and are pursuing the course of study or its equivalent prescribed for ministers of music or have completed the same; (5) are regularly engaged as ministers of music; (6) have been carefully examined under the direction of the District Assembly of the assembly district within the bounds of which they hold their church membership, regarding their intellectual and spiritual qualifications and general fitness for such work. [203.11, 422]

414.1. All ministers of music shall report annually to the District Assembly from which they receive their commissions. [203.1]

414.2. The general superintendent having jurisdiction shall issue to each minister of music a commission signed by himself and the district secretary. [814.14]

CHAPTER VI

THE DEACONESS

A. The Local Deaconess

415. A woman who is a member of the Church of the Nazarene and believes that she is divinely led to engage in ministering to the sick and the needy, comforting the sorrowing, and doing other works of Christian benevolence, and who gives evidence in her life of ability, grace, and usefulness, may be licensed as a local deaconess for one year by the church board of the local church upon recommendation of the pastor after proper examination by the church board as to her qualifications for that work. She shall be a member of the local church where she is engaged. She shall make a report to the local church at the annual church meeting. [1127, 136.12, 144.3]

415.1. The church board shall issue to each local deaconess a license signed by the pastor and the secretary of the church board.

415.2. The local deaconess shall work under the direction of the pastor at all times, and should be accorded respect and careful pastoral guidance in this holy calling for her very work's sake.

415.3. The license of the local deaconess may be renewed annually by the church board upon the recommendation of the pastor. The license may be suspended or revoked by the church board upon recommendation of the pastor, after giving her a fair hearing. [136.12, 140]

415.4. After serving for one year, the local deaconess may be recommended by her own local church board to the District Assembly for district deaconess' license upon recommendation of the pastor. [136.15, 203.3, 416]

B. The Licensed Deaconess

415. A local deaconess in good standing in the Church of the Nazarene who feels divinely led to advance the cause of Christ by ministering to the sick and the needy, comforting the sorrowing, praying with the dying and pointing them to the Saviour, seeking the lost and wandering and endeavoring by all means to lead them to Jesus Christ and salvation, may be licensed as deaconess for one year by the District Assembly.

415.1. Qualifications for being licensed as a deaconess by the District Assembly are that the candidate (1) shall be at least 21 years of age, (2) shall have served as local deaconess in a satisfactory manner for at least one year, (3) shall have been recommended for such license by the church board of the local church of which she is a member, (4) shall have given evidence of ability, grace, and usefulness, (5) shall have passed a satisfactory examination before the District Board of Ministerial Studies in Bible doctrine, in government of the Church of the Nazarene, and in domestic qualifications, and (6) shall declare her purpose to pursue immediately and faithfully the course of study prescribed for licensed deaconesses. [136.16, 203.3, 415.9, 422]

416.2. The general superintendent having jurisdiction shall issue to each licensed deaconess a license signed by himself and the district secretary. [117, 214.3]

416.3. The credentials of a licensed deaconess may be renewed annually by the District Assembly, provided renewal of license has been recommended by the church board of the local church of which she is a member. If the license be not renewed, she shall no longer serve as deaconess. [138.16, 201.3]

416.4. In the interim of sessions of the District Assembly the license of a licensed deaconess may, when it is required for the good of the church, be suspended until the next District Assembly by the District Advisory Board with the approval of the district superintendent, after a conference with the church board of the local church of which the deaconess is a member, and after giving her a fair hearing. [224]

416.5. All licensed deaconesses who have passed at least one-half of the prescribed course of study for licensed deaconesses [421.1] shall be members of the District Assembly, provided they are in active service. [201, 203.1]

C. The Consecrated Deaconess

417. When a licensed deaconess shall have served in that capacity for two years, shall have successfully passed the prescribed course of study, and shall have been recommended by the church board of the local church of which she is a member, she may be elected to the office of consecrated deaconess by the District Assembly, if she has not passed her sixtieth birthday. [138.27]

417.1. The candidate so elected shall be consecrated by the District Assembly with appropriate religious services, under the direction of the presiding general superintendent.

417.2. The general superintendent having jurisdiction shall issue to the deaconess so consecrated a certificate of consecration signed by himself and the district secretary. [814.7]

417.3. All consecrated deaconesses shall be members of the District Assembly, provided they are in active service. [201, 201.1]

D. The Transfers of Deaconesses

418. When a licensed or consecrated deaconess desires to transfer to another District Assembly, a transfer of membership may be issued by vote of the District Assembly in which her membership is held, which transfer may be received by the District Assembly to which it is addressed. [201.6-3.7, 814.3]

418.1. When a licensed or a consecrated deaconess desires to transfer to another District Assembly before the meeting of the District Assembly in which her membership is held, a transfer of membership may be issued by the district superintendent and the District Advisory Board, which transfer may be received by the District Assembly to which it is addressed. [201.6-3.7, 422.1, 814.13]

418.2. The transfer of a licensed deaconess shall be valid only when accompanied by a detailed record of her grades in the course of study for licensed deaconesses, properly certified by the secretary of the District Board of Ministerial Studies of the issuing District Assembly.

418.3. All transfers shall be sent direct to the District Assembly to which addressed. The receiving District Assembly shall notify the issuing District Assembly of the reception of the transferred deacons' membership. Until the transfer is received by a vote of the District Assembly to which addressed, the deacons thus transferred shall be a member of the issuing District Assembly. A transfer is valid only until the close of the next session following date of issue of the District Assembly to which addressed. [203.6, 8(4.13)]

E. Restoration of Membership of Consecrated Deaconesses

415. If for any reason the name of a consecrated deacons shall be removed from a District Assembly roll, such consecrated deacons shall not be recognized by any other District Assembly without having secured the written consent of the District Assembly from whose roll her name was removed.

MINISTERS

MINISTERS OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

GENERAL GUIDELINES

CHAPTER I

FOR MINISTERS

428. The course of study for ministers is designed to assist in the training of God-called preachers whose service is vital to the expansion and extension of the holy message into new areas of evangelistic opportunity. We recognize the importance of a clear understanding of our mission based on Christ's commission to His Church in Matthew 28:19-20, to "go and make disciples" (NIV). Much of the training is primarily theological and biblical in character, leading toward ordination in the ministry of the Church of the Nazarene. Students are enrolled, advanced, and graduated from the course of study by the District Board of Ministerial Studies. The District Board of Ministerial Studies shall direct and grade all examinations and determine the placement of each student in the course through his examination.

PART VII

Judicial Administration

CHURCH DISCIPLINE
DISCIPLINE OF A LAYMAN
DISCIPLINE OF A MINISTER
RULES OF PROCEDURE
DISTRICT COURT OF APPEALS
GENERAL COURT OF APPEALS
GUARANTY OF RIGHTS

I. CHURCH DISCIPLINE

500. The object of church discipline is not the punishment of offenders, but vindication of the truth, purification of the church, warning of the careless, and reformation and salvation of the guilty. Members of the church, who do violence to the General or Special Rules, or who willfully and continuously violate their membership vows, should be dealt with kindly yet faithfully, according to the grievousness of their offenses.

Holiness of heart and life being the New Testament standard, the Church of the Nazarene insists upon a clean ministry, and requires that those who bear its credentials as ministers be orthodox in doctrine and holy in life. Thus the purpose of the discipline of a minister is not punitive or retributive, but is to determine the ministerial standing and church relations of a minister accused of misconduct.

II. DISCIPLINE OF A LAYMAN

501. If a request is made for investigation of a lay member accused of unchristian conduct, the pastor shall appoint an investigating committee of three members of the local church, who shall make a written report concerning the result of their investigation. [11A, 1A] This report must be signed by a majority and filed with the church board. The accusations upon which an investigation is made must be signed by at least two reputable members of the local church.

After the investigation and pursuant thereto, any two members in good standing in the local church may sign charges against the accused and file same with the church board. Thereupon the church board shall appoint a local board of discipline of five members who are unprejudiced and able to hear and dispose of the case in a fair and impartial manner, and these shall conduct a hearing as soon as practicable and determine the issues involved. [§501.20] After hearing the testimony of witnesses and considering the evidence, they shall either absolve the accused or administer discipline as the facts shall establish to be proper. Such decision must be unanimous. Discipline may take the form of reprimand, suspension, or expulsion from membership in the local church. Repentance, apology, or restitution may be required.

501.1. An appeal from the decision of a local board of discipline may be taken to the District Court of Appeals within 30 days by either the accused or the church board.

III. DISCIPLINE OF A MINISTER

502. If an elder or licensed minister be accused of conduct unbecoming to a minister, or of teaching doctrines out of harmony with the doctrinal statements of the Church of the Nazarene, or of serious laxity in the enforcement of the General or Special Rules of the church, such accusation shall be placed in writing and shall be signed by at least two members of the Church of the Nazarene who are at the time in good standing; this written accusation must be filed with the District Advisory Board of the district where the accused has ministerial membership. This accusation shall become a part of the record in the case, and the accused and his counsel shall have the right to examine the accusation and to receive a copy of the same immediately upon request therefor. The District Advisory Board shall give the accused notice thereof by placing such notice in the mail addressed to the accused, using certified or registered mail, or by personal delivery, within 10 days after the accusation is filed with the District Advisory Board.

502.1. When a written accusation is filed, the District Advisory Board shall appoint a committee of three or more elders to investigate the facts and circumstances involved and report their finding in writing and signed by a majority of the committee. If, after considering the committee's report, it shall appear that there are probable grounds for charges, such charges shall be drawn up and signed by any two elders. The District Advisory Board shall give the accused notice thereof by placing such notice in the mail addressed to the accused, using certified or registered mail, or by personal delivery, within three days after they are filed with the District Advisory Board. The accused and his counsel shall have the right to examine the charges and specifications and to receive a copy thereof immediately upon request. No accused shall be required to answer charges of which he has not been informed as specified herein. [222.4]

502.2. In case charges are filed, the District Advisory Board shall appoint five elders of the district to hear the case and determine the issues; these five elders so named shall constitute a district board of discipline to conduct the hearing and dispose of the case according to the laws of the church. No district superintendent shall serve as prosecutor or as assistant to the prosecutor in the trial of an elder or licensed minister. This board of discipline shall have power to vindicate and absolve the accused in connection with said charges or to administer discipline commensurate with the offense. Such discipline may provide for repentance, confession, restitution, suspension, cancellation of credentials, expulsion from the ministry or membership of the church, or both, public or private reprimand, or such other discipline as may be appropriate including suspension or deferment of discipline during a period of probation not to exceed one year. [222.3]

502.3. When a minister is accused of immorality, or of action involving moral turpitude, disciplinary action may be taken and discipline administered by any district where such immoral acts occurred. But when disciplinary proceedings are taken on a district other than the one where the accused holds ministerial membership, only such immoral acts as may have occurred within the bounds of that district may be proved in evidence and form the basis for discipline in that proceeding.

502.4. It is provided that in no case shall disciplinary action be taken against a missionary by a national-minister district as such.

502.5. The decision of a board of discipline shall be unanimous, shall be written and signed by all members, and shall include a finding of "guilty" or "not guilty" as to each and every charge and specification.

unbecoming a minister and shall admit to guilt, or shall continue to guilt without being charged, the District Advisory Board may assess any of the disciplines provided for in §502.

503. Following a decision by a board of discipline, the accused, the District Advisory Board, or those who signed the charges shall be entitled to appeal the decision to the General Court of Appeals. The appeal shall be begun within 30 days after such decision, and the court shall review the entire record of the case and all steps which have been taken therein. If the court discovers any substantial error prejudicial to the right of any person, it shall correct such error by ordering a new hearing to be conducted in a manner capable of giving relief to that person affected adversely by previous proceedings or decision.

504. When the decision of a board of discipline is adverse to the accused minister and the decision provides for suspension from the ministry or cancellation of credentials, the minister shall thereupon immediately suspend all ministerial activity; and, if he refuses to do so, his right of appeal shall be for that reason forfeited.

504.1. When the decision of a board of discipline provides for suspension or cancellation of credentials and the accused minister desires to appeal, he shall file with the secretary of the General Court of Appeals, at the time the notice of appeal is filed, his written credentials as a minister, and his right of appeal shall be conditioned upon his compliance with this provision. When such credentials are so filed, they shall be safely kept by the said secretary until the conclusion of the case, and thereupon the same shall, either be cancelled or returned to the minister as the court may direct.

IV. RULES OF PROCEDURE

505. The General Court of Appeals shall adopt uniform Rules of Procedure governing all proceedings before boards of discipline and courts of appeal. After such rules are adopted and published, they shall be the final authority in all judicial proceedings. Printed Rules of Procedure shall be supplied by the General Secretary. Changes or amendments to such rules may be adopted by the General Court of Appeals at any time, and when these are adopted and published, they shall be effective and authoritative in all cases. Any steps which are thereafter taken in any proceeding shall be in accordance with such change or amendment. [402]

V. DISTRICT COURT OF APPEALS

506. Each regularly organized district shall have a District Court of Appeals composed of five members elected annually by the District Assembly. This court shall hear appeals of church members concerning an action of a local church or church board when they are aggrieved or adversely affected by such action. Notice of appeal must be given in writing within 30 days after such action or after appellant has knowledge thereof. Such notice shall be delivered to the District Court of Appeals or a member thereof, and a copy of such notice shall be delivered to the pastor of the local church and to the secretary of the church board concerned. [201:27, 305.]

302.2. To hear and determine appeals concerning the action of any District Assembly affecting the interests of a minister amenable to that assembly.

302.3. To hear and determine appeals from the action of any district superintendent in matters affecting the interests of a minister. When such appeals are so determined by said court, such determination shall be authoritative and final. [214, 305.8]

303. Vacancies which may exist in the General Court of Appeals during the interim between sessions of the General Assembly shall be filled by appointment of the Board of General Superintendents. [317.5]

304. Per diem and expense allowances for members of the General Court of Appeals shall be the same as that of members of the General Board of the church, when the members of the court are engaged in official business of the court, and payment therefor shall be made by the General Treasurer.

310. The General Secretary shall be custodian of all permanent records and decisions of the General Court of Appeals. [323.4]

VII. GUARANTY OF RIGHTS

311. The right to a fair and impartial hearing of charges pending against an accused minister or layman shall not be denied or unduly postponed. Written charges shall be given an early hearing in order that the innocent may be absolved and the guilty brought to discipline. Every accused is entitled to the presumption that he is innocent until proven guilty. As to each charge and specification, the prosecution shall have the burden of proving guilt to a moral certainty and beyond a reasonable doubt.

§11.1. The cost of preparing the record of a case, including a verbatim transcript of all testimony given at the trial, for the purpose of an appeal to the General Court of Appeals, shall be borne by the district where the hearing was held and disciplinary action taken. Every minister or layman who appeals shall have the right to present oral as well as written argument upon his appeal, but this right may be waived in writing by the accused.

§11.2. A minister or layman who is accused of misconduct or any violation of the church Manual and against whom charges are pending shall have the right to meet his or her accusers face-to-face and to examine the witnesses for the prosecution.

§11.3. The testimony of any witness before a board of discipline shall not be received or considered in evidence unless such testimony be given under oath or solemn affirmation.

§11.4. A minister or layman who is brought before a board of discipline to answer charges shall always have the right to be represented by counsel of his or her own choosing, provided such counsel be a member in good standing in the Church of the Nazarene. Any full member of a regularly organized church against whom no written charges are pending will be considered in good standing.

§11.8. A minister or layman shall not be required to answer charges for any act which occurred more than five years before the filing of such charges, and no evidence will be considered at any hearing for any matter which occurred more than five years before the charges were filed.

§11.8. A minister or layman shall not be twice placed in jeopardy for the same offense. It shall not be considered, however, that such person was placed in jeopardy at any hearing or proceeding where the court of appeals discovers reversible error committed in the original proceeding before a board of discipline.

500. THE SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

500.1. The Baptism of Believers

DEARLY BELIEVERS: Baptism is the sign and seal of the new covenant of grace, the significance of which is attested by the apostle Paul in his letter to the Romans as follows:

"Know ye not, that so many of us as were baptized into Jesus Christ were baptized into his death? Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death: that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life. For if we have been planted together in the likeness of his death, we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection" (Romans 6:3-5).

The earliest and simplest statement of Christian belief, into which you now come to be baptized, is the Apostles' Creed, which reads as follows:

"I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth;

"And in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; He descended into hell; the third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

"I believe in the Holy Ghost, the holy Church of Jesus Christ, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting."

Will you be baptized into this faith? If so, answer,

"I will."

Response: I will.

Do you acknowledge Jesus Christ as your personal Savior, and do you realize that He saves you now?

Response: I do.

Will you obey God's holy will and keep His commandments, walking in them all the days of your life?

Response: I will.

The minister, giving the full name of the person and using the preferred form of baptism—sprinkling, pouring, or immersion—shall say:

_____, I baptize thee in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, Amen.

800.2. The Baptism of Young Children

When the sponsors shall have presented themselves with the child (or children) before the minister at his call, the minister shall say:

DEARLY BELOVED: While we do not hold that baptism imparts the regenerating grace of God, we do believe that Christ gave this holy sacrament as a sign and seal of the new covenant. Christian baptism signifies for this young child God's gracious acceptance on the basis of His prevenient grace in Christ, and points forward to his/her personal appropriation of the benefits of the Atonement when he/she reaches the age of moral accountability and exercises conscious saving faith in Jesus Christ.

In presenting this child for baptism you are hereby witnessing to your own personal Christian faith and to your purpose to guide him/her early in life to a knowledge of Christ as Savior. To this end it is your duty to teach him/her, as soon as he/she shall be able to learn, the nature and end of this holy sacrament; to watch over his/her education, that he/she may not be led astray; to direct his/her feet to the sanctuary; to restrain him/her from evil associates and habits; and as much as in you lies, to bring him/her up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.

Will you endeavor to do so by the help of God? If so, answer, "I will."

The minister may then ask the parents or guardians to name the child; he shall then baptize the child, repeating his/her full name and saying:

_____, I baptize thee in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

The minister may then offer the following prayer or may use an extemporary prayer:

Heavenly Father, we humbly pray that Thou wilt take this child into Thy loving care. Abundantly enrich him/her with Thy heavenly grace; bring him/her safely through the perils of childhood; deliver him/her from the temptations of youth; lead him/her to a personal knowledge of Christ as Savior; help him/her to grow in wisdom, and in stature, and in favor with God and man, and to persevere therein to the end. Uphold the parents with loving care, that with wise counsel and holy example they may faithfully discharge their responsibilities to both this child and to Thee. In the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

800.3. The Dedication of Infants or Young Children

When the parents or guardians have presented themselves with the child (or children) before the minister at his call, the minister shall say:

"Then were brought unto him little children, that he should put his hands on them, and pray; and the disciples rebuked them. But Jesus said, Suffer little children, and forbid them not, to come unto me; for of such is the kingdom of heaven."

In presenting this child for dedication you not only signify your faith in the Christian religion, but also your desire that he/she may early know and follow the will of God, may live and die a Christian, and come unto everlasting blessedness.

In order to attain this holy end, it will be your duty, as parents [guardians], to teach him/her early the fear of the Lord, to watch over his/her education, that he/she be not led astray; to direct his/her youthful mind to the Holy Scriptures, and his/her feet to the sanctuary; to restrain him/her from evil associates and habits; and, as much as in you lies, to bring him/her up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.

Will you endeavor to do so by the help of God? If so, answer, "I will."

Our loving Heavenly Father, we do here and now dedicate _____ in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Then the minister may offer the following prayer, or may use an extemporary prayer.

Heavenly Father, we humbly pray that Thou wilt take this child into Thy loving care. Abundantly enrich him/her with Thy heavenly grace; bring him/her safely through the perils of childhood; deliver him/her from the temptations of youth; lead him/her to a personal knowledge of Christ as Savior; help him/her to grow in wisdom, and in stature, and in favor with God and man, and to persevere therein to the end. Uphold the parents with loving care, that with wise counsel and holy example they may faithfully discharge their responsibilities both to this child and to Thee. In the name of Jesus Christ our Lord, Amen.

361. THE RECEPTION OF CHURCH MEMBERS

The appropriate benediction having been pronounced in accord with the order of the Church, the pastor shall address them as follows:

DEARLY BELOVED: The privileges and blessings which we have in association together in the Church of Jesus Christ are very sacred and precious. There is in it such hallowed fellowship as cannot otherwise be known.

There is such helpfulness with brotherly watch care and counsel as can be found only in the Church.

There is the golly care of pastors, with the teachings of the Word; and the helpful inspiration of social worship. And there is cooperation in service, accomplishing that which cannot otherwise be done.

The doctrines upon which the church rests as essential to Christian experience are brief. We believe in God the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. We especially emphasize the deity of Jesus Christ and the personality of the Holy Spirit.

We believe that man is born in sin; that he needs the work of forgiveness through Christ and the new birth by the Holy Spirit; that subsequent to this there is the deeper work of heart-cleansing or entire sanctification through the infilling of the Holy Spirit, and that to each of these works of grace the Holy Spirit gives witness.

We believe that our Lord will return, the dead shall be raised, and that all shall come to final judgment with its rewards and punishments.

Do you heartily believe these truths? If so, answer: "I do."

Do you acknowledge Jesus Christ as your personal Saviour, and do you realize that He saves you now?

Response: I do.

Desiring to unite with the Church of the Nazarene, do you covenant to give yourself to the fellowship and work of God in conjunction with it, as set forth in the General Rules and Special Rules of the Church of the Nazarene? Will you endeavor in every way to glorify God, by a humble walk, godly conversation, and holy service; by devotedly giving of your means; by faithful attendance upon the means of grace; and, abstaining from all evil, will you seek earnestly to perfect holiness of heart and life in the fear of the Lord?

Response: I will.

The minister shall then lay his hands on persons.

I welcome you into this church, to its sacred fellowship, responsibilities, and privileges. May the great Head of the Church bless and keep you, and enable you to be faithful in all good works, that your life and witness may be effective in leading others to Christ.

He shall then take each one by the hand, and with appropriate words of personal greeting welcome each into the church.

(Minister: Speak for members joining by letter or transfer.)

_____, formerly a member [members] of the Church of the Nazarene in _____ comes [come] to join the fellowship of this local congregation.

While each by the hand or gesture to the group, the minister shall say:

It gives me pleasure on behalf of this church to welcome you into our membership. We trust that we will be a source of encouragement and strength to you and that you, in turn, will be a source of blessing and help to us. May the Lord richly bless you in the salvation of souls and in the advancement of His kingdom.

802. THE SACRAMENT OF THE LORD'S SUPPER

The administration of the Lord's Supper may be simplified by an appropriate service and the reading of 1 Corinthians 11:23-26, Luke 22:14-20, or some other suitable passage. Let the minister then give the following exhortation.

The Lord himself ordained this holy sacrament. He commanded His disciples to partake of the bread and wine, emblems of His broken body and shed blood. This is His table. The feast is for His disciples. Let all those who have with true repentance forsaken their sins, and have believed in Christ unto salvation, draw near and take these emblems, and, by faith, partake of the life of Jesus Christ, to your soul's comfort and joy. Let us remember that it is the memorial of the death and passion of our Lord; also a token of His coming again. Let us not forget that we are one, at one table with the Lord.

The service may end a prayer of confession and absolution, concluding with the blessing given at communion.

Almighty God, our Heavenly Father, who of Thy tender mercy didst give Thine only Son, Jesus Christ, to suffer death upon the Cross for our redemption: hear us, we most humbly beseech Thee. Grant that, as we receive these Thy creatures of bread and wine according to the holy institution of Thy Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ, in remembrance of His passion and death, we may be made partakers of the benefits of His atoning sacrifice.

We are reminded that, in the same night that our Lord was betrayed, He took bread and, when He had given thanks. He broke it and gave it to His disciples, saying, "Take, eat: this is My body, which is broken for you: do this in remembrance of Me." Likewise, after supper, He took the cup, and when He had given thanks, He gave it to them, saying, "Drink ye all of this, for this is My blood of the New Testament, which is shed for you and for many, for the remission of sins: do this, as oft as ye shall drink it, in remembrance of Me."

May we come before Thee in true humility and faith as we partake of this holy sacrament. Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then take the minister, first partaking himself, with the assistance of one other minister present, and when necessary, of the people, administer the Sacrament to the people.

While the bread is being distributed, let the minister say:

The body of our Lord Jesus Christ, which was broken for you, preserve you blameless unto everlasting life. Take and eat this, in remembrance that Christ died for you.

As the cup is being passed, let the minister say:

The blood of our Lord Jesus Christ, which was shed for you, preserve you blameless unto everlasting life. Drink this, in remembrance that Christ's blood was shed for you, and be thankful.

After all have partaken, the minister may then offer a concluding prayer of thanksgiving and commendation.

[R.S., 115.A, 115.10, 403.A, 404]

803. MATRIMONY

At the day and time appointed for the solemnization of matrimony, the persons to be married—being first qualified according to law—standing together the man on the right hand and the woman on the left, the minister shall address the congregation as follows:

DEARLY BELOVED: We are gathered together here in the sight of God, and in the presence of these witnesses, to join together this man and this woman in holy matrimony, which is an honorable estate, instituted of God in the time of man's innocency, signifying unto us the mystical union that exists between Christ and His Church. This holy estate Christ adorned and beautified with His presence and first miracle that He wrought, in Cana of Galilee, and St. Paul commended as being honorable among all men. It is, therefore, not to be entered into unadvisedly, but reverently, distinctly, and in the fear of God.

Into this holy estate these persons present now come to be joined.

Addressing the couple to be married, the minister shall say:

_____ and _____, I require and charge you both that, if either of you knows any impediment why you may not be lawfully joined together in matrimony, you do now confess it: for be well assured that as many as are coupled together otherwise than God's Word allows are not joined together by God, neither is their matrimony lawful.

If no impediment be alleged, then shall the minister say unto the man:

_____, will you have this woman to be your wedded wife, to live together after God's ordinance in the holy estate of matrimony? Will you love her, comfort her, honour and keep her in sickness and in health; and forsaking all others, keep yourself only unto her, as long as you both shall live?

Response: I will.

Then shall the minister say unto the woman:

_____, will you have this man to be your wedded husband, to live together after God's ordinance in the holy estate of matrimony? Will you love, honor, and keep him, in sickness and in health; and, forsaking all others, keep yourself only unto him, so long as you both shall live?

Response: I will.

Then the woman shall ask:

Who gives this woman to be married to this man?

Response (By the father, or whoever gives the bride in marriage): I do.

Having each other and joining right hands, the couple shall then exchange the following vows:

The man shall speak after the minister:

I, _____, take you, _____ to be my wedded wife, to have and to hold from this day forward, for better—for worse, for richer—for poorer, in sickness and in health, to love and to cherish, till death us do part, according to God's holy ordinance; and thereto I pledge you my faith.

The woman shall repeat after the minister:

I, _____, take you, _____ to be my wedded husband, to have and to hold from this day forward, for better—for worse, for richer—for poorer, in sickness and in health, to love and to cherish, till death us do part, according to God's holy ordinance; and thereto I pledge you my faith.

It should, a day or more, may be recited at this point. The minister recites the vow from the government side, to wit, gives it to the guests, as he may please to use the bride's answer. He shall repeat after the minister:

This ring I give you as a token of my love and as a pledge of my constant fidelity,

The couple then shall kneel as they witness after the following, at all seasons, prayer.

O Eternal God, Creator and Preserver of all mankind, Giver of all spiritual grace, the Author of everlasting life, send Thy blessing upon these Thy servants, this man and this woman, whom we now bless in Thy name; that as Isaac and Rebekah lived faithfully together, so these persons may surely perform and keep the vow and covenant made between them this hour and may ever remain in love and peace together, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then shall the minister say:

Whereas this man and woman have consented together in holy wedlock, and have witnessed the same before God and this company, and have declared the same by joining of hands, I pronounce that they are husband and wife together, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Those whom God has joined together let not man put asunder. Amen.

The minister shall then add his blessing:

God, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, bless, preserve, and keep you; the Lord mercifully with His favor look upon you, and fill you with all spiritual benediction and grace. May you so live together in this life that in the world to come you may have life everlasting.

The minister may then conclude with an accompanying prayer with attendance.

894. THE FUNERAL SERVICE

DEARLY BELOVED: We are gathered today to pay our final tribute of respect to that which was mortal of our deceased loved one and friend. To you members of the family who mourn your loss, we especially offer our deep and sincere sympathy. May we share with you the comfort afforded by God's Word for such a time as this:

"Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you, I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also." (John 14:1-3).

"I am the resurrection and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: and whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die" (John 11:25-26).

INVOCATION (In the minister's own words or the following):

Almighty God, our Heavenly Father, we come into this sanctuary of sorrow, realizing our utter dependence upon Thee. We know Thou dost love us and canst turn even the shadow of death into the light of morning. Help us now to wait before Thee with reverent and submissive hearts.

Thou art our Refuge and Strength, O God—a very present Help in time of trouble. Grant unto us Thy abundant mercy. May those who mourn today find comfort and healing balm in Thy sustaining cross.

We humbly bring these petitions in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

A HYMN ON SPECIAL SONS

SELACTNESS OF SCRIPTURE

"Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, to an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you, who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. Wherein ye greatly rejoice, though now for a season, if need be, ye are in heaviness through manifold temptations: that the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise and honour and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ: whom having not seen, ye love; in whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory: receiving the end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls" (1 Peter 1:3-9).

Other passages which might be used are: Matthew 13:43-45 & 11; John 15:1-8, 16:22-24, 17:24.

MESSAGE

CLOSING PRAYER

At the Graveside:

When the words have concluded, the minister may read any or all of the following scriptures.

"For I know that my redeemer liveth, and that he shall stand at the latter day upon the earth: and though after my skin worms destroy this body, yet in my flesh shall I see God: whom I shall see for myself, and mine eyes shall behold, and not another" (Job 19:25-27).

"Behold, I show you a mystery; We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed. . . ."

"Then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory. O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory? The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law. But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

"Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye stedfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, inasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord" (1 Corinthians 15:51-58).

"I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth. Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them." (Revelation 14:13).

The minister shall then read one of the following personal messages:

For a Believer:

Forasmuch as the spirit of our departed loved one has returned to God, who gave it, we therefore tenderly commit [his/her] body to the grave in sure trust and certain hope of the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come, through our Lord Jesus Christ, who shall give to us new bodies like unto His glorious body. "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord."

For a Nonbeliever:

We have come now to commit the body of our departed friend to its kindred dust. The spirit we leave with God, for we know the merciful Judge of all the earth will do right. Let us who remain dedicate ourselves anew to live in the fear and love of God, so that we may obtain an abundant entrance into the heavenly Kingdom.

For a Child:

In the sure and certain hope of the resurrection to eternal life through our Lord Jesus Christ, we commit the body of this child to the grave. And as Jesus, during His earthly life, took the children into His arms and blessed them, may He receive this dear one unto Himself, for, as He said, "of such is the kingdom of heaven."

PRAYER:

Our Heavenly Father, God of all mercy, we look to Thee in this moment of sorrow and bereavement. Comfort these dear ones whose hearts are heavy and sad. Wilt Thou be with them, sustain and guide them in the days to come. Grant, O Lord, that they may love and serve Thee and obtain the fullness of Thy promises in the world to come.

"Now the God of peace, that brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant, make you perfect in every good work to do his will, working in you that which is wellpleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ; to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen" (Hebrews 13:20-21).

86. INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS

Following the reading of an appropriate hymn, let the secretary read the names and positions of the officers to be installed. These may come forward and stand at the altar of our church, having the approval of conscience and shall be credited for such. The secretary shall then say:

Recognizing God's method of setting apart certain workers for specific areas of Christian service, we come to this moment of installation of these officers [and/or teachers] who have been duly chosen to serve in our church for the ensuing year. Let us consider God's instructions to us from His Holy Word.

"I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service; And be not conformed to this world; but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God" (Romans 12:1-2).

"Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth" (2 Timothy 2:15).

"Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord" (Colossians 3:16).

"Let him that is taught, in the word communicate unto him that teacheth in all good things" (Galatians 6:6).

—Usual text from the Common Primitivizing Bible.

We now come to this important moment when you who stand before the altar are to take upon yourselves the task of caring for the affairs of the church and its auxiliary organizations. May you look upon the assignments you now assume as special opportunities for service for our Lord, and may you find joy and spiritual blessing in the performance of your respective duties.

Yours is no light task, for the upping of the church and the destiny of souls are in your hands. The development of Christian character is your responsibility, and leading the unaved to Jesus Christ is your highest objective. May God grant you wisdom and strength as you do His work for His glory.

You have been given a card on which is printed a covenant. We shall read it in unison, and as we do so, let us make it a personal commitment.

Worshiper's Covenant

In consideration of the confidence placed in me by the church in being selected for the office I now assume, I hereby covenant:

To maintain a high standard of Christian living and example in harmony with the ideals and standards of the Church of the Nazarene.

To cultivate my personal Christian experience by setting aside each day a definite time for prayer and Bible reading.

To be present at the regular Sunday services, the Sunday morning and Sunday evening preaching services, and the midweek prayer meeting of the church, unless providentially hindered.

To attend faithfully all duly called meetings of the various boards, councils, or committees to which I have been, or will be, assigned.

To notify my superior officer if I am unable to be present at the stated time, or to carry out my responsibilities in this office.

To read widely the denominational publications, and other books and literature which will be helpful to me in discharging the duties of my office.

To improve myself and my skills by participating in Christian Service Training courses as opportunity is afforded.

To endeavor to lead people to Jesus Christ by manifesting an active interest in the spiritual welfare of others and by attending and supporting all evangelistic meetings in the church.

The witness shall then utter an appropriate prayer, and a special song of adoration may be sung, after which he shall say:

Having pledged together your hearts and hands to the task of carrying forward the work of this church in your particular assignments, I herewith install you in the respective positions to which you have been elected or appointed. 1. This convention shall be composed of the following members: members of the General Council; district NWMS presidents; two delegates from each regular or mission district of 1,000 or fewer active NWMS members, and not additional delegates for each additional 700 members (or final major portion thereof); delegates to be elected by ballot by majority vote by the District Convention within 28 months of the General Convention. The number to be nominated on the ballot shall be three times the number of delegates to be elected.

There shall also be one delegate from each pioneer or national-mission district; this delegate to be the district NWMS president; one missionary delegate for each of the first 50 or fewer missionaries from each of the following world mission regions: (1) Africa Region; (2) Asia Region; (3) Europe, Middle East Region; (4) Mexico, Central America, and Caribbean Region; (5) South America Region; and (6) South Pacific Region; and one additional missionary delegate for the next 50 missionaries or final major fraction thereof, nominated by the mission councils in each region, and elected by the Department of World Mission.

All members of the General Convention shall be members of the Church of the Nazarene at the time of the General Convention.

2. Any elected General Convention delegate must be at the time of the General NWMS Convention residing on the district. If any elected delegate moves off the district, the privilege of representing the former district is forfeited. (Not intended to apply to those living near district boundaries where their home residence may be across the line from the place of regular church participation.)

3. In the event the district president cannot attend the General Convention, the district vice-president (an official shall be allowed to represent the district).

4. In the case of world mission districts, General Convention representation shall be governed by the divisions of the general church and their respective policies.

ARTICLE III. General Council

SECTION 1. Nominations and Election of the General President

The general president shall be elected from nominees selected by a nominating committee composed of the General Council region representatives, the general director, and one other representative from each geographic region appointed by the executive committee of the General Council. No two members of the nominating committee may be from the same district. The general director shall serve as chairman of the nominating committee.

The committee shall submit the names of two and not more than three persons for general president. The nominations shall be approved by the Board of General Superintendents.

From these nominees the General Convention shall elect by two-thirds majority vote by ballot a general president.

The term of the general president shall be limited to two quadrennia.

The general president shall be an ex officio member of the General Council, and shall serve without salary.

Sec. 2. Election of the General NWMS Council

The members of the General NWMS Council shall consist of one representative per region.

A member of the General Council shall be a member of and reside in the region he/she represents, except in the case he/she moves from that region within 12 months prior to the General Convention.

All council members (except general president and general director, otherwise provided for) shall be elected by the General Convention by majority vote by ballot. The two best different districts receiving the highest number of votes on the first ballot shall be declared General Council nominees. In the case of a tie between second and third or any decisive position, the region concerned shall meet to vote off the tie.

The term of service of a General Council member shall be limited to two consecutive quadrennia.

The executive director of the Department of World Mission shall be an ex officio member of the General Council.

Sec. 3. Nomination of General Council Members

Region representatives on the General Council shall be nominated by region caucuses, held at the General Convention, each district on the region having the privilege of submitting two names from the district to the caucus.

The region in caucus shall elect by ballot the nominees from the region (twice the number to be elected). Of the nominees submitted to the General Convention for election, no two shall be from the same district until each district on the region has one representative.

Sec. 4. Council Organization

The council shall approve by two-thirds vote by ballot a general director who shall be nominated by the executive director of the Department of World Mission and the Board of General Superintendents. In the event the nomination is not approved, the executive director of the Department of World Mission, and the Board of General Superintendents shall submit further nominations until one is approved by two-thirds ballot vote of the council. The general director shall be an ex officio member of the General NWMS Council and a member of the staff of the Department of World Mission.

The council shall also elect from its own number a vice-president and two other members, who with the general president and general director shall constitute the Executive Committee, three of whom shall constitute a quorum.

The General Council shall be authorized to elect a Man in Mission director-at-large, to serve as a voting member of the council, if at the time of organizing and assigning the various emphases, they find that no one has been elected to the council who is qualified to carry out the growing responsibilities of the program of Man in Mission.

Council members shall hold office until the final adjournment of the next General Convention, except as provided for in Section 2, and until their successors are elected and qualified. The council shall assign to its members responsibility for the various emphases and projects.

Sec. 3. The Executive Committee

The Executive Committee shall:

1. In case of vacancy in the general presidency in the interim between sessions of the General Convention, submit the names of two nominees for general president in accordance with Article IV, Section 1, of the General Constitution.
2. Transact any business deemed necessary between sessions of the General Council.

Sec. 4. General Superintendent Advisor

The general superintendent shall be appointed by the Board of General Superintendents as advisor to the General Council to serve for the quadrennium.

Board of the Church of the Nazarene as a representative of the General Nazarene World Mission Society.

Sec. 8. Council Meeting

The council shall meet annually prior to the meeting of the General Board. Seven shall constitute a quorum. A condensed report of the business transacted in the annual meeting of the council shall be referred to the Department of World Mission for approval.

ARTICLE IV. VACANCY

Section 1. General President

Should a vacancy occur in the office of general president in the interim between sessions of the General Convention, a general president shall be elected from nominees selected by the Executive Committee of the General Council in consultation with the general superintendent advisor by two-thirds vote of all district presidents to fill the vacancy and to perform the duties of general president until adjournment of the next General Convention; provided the question of calling for an election to fill the vacancy shall be decided by the General Council in consultation with the general superintendent advisor.

Sec. 2. Council

Should a vacancy occur in the council during the quadrennium, the Executive Committee shall present two names as nominees approved by the Department of World Mission and the Board of General Superintendents. The vacancy shall then be filled by majority vote by ballot of the members of the council provided that the question of calling for an election to fill the vacancy is approved by the Department of World Mission and the Board of General Superintendents.

Sec. 3. Executive Committee

Should a vacancy occur in the Executive Committee during the quadrennium, two names as nominees from the council ed shall be presented. The vacancy shall then be filled by a majority vote by ballot of the council.

ARTICLE V. Amendments

This constitution may be amended by a two-thirds vote of members present and voting at a General Convention of the General Nazarene World Mission Society, and with the approval of the Department of World Mission.

CHAPTER III

42. BYLAWS OF THE SUNDAY SCHOOL

Purpose.

The purpose of the Sunday school is basically twofold:

1. To teach the Word of God effectively until people are saved, sanctified wholly, and restoring in Christian experience.

2. To help Christians grow spiritually by involving them in a teaching, teaching, and soul-winning ministry.

3. To locate and visit unchurched people until they become enrolled and regular in attendance.

ARTICLE I. Membership

SECTION 1. Membership in the Sunday school of the Church of the Nazarene is open to all who desire the help and association this school offers and who consent to become members under the provision of the Manual and these bylaws. There shall be four classes of members: namely, Sunday school, outreach, Cradle Roll, and Home Department. [102]

SEC. 2. All persons who declare their willingness to attend with some degree of regularity are eligible for Sunday school membership and may be enrolled at once.

SEC. 3. Sunday school members should be dropped from the roll immediately when they join another Sunday school, move out of town, die, or specifically ask to have their names removed. Members who have ceased to attend but who still live in the community should be removed only after every effort has been made by the teacher, supervisor, superintendent, and pastor to gain their attendance. A non-attending member may be transferred to another class upon recommendation of the supervisor and/or superintendent in the interest of gaining his regular attendance. Non-attending members should be removed only upon approval of the pastor.

Art. 4. Cradle Roll members shall be children under five years of age, enrolled in the Cradle Roll department, who do not attend Sunday school. Cradle Roll members shall be enrolled by the Cradle Roll supervisor or "department visitors." All Cradle Roll members are a part of the total Sunday school enrollment, just as are Home Department members.

All children on the Cradle Roll should be considered as prospects for the Nursery Department. The parents of these children are prospects for the Young Adult Department or class.

Any children on the Cradle Roll who have not started attending Sunday school by their fourth birthday should be transferred to the prospect list of the Kindergarten Department.

Children remain on the Cradle Roll until they come to Sunday school with some regularity. They are then enrolled in a nursery class suitable for their age—nursery one, nursery one (toddlers), nursery two, or nursery three. When enrolled in the Nursery Department, they are taken off the Cradle Roll and placed on a class roll. They are counted in the Sunday school's enrollment, and in the attendance when they are present.

It is recommended that the Cradle Roll be sponsored as a project by a young married people's Sunday school class, or a young married people's department.

Art. 5. Home Department members shall be enrolled by the supervisor of the Home Department, or the director of senior adult ministries, who may also be serving as supervise of the Home Department.

When Home Department members are present in the Sunday school, they should be counted as visitors in the class where they attend.

It is recommended that the Home Department be sponsored by senior adult ministries or as a project of an adult class or department of the Sunday school, in the event there is no Senior Adult Ministries program or officers.

ARTICLE II. Attendance

Section 1. Sunday school attendance represents the number of different persons studying the Bible each week during a regular Sunday school hour session. Outreach type or other related ministries (such as nursing homes, day-care centers, weekday Bible studies, Christian schools, etc.) should be reported separately and should not be counted as Sunday school. Attendance counts shall be closed not later than the halfway point of the Sunday school session. This shall also apply to unified or special services.

Sec. 2. All regular Sunday school sessions shall be used in determining the average attendance for the year.

The number of sessions used to determine Sunday school average attendance shall also be used to determine outreach average.

Total Accumulative Outreach Attendance	1,785
Total Sunday School Sessions	211
Outreach Average Attendance	= 85

Sec. 3. When a group of persons under the supervision of the associate superintendent of outreach or under the Home Department meets regularly each week for not less than one-half hour of Bible study at a time or place other than the regular Sunday school, such a group shall be known as an outreach school.

Sec. 4. When a church sponsors an outreach school, enrollment and attendance of the outreach school are to be credited as outreach and not a part of the Sunday school.

attendance. Records from the outreach school are to be included in the records of the sponsoring school, but shown as separate items in local and district reports as follows:

Sunday School Attendance	120
Outreach Classes	22

Outreach class attendance shall be posted separately from Sunday school attendance the following Sunday.

When two or more churches sponsor the same outreach school, enrollment and attendance figures are to be equally divided among sponsoring churches.

ART. 3. A member in a local Sunday school shall be considered present in his/her local Sunday school when attending on that Sunday, a local, zone, district, region, or general church-sponsored function as a retreat, assembly, camp meeting, etc., as long as he/she is not counted in another local Sunday school where he/she is attending. Such functions shall include not less than one half hour of Bible study at a place other than the regular Sunday school.

ARTICLE III. Classes and Departments

ARTICLE 1. For the teaching work and certain group activities the Sunday school shall be divided into classes on the basis of school grade or age and other conditions. Each class shall be under the care of a competent teacher suited to the group age.

ART. 2. For the most effective work a Sunday school should be departmentalized. Even a small school, if there be more than one class for children, will progress more rapidly if there is a department supervisor to coordinate the work of the children's classes. As soon as there are two or more classes within a given age-group, e.g., juniors (10 and 11 years), someone should be appointed as the junior supervisor even though a separate worship service for juniors is not possible. A youth supervisor and an adult supervisor should be appointed as soon as there are two or more classes in either of these age-groups. It shall be the duty of the department supervisor, in harmony with the Manual and the by-laws of the Sunday school: (a) to attend all cabinet meetings, and to provide at all meetings of his department workers; (b) with the superintendent to nominate to the Board of Christian Life and Sunday School and the pastor such teachers as may be needed, and provide such other officers and helpers as may be required for the most efficient work of the department; and (c) to cooperate with the pastor and superintendent in their plans for the general advancement of the school.

Sec. 3. Each Sunday school class above primary age should be organized to carry out Christian service projects and other helpful class activities.

Sec. 4. The Division of Christian Life and Sunday School will, upon request, furnish full instructions for a plan to departmentalize the Sunday school.

ARTICLE IV. Teachers

Section 1. The teachers of the Sunday school shall be nominated annually by the division superintendents, approved by the Board of Christian Life and Sunday School, and appointed by the pastor. In the case of schools having departments, the nomination shall be made by the Sunday school division superintendent and the department supervisor of the department in which the teachers are to serve.

Sec. 2. In the case of properly proved unorthodoxy of doctrine, imprudent conduct, or neglect of duty, the Board of Christian Life and Sunday School shall have the right to declare the office of any officer or teacher vacant by a two-thirds vote of all members of the board. [187.10]

ARTICLE V. Officers and Their Duties

Section 1. The officers of the Sunday school shall be superintendents, an associate superintendent, of outreach, assistant superintendents, a secretary, a treasurer, a librarian, departmental supervisors, and such other officers as may be needed. These shall be elected according to 184.6, 187-92.

Sec. 2. It shall be the duty of the superintendents (a) to administer the affairs of the school according to the provisions of the Manual and the bylaws; (b) to counsel with the supervisors and/or teachers relative to their work; (c) to give a monthly report to the Board of Christian Life and Sunday School; (d) to cooperate with the District Board of Christian Life and Sunday School and the General Division of Christian Life and Sunday School in the promotion of the Sunday school work.

Sec. 2. It shall be the duty of the associate superintendent of outreach, in cooperation with the pastor and superintendents, to initiate, staff, and supervise outreach classes and schools. These may be home Bible study groups, children's Bible clubs, neighborhood Sunday schools, or other group meetings for Bible study to reach new people who do not voluntarily attend the church.

Sec. 3. It shall be the duty of the secretary (a) to be familiar with the official National Sunday school record system; (b) to keep an accurate record of the enrollment of the entire school (regular enrollment cards should be used), the record of attendance, absences, visitors, and such other items as may be required; (c) to keep correct minutes of all meetings of the Sunday school cabinet; (d) and to fill out and forward promptly all statistical and informational blanks requested by the pastor, the District Board of Christian Life and Sunday School, and the General Division of Christian Life and Sunday School.

Sec. 4. It shall be the duty of the treasurer to receive all funds raised by the Sunday school and direct disbursement of the same as directed by the budget and policies laid down by the Board of Christian Life and Sunday School. He shall keep an accurate account of all finances and make a monthly, detailed report to the cabinet and a quarterly report to the Board of Christian Life and Sunday School of all receipts, expenditures, and obligations.

In the small school one person may serve as secretary-treasurer.

Sec. 5. It is well to have a librarian, whose duty will be (a) to have charge of all Sunday school literature, books, and periodicals, and direct their proper distribution; (b) to promote and have charge of a workers' library; (c) to create through the school an appreciation of wholesome literature and encourage the reading of the same.

Art. 7. A music committee with the following duties may be provided: (a) to have general charge of the music of the school; (b) to see that proper persons are selected to lead the singing and play the musical instruments; (c) to see that proper songbooks are provided for each department; (d) to create throughout the school an appreciation for wholesome music in Christian worship and character building; (e) to organize and promote such ensemble work as may be desirable and helpful.

ARTICLE VI. Administration and Supervision

Section 1. The school is an organic part of the local church, and of the local church educational program. It is under the general supervision of the Board of Christian Life and Sunday School, the care of the pastor, and the immediate leadership of the Sunday school superintendents.

Sec. 2. Each Sunday school shall have a cabinet in which the administrative and promotional work of the school is vested. This cabinet shall be composed of the division superintendents and the department supervisors, if any, of the Sunday school. In case it shall be deemed preferable by the local church, the members of the Board of Christian Life and Sunday School and/or the Sunday school teachers may be included in the membership of the Sunday school cabinet. The chairman of the Board of Christian Life and Sunday School shall convene the cabinet each month after the last Sunday school session.

The cabinet is the goal-setting, program-planning, and problem-solving organization of the Sunday school.

Sec. 3. A Sunday school workers' meeting shall be held each month or week. It may be (a) a general meeting composed of all teachers and officers, (b) a general meeting with department or class meetings following, or (c) a meeting by departments for the full time. In general meetings the superintendent, pastor, or educational director may preside. These meetings shall be planned in advance to provide for devotions, review of progress, study and discussion for improvement, new plans, and general inspiration and fellowship. General policies and needs developing out of these meetings shall be passed on to the proper executive body for official action and execution.

Article VII. Conventions

1. District Conventions — All pastors, full-time associates, Sunday school superintendents, chairmen of the boards of Christian life, and department supervisors shall be members of the District Convention ex officio. [200]

Each local Sunday school shall elect additional representatives equal to 25 percent of the officers and teachers of the school.

The Board of Christian Life and Sunday School shall serve as a nominating committee to select at least the number of nominees to be elected.

Nominees shall be chosen from Sunday school officers, teachers, and workers in other Christian life areas such as vocation bible school, Casaca, children's church, Christian Service Training, Christian family life, Home Department, Cradle Roll, visitation, etc.

In selecting nominees, attention should be given to areas of work to be emphasized in the convention. Efforts should be made to select nominees from teachers in the various age-groups of the Sunday school. All nominees shall be members of the Church of the Nazarene.

Representatives shall be elected by ballot at any regular Sunday school session. Members of the Sunday school of junior high age (11 years) and older shall be eligible to vote. It is provided, however, that the local Board of Christian Life and Sunday School may serve as the elective body for convention representatives where desired.

Plurality vote shall be sufficient for election. In case elected representatives cannot attend, alternate representatives shall be designated in the order of the votes received.

Interested persons not elected as representatives should be encouraged to attend the convention.

Elected representatives should be given priority in any financial assistance provided by the church.

1. General Convention—Executives and staff of the Division of Christian Life and Sunday School, professors of Christian education at our colleges and seminary, district superintendents, district chairmen, district directors of children, district directors of youth, and district directors of adults shall be representatives ex officio in the General Convention.

Each district delegation is further composed of five elected representatives whose is the number equal to the district ex officio members (including the director of youth/NTI who is elected by the NTI Convention) or a number equal to 1 percent of the Sunday school officers and teachers on the district, whichever number is larger.

The following guidelines should be adhered to in elections for General Convention representatives:

(1) The nominating committee shall be comprised of the district superintendent, District Board of Christian Life and Sunday School chairman, and at least three others appointed by the Board of Christian Life and Sunday School. They shall select three times the number of nominees to be elected.

(2) Nominees should include District Board of Christian Life and Sunday School members (including ex officio members), local chairmen and directors, and outstanding Sunday school teachers and officers.

Persons should not be elected who will serve as delegates to the General Nazarene World Mission Society Convention. The two conventions run concurrently, and one person cannot effectively represent his district in both conventions.

(3) Representatives shall be elected by ballot in the District Christian Life and Sunday School Convention (except youth/NTI representatives) within 18 months prior to the General Convention. The NTI Convention shall elect youth representatives within 18 months of the General NTI Convention according to the NTI Constitution (Manual paragraph 810.3, Article II, Section 3), and the General NTI Convention shall be considered the youth section of the General Christian Life and Sunday School Convention.

(4) As nearly as possible, elect an equal number of laymen and clergy—that is, 50 percent laymen and 50 percent full-time active ministers, elders or licensed ministers. When the total number is uneven, the extra representative shall be a layman.

(5) Incumbent district Christian Life and Sunday School leaders newly elected prior to and holding office at the time of the General Convention shall be the ex officio members of the convention.

(6) All elected and ex officio representatives present in the District Convention shall be eligible to vote.

(7) A plurality vote shall be sufficient for election.

(8) In case elected representatives cannot attend, alternate representatives shall be designated in the order of the votes they receive on a new ballot.

(9) If a district cannot finance the full number of representatives to the General Christian Life and Sunday School Convention as prescribed in the Manual, it may send as many persons as the district can afford to send.

(10) Representatives who attend the convention should have financial assistance from the district comparable to expenses provided from the district for Nazarene Youth International and Nazarene World Mission Society convention delegates.

(11) If no convention is held, representatives shall be elected at the District Assembly.

ARTICLE VIII. Amendments

These bylaws may be amended by a majority vote of the members present and voting at a General Assembly.

CHAPTER III

302. ADMINISTRATIVE POLICIES

302.1. Parliamentary Procedure

We recommend the adoption of Robert's Rules of Order where applicable when no definite method of parliamentary procedure is indicated in the Manual. [1980]

302.2. Annuities

The General Board and institutions of the church are prohibited from using annuity gifts until such have become their valid property by the death of the annuitant, and that such gifts are to be carefully invested in funds usually accepted as trust funds by the courts of the land. [1980]

902.3. Debt

No institution may incur any debt on the strength of pledges, and pledges are not to be counted as assets. [1993]

902.4. Bible Societies

(1) Approved Bible Societies

The Church of the Nazarene places special emphasis upon the Bible as the written revelation of God, and we believe that it is the only effective agency to win new followers to Jesus Christ, and because there is an increasing need for more copies of the Scripture; therefore be it

Resolved, First, That the General Assembly express its hearty approval of and sympathy with the work of the United Bible Societies around the world.

Second, That we endorse the observance of Universal Bible Sunday, directing attention on this day to the essential place the Scriptures should occupy in the lives of Christian people.

Third, That the General Assembly authorize its general secretary, or an alternate whom he may appoint, to attend during the ensuing quadrennium each annual session of the Advisory Council of the American Bible Society held in December at Bible House in New York City.

(2) Offering for Bible Societies

Resolved, That the Church of the Nazarene designate the second Sunday of December of each year as a special time for the presentation of this important matter and the taking of an offering for the American Bible Society in the United States, and the respective Bible Societies in Canada and the British Isles; also that a special effort be made to have all of our churches take part in such an offering. [1993]

NOTE: It is suggested that our churches in Scotland send their contributions to the National Bible Society or forward the churches in England to the British and Foreign Bible Society; and the churches of Canada to the Canadian Bible Society. The churches of the United States forward contributions to our denominational headquarters, 440 The Plaza, Kansas City, Mo. 64101, U.S.A., for the support of the American Bible Society.

902.5. Athletics

The schools and colleges of the Church of the Nazarene shall be bound by such regulations regarding intercollegiate activities as shall be recommended by the Department of Education and the Ministry and adopted by the General Board. [1904]

902.6. Dramatics

Witness. There is danger in the excessive use of dramatic productions in our schools and colleges; be it Resolved, That this practice be carefully restricted and greater emphasis be placed on the spiritual exercise that leads to realized Christian experience. [1900]

902.7. Use of Church Buildings

This General Assembly goes on record as being opposed to the use of any part of our church sanctuaries for recreational and entertainment purposes. [1888]

902.8. "Manual" Editing Revolution

Be it Resolved, That the members of the Manual Editing Committee appointed by the Board of General Superintendents be and they are hereby constituted the Manual Editing Committee; and be it further

Resolved, That the Manual Editing Committee be and they are hereby authorized to harmonize conflicting statements which may appear in the record of the actions of the Twentieth General Assembly in regard to changes in the Manual; and also to make such editorial changes in the text of the present Manual as will correct the language without altering the meaning; also to make such editorial changes in the copy of the newly adopted matter as may serve to correct the language without altering the meaning.

The Manual Editing Committee is hereby further authorized to substitute plainly understood words or expressions for confusing words or expressions, to revise the numbering of chapters, paragraphs, sections, and other divisions of the Manual in harmony with any actions adopted by the Twentieth General Assembly, and also to prepare the index in harmony with any actions adopted by the Twentieth General Assembly.

Further resolved that the supervision of all translations of the Manual shall be a duty of the Manual Editing Committee. [1901]

902.9 "Manual" Appendix Review

Any item remaining in Chapters III and V of the Appendix for three quadrennia (12 years) without reconsideration shall be referred by the Committee on Reference to the proper committee of the General Assembly for the next consideration as a resolution to the General Assembly. [1976]

902.10. Tenure of Committees

Resolved, that any special committee created for any purpose, unless specified otherwise, will cease to exist at the following General Assembly. [1986]

902.11. General Assembly Business

(From the 1980 Delegate's Handbook)

RESOLUTIONS AND PETITIONS

Rule 26. Presentation. District Assemblies, a committee authorized by the District Assembly, the General Board or any of its recognized departments, official boards, or commissions of the general church, or five members or more of the General Assembly may present resolutions and petitions for the consideration of the General Assembly in accordance with the following rules:

a. Resolutions and petitions shall be presented in triplicate and typewritten on the official form furnished by the General Secretary.

b. Each resolution or petition presented will include the subject and the name of delegates or group making the presentation.

4. They shall be presented to the General Secretary at least 30 days prior to the convening of the Assembly to be considered and sent to the Reference Committee in order that they may be printed in the Delegate's Handbook.

Rule 27. Resolutions and Petitions for Late Reference. With the consent of the Assembly, resolutions, petitions, and other items for consideration by the Assembly may be presented to the General Secretary for reference to a legislative committee no later than 3 p.m. on the second day of business.

Rule 28. Proposals for "Manual" Changes. Proposals for changes in the Church Manual must be presented in writing and shall give paragraph and sections of Manual to be affected and the text of the change should it be adopted. These shall be referred to committees in accordance with Rule 5. These committees shall consider such proposals and report their recommendations to the General Assembly. If adopted, the proposals shall be submitted to the Manual Editing Committee to be harmonized with other Manual provisions.

902.12. Quinquennium

Resolved, That the Nineteenth General Assembly of the Church of the Nazarene order a quinquennium to begin following the 1960 General Assembly, and that the next General Assembly would then be held in 1965 and return to quadrennial assemblies with the following assembly held in 1970.

Resolved, That all general superintendents elected in 1960 serve a five-year term in the period from 1960 to 1965.

Further Resolved, That all general superintendents elected in 1970 who would normally be eligible to be reelected in 1974, be eligible for reelection in 1975, and

Further Resolved, That all general superintendents be subject to the 1972 Manual requirements for reelection in related to the 1909 General Assembly and each succeeding General Assembly thereafter. [202] [1976]

Resolved, That all Manual references to quadrenniums shall apply to the period between General Assemblies, including the quinquenniums 1960-65. [203]

902.13. Restrictions on Membership General Church Boards

Resolved That no person shall serve on more than one of the following boards: General Board, Nazarene Theological Seminary Trustees, Nazarene Bible College Trustees. [1978]

CHAPTER IV

901. INTERPRETATION OF CHURCH LAW

Judiciary Actions

901.1. Has the District Advisory Board the right to transfer a member of the District Assembly to another denomination?

Ans. The District Advisory Board has no authority to transfer a member of the District Assembly to another denomination; however, the District Advisory Board may issue a Certificate of Commendation as provided in Manual Paragraph 914.14. [1978]

901.2. Relating to Special Rule 31.3, "membership in each second secret order or fraternality."

101) Does this mean that the Church of the Nazarenes will not permit its members to hold their former insurance in this class of policy, provided that the fees are paid for this purpose only and there is no following with the organization?

Ans. Does a church have the right to maintain the membership of a person when he holds membership in a non-order solely for the purpose of keeping his insurance while it has been membership of other persons because they are members of the same order?

Ans. 101) 101) According to 20.1 of our Manual you cannot be a member of the Church of the Nazarenes while holding membership in an oath-bound secret order.

W1.3. Special Rule 22.3 relating to "using of tobacco in any of its forms, or the trafficking therein."

Does this prohibit church membership in the Church of the Nazarenes to a person who is employed as a clerk, either as clerk or manager, where among other things he is obliged to sell tobacco?

Ans. There is a distinction between trafficking in the course of a business and selling as a clerk and, therefore, we would not interpret the selling as a clerk as violating the letter of the Manual.

W1.4. At a church meeting called for the purpose of voting on the recall of a pastor, is it legal to count the votes of members not present at the time of such voting?

Ans. It would be illegal to count the votes of members not present when voting on the recall of a pastor.

W1.5. If a licensed minister meets all the requirements for the renewal of his license according to 40.2, is the District Assembly obliged to renew such license?

Ans. A District Assembly is not under obligation according to 40.2 to renew said license.

W1.6. A church has a debt on its property. It elects a finance committee of three who are members of the church board with instructions to receive and disburse all money which applies to the church debt. Has the church the right to make this committee custodian of that part of the church funds and to receive and disburse the same independent of the regularly elected church treasurer?

Ans. The church does have such a right.

Q21.7. A pastor resigns. The district superintendent calls the church board together to consider the appointment of a man to fill the vacancy until the next District Assembly. He finds that the church board had previously held a meeting and elected a man for the pastorate for the remainder of the District Assembly year, and also had called him for the year following. Is the church acting within its rights?

Ans. The church is not acting within its rights.

Q21.8. In case a district superintendent and pastor fail to investigate charges filed against a minister in their assembly district as directed in 602 of the Manual, does this incriminate the district superintendent or the pastor for failure to make this investigation?

Ans. A district superintendent would be incriminated if he failed to investigate written accusations against a minister in his assembly district. The fact of his amenability to his District Assembly is evidence that he will be subject to charges for failing to discharge his official duty. [1879]

Q21.9. Clarify the status of an elder who may be dropped from the local membership roll on account of absence of over a six-month period, which is considered toly negligent, and the non-support of the church during this period. If a local church drops his name from the roll, what is his assembly relationship?

Ans. It is the opinion of the Committee on Judiciary that the dropping of an elder from the church roll of which he is a member, under the conditions mentioned cannot affect his status as a member of his assembly district, but does place responsibility on such elder to comply with Manual Paragraph 404.6. [1874]

CHAPTER V

204. CURRENT MORAL AND SOCIAL ISSUES204.1. Prayer and Bible in Schools and Local, State, and Federal Governments of the United States of America

The Church of the Nazarene recognizes that the founders of the United States of America were very conscious of the law of God and those Christian principles that may be found in the Holy Scriptures as a basis for a just and enduring civil government.

As a consequence the nation has given reverent recognition and honor to God in many ways throughout its history. The First Amendment of the Constitution states that "Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion or prohibiting the free exercise thereof." The free exercise of prayer and Bible reading was not considered to be in opposition to the Constitution.

However, since certain atheistic, secular, or even some religious forces have set about to destroy the time-tested fabric of this national life, the Church of the Nazarene freely resolves to support:

- (1) All present references to God found on the national currency and the pledge of allegiance and other reverent usage,
- (2) The present system of chaplaincy in federal, state, and local governments,
- (3) Voluntary prayer and Bible reading in any public government or private institutions,
- (4) The traditional practice of public school recitations, and
- (5) Free and other religious observances by public and civic organizations. [1974]

204.2. War and Military Service

We believe that the ideal world position is that of peace and that it is the full obligation of the Christian Church to use its influence to seek such means as will enable the nations of the earth to be at peace and to devote all of its agencies for the propagation of the message of peace.

However, we realize that we are living in a world where evil forces and philosophies are actively in conflict with these Christian ideals and that there may arise such international emergencies as will require a nation to resort to war in defense of its ideals, its freedom, and its existence.

While thus committed to the cause of peace, the Church of the Nazarenes recognizes that the supreme allegiance of the Christian is due to God, and therefore it does not endeavor to bind the conscience of its members relative to participation in military service in case of war, although it does believe that the individual Christian as a citizen is bound to perform to his own nation in all ways that are compatible with the Christian faith and the Christian way of life.

We also recognize that, as an outgrowth of the Christian teaching and of the Christian desire for peace on earth, there are among our membership individuals who have conscientious objection to certain forms of military service. Therefore the Church of the Nazarenes claims for conscientious objectors within its membership the same exemptions and considerations regarding military service as are accorded members of recognized non-combatant religious organizations.

The Church of the Nazarenes, through its general secretary, shall set up a register wherein those persons who supply evidence of being members of the Church of the Nazarenes may record their convictions as conscientious objectors. [1960]

364.3. Race and Discrimination

We, the members of the Twentieth General Assembly of the Church of the Nazarenes, wish to reiterate our historic stand of Christian compassion for men of all races. We believe that God is the Creator of all men, and that of one blood are all men created.

We believe that each individual, regardless of race, color, or creed, should have equality before the law, including the right to vote, equal access to educational opportunities, and to all public facilities, and to the equal opportunity, according to one's ability, to earn a living free from any job or economic discrimination.

We urge our churches everywhere to continue and strengthen programs of education to promote racial understanding and harmony. We also feel that the scriptural admonition "Follow ye with all men" (Matthew 23:15) should guide the actions of our people. We urge that each member of the Church of the Nazarene honestly examine his personal attitudes and actions toward other races, as a first step in achieving the Christian goal of full participation by all in the life of the church and the entire community.

We reemphasize our belief that holiness of heart and life is the basis for right living. We believe that Christian charity between racial groups will come when the hearts of men have been changed by complete submission to Jesus Christ, and that the essence of true Christianity consists in loving God with one's heart, soul, mind, and strength, and one's neighbor as oneself. [1960]

194.4. Tobacco and Its Effects on Health and Morals

In view of our historic stand on the use of tobacco and its attendant evils; and

Whereas, medical evidence documented by numerous social, governmental, and health agencies throughout the world, have condemned its use as a health hazard, and have shown conclusively that its use may produce and result in changes in normal bodily physiology, both serious and permanent; and

Whereas we are admonished to maintain our bodies as the temple of the Holy Ghost (1 Corinthians 3:16-17; 6:19-20); and

Whereas we are concerned about the protection of our youth against any enemy of health and morals; and

Witnesses the above-mentioned organizations and agencies have condemned the use of tobacco; and

Witnesses cancer, cardiovascular, and pulmonary societies have conducted a concerted campaign against smoking, be it

Resolved that the Church of the Nazarene continue to speak out against this social evil and that the Christian Action Committee of the general church, when feasible, encourage those agencies and organizations which have conducted campaigns against smoking. [1889]

194.5. Separation of Church and State

We, the Eighteenth General Assembly of the Church of the Nazarene, desiring to reaffirm our continuing concern that our great Protestant heritage be undisturbed and well-guarded, remind our people that both our political and religious freedom rest upon biblical concepts of the dignity of man as God's creation and the sanctity of his individual conscience. We encourage our people to participate in political activity in support of these historic concepts and to be ever vigilant against threats to our precious freedom.

We recognize that, in the United States, separation of church and state is a tradition which has implemented these principles at the national, state, and local levels. Believing that our precious freedoms are constantly in danger, we urge election of men to public office at all levels of government, who believe in these principles and who are answerable only to God and the constituency which elected them when carrying out a public trust. Further, we resist any invasion of these principles by religious groups seeking special favors.

We believe that the role of the Church is to be prophetic and constantly to remind the people that "righteousness exalteth a nation." [1972]

194.6. Modern or Folk Dancing

The Church of the Nazarene is opposed to all forms of social or folk dancing in public or private gatherings, even under the guise of physical education classes. [32.3, 33.4] [1963]

34.7. Magazines, Literature, Radio, and Other Electronic Media

Since we are living in a day of great moral confusion in which we face the potential encroachment of the evils of the day into the sacred precincts of our homes through various avenues such as current literature, radio, television, and other electronic media, it is essential that the most rigid safeguards be observed to keep our homes from becoming secularized and worldly.

While we recognize these agencies are of great value in the propagation of the gospel and the edification of souls, we do deplore the low moral tone of much current literature, comic magazines, articles and pictures of some magazines, and the contents of many books.

We do likewise deplore the content of many radio and television programs and other electronic media. Due to the rapid decline in quality of programming available for Christian viewing and the fact that television is one of the major factors in the communication breakdown in families, which in turn is a major cause in the rising divorce rates, and due to the fact that television stresses by implication the use of alcohol, the acceptance of the practice of homosexuality, the practice of promiscuity, and the philosophy of secular humanism, and due to the apparent lack of discrimination in home television, resulting in an inconsistency in regard to our official stand on the movie theater, and due to the availability of unreviewed movies in the home through Home Box Office, we urge our people to avoid programs which glamorize the world's philosophy of secularism, sensuality, and materialism. We therefore call upon our leaders and pastors to give strong emphasis in our periodicals and from our pulpits to such fundamental truths as will develop the principle of discrimination between the evil and good to be found in these mediums.

We suggest that the standard given to John Wesley by his mother, namely, "Whatever weakens your reason, impairs the tenderness of your conscience, obscures your sense of God, or takes off the relish of spiritual things, whatever increases the authority of your body over mind, that thing for you is sin," form the basis for this teaching of discrimination.

We especially recommend that the reading, listening, and viewing on the Sabbath day be consistent with our high standards of holiness and that unless providentially hindered we do not allow anything (even religious radio and television programs) to become a substitute for church attendance. [1995]

304.8. Public Swimming and Recreational Activities

Recognizing the increasing trend toward immodesty of dress in public places of recreation such as beaches and swimming places, we remind our people of our traditional concept of "modesty that becometh holiness" and urge that Christian judgment be exercised in the matter of swimming or sunbathing in public places. [1995]

304.9. Pornography

Realizing that sales of pornography are increasing throughout the world due especially to promotion of such by organized crime, and that pornographic materials degrade the human, violate the commandments of God, and corrupt the family, the Church of the Nazarene resolves actively to oppose pornography in all its forms by all means possible. [1971]

304.10. Women's Rights

Resolved that while men and women are created equal spiritually in God's sight (Galatians 3:28), that in the interests of the Christian family, moral and ethical standards,

Christian modesty and simplicity, we emphasize the distinction in male and female and stress that we respect the God-given distinction so each may fulfill his/her highest place in the home and in the kingdom of God. We support the right of women to use their God-given spiritual gifts within the church. We affirm the historic right of women to be elected and appointed to places of leadership within the Church of the Nazarene. We oppose any legislation which would be against the scriptural teachings of the place of womanhood in society. [1905]
